2 And remained there, and did eate no meate nor drinke water, mourning for the great iniquities of the multitude. 3 And there was a proclamation in all Inry and Ierusalem, to all them that were of the captiuitie, that they should be gathered together at Ieru-salem: 4 And that whosoeuer met not there within two or three dayes according as the Elders that bare rule, appointed, their cattell should be seized to the vse of the Temple, and himselfe lleast out from them that were of the captiuitie. 5 And in three dayes were all they of the tribe of Iuda and Beniamin ga thered together at Ierusalem the twentieth day of the ninth moneth.

6 And all the multitude sate trembling in the broad court of the Temple, because of the present foule weather.

7 So Esdras arose vp, and said vnto them, Ye have transgressed the law in marrying strange wives, thereby to increase the sinnes of Israel.

8 And now by confessing give glory vnto the Lord God of our fathers, 9 And doe his will, and separate your selues from the heathen of the land, and from the strange women.

10 Then cryed the whole multitude, and sayd with a loude voice; Like as thou hast spoken, so will we doe.

11 But forasmuch as the people are many, and it is foule weather, so that wee cannot stand without, and this is not a worke of a day or two, seeing our sinne in these things is spread farre:

12 Therefore let the rulers of the multitude ||stay, and let all them of our habitations that have strange wives, come at the time appointed,

13 And with them the Rulers and Iudges of enery place, till we turne away the wrath of the Lord from vs, for this matter.

14 Then Ionathan the sonne of Azael, and Ezechias the sonne of Theocanus, accordingly tooke this matter vpon them : and Mosollam, and Leuis, and Sabbatheus helped them.

15 And they that were of the capt iutie, did according to all these things.

16 And Esdras the Priest chose vnto him the principal men of their families, all by name; and in the first day of the tenth moneth, they sate together to examine the matter.

17 So their cause that helde strange wives, was brought to an ende in the first day of the first moneth.

N the thirtieth yeere after the ruine of the citie, I was in Babylon, and lay troubled vpon my bed, and my thoughts came vp and my thoughts came vp

2 For I saw the desolation of Sion, and the wealth of them that dwelt at Babylon.

8 And my spirit was sore moned, so that I began to speake words full of feare to the most High, and said,

4 O Lord, who bearest rule, thou spakest at the beginning, when thou didst plant the earth (and that thy selfe alone) and commandedst the people,

5 And gauest a body vnto Adam without soule, which was the workemanship of thine hands, & didst breathe into him the breath of life, and he was made living before thee.

6 And thou leddest him into paradise, which thy right hand had planted, before euer the earth came forward.

7 And vnto him thou gauest commandement to loue thy way, which he transgressed, and immediatly thou appointedst death in bim, and in his generations, of whom came nations, tribes, people, and kinreds out of number.

8 • And euery people walked after their owne will, and did wonderfull things before thee, and despised thy commandements.

9 * And againe in processe of time thou broughtest the flood vpon those that dwelt in the world, and destroyedst | uant, called Dauid,

10 And it came to passe in enery of them, that as death was to Adam, so was the flood to these.

11 Neuerthelesse one of them thou leftest, namely Noah with his household, of whom came all righteous men.

12 And it happened, that when they that dwelt vpo the earth began to multiply, and had gotten them many children, and were a great people, they beganne againe to be more vngodly then the first.

18 Now when they lived so wicked-Gen, 19. 1 ly before thee, thou diddest choose thee a man from among them, whose name Gen. 17. s was Abraham.

21 For the first Adam bearing a wicked heart transgressed, and was ouercome; and so be all they that are borne of him.

22 Thus infirmity was made permanent; and the law (also) in the heart of the people with the malignity of the roote, so that the good departed away, and the euill abode still.

23 For it was not my minde to be curious of the high things, but of such as passe by vs dayly, namely wherefore Israel is given vp as a reproch to the heathen, and for what cause the people whom thou hast loued, is given over vnto vngodly nations, and why the Lawe of our forefathers is brought to nought, and the written Couenants come to linone effect.

24 And wee passe away out of the world as grassehoppers, and our life is astonishment and feare, and we are not worthy to obtaine mercie. 25 What will he then doe vnto his Name, whereby we are called? of these things have I asked.

26 Then answered he me, and said, The more thou searchest, the more thou shalt marueile, for the world lasteth fast to passe away, 27 And cannot comprehend the things that are promised to the righteous in time to come: for this world is ful of varighteousnesse and infirmities.

28 But as concerning the things whereof thou askest me, I wil tell thee; for the euil is sowen, but the destruction thereof is not yet come.

29 If therefore that which is sowen. be not turned vpside downe; and if the place where the euil is sowen passe not away, then cannot it come that is sowen with good.

SO For the graine of enill seed hath bene sowen in the heart of Adam from the beginning, and how much vogodlinesse hath it brought vp vnto this time? and how much shall it yet bring foorth vntill the fitime of threshing come.

S1 Ponder now by thy selfe, how great fruit of wickednesse the graine of euil seed hath brought forth.

32 And when the eares shall bee cut downe, which are without number, how great a floore shall they fill?

33 Then I answered and said, How and when shall these things come to 34 And he answered me, saying, Do not thou hasten about the most Highest: for thy haste is in vaine to be about him. for thou hast much exceeded.

35 Did not the soules also of the righteous aske question of these things in their chambers, saying, How long shall I hope on this fashion? when commeth the fruit of the floore of our 37 By measure bath bee measured the times, and by number hath he numbred the times; and he doeth not mooue nor stirre them, vntill the said measure be fulfilled.

38 Then answered I, and said, O Lord that bearest rule, even we all are full of impletie.

39 And for our sakes peraduenture it is that the floores of the righteous are not filled, because of the sinnes of them that dwell vpon the earth.

40 So he answered me, and said, Go thy way to a wman with childe, and aske of her, when she hath fulfilled her nine moneths, if her wombe may keepe the birth any longer within her?
41 Then said I, No Lord, that can she not. And he said vnto mee. In the grave, the chambers of soules are like the wombe of a woman :

42 For like as a woman that traunileth, maketh haste to escape the necessitie of the trauxile : even so doe these places haste to deliuer those things that are committed vato them.

43 From the beginning looke what thou desirest to see, it shalbe shewed thee,

44 Then answered I, and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, and if it be possible, and if I be meet therefore,

45 Shew me then whether there be more to come then is past, or more past then is to come.

46 What is past I know; but what is for to come I know not.

47 And he said vnto me, Stand vp vpon the right side, and I shal expound the similitude vnto you.

48 So I stood and saw, and behold an hot burning ouen passed by before mee: and it happened that when the Apocrypha.

49 After this there passed by before me a watrie cloude, and sent downe much raine with a storme, and when the stormie raine was past, the drops remained still.

50 Then said he vnto me, Consider with thy selfe: as the raine is more then the drops, and as the fire is greater then the smoke : but the drops and the smoke remaine behind: so the ||quantity which is past, did more exceede.

51 Then I prayed, and sayd, May I liue, thinkest thou, vntill that time for what shall happen in those dayes?

The signes of the times to come. 23 He asketh why God choosing but one people, did cast them off. 30 Hee is taught, that Gods Iudgements are vnsearchable: 46 and that God doeth not all at once.

9 And salt waters shall be found in the sweete, and all friends shall destroy one another : then shall wit hide it selfe, and vnderstanding withdraw it selfe into his secret chamber,

10 And shall be sought of many, and yet not be found : then shall vnrighteousnesse and incontinencie be multiplyed voon earth.

11 One land also shall aske another. and say, Is righteousnes that maketh a man righteous, gone through thee? And it shall say, No.

12 At the same time shall men hope but nothing obtaine : they shall labour, but their wayes shall not || prosper.

13 To shew thee such tokens I have leaue : and if thou wilt pray againe, and weepe as now, and fast seuen dayes, thou shalt heare yet greater things.

14 Then I awaked, & an extreme fearefulnesse went through all my body, and my minde was troubled, so that t fainted.

15 So the Angel that was come to talke with me, helde me, comforted me, and set me vp vpon my feete.

16 And in the second night it came to passe, that Salathiel the captaine of the people came vnto mee, saying, Where hast thou beene? and why is thy countenance so heavie?

17 Knowest thou not that Israel is committed vnto thee, in the land of their captinitie?

18 Vp then, and eate bread, and forsake vs not as the shepheard that leaueth his flocke in the handes of cruell

20 And so I fasted seuen dayes, monrning and weeping, like as Vriel the Angel commanded me.

21 And after seuen dayes, so it was that the thoughts of my heart were very grieuous vnto me againe.

22 And my soule recouered the spirit of vnderstanding, and I began to talke with the most high againe,

23 And said, O Lord, that bearest rule of euery wood of the earth, and of thee one onely vine. 24 And of all lands of the whole world thou hast chosen thee one pit : and of all the flowers thereof, one Lillie.

25 And of all the depths of the Sea, thou hast filled thee one river ; and of all builded cities, thou hast hallowed Sion vnto thy selfe.

26 And of all the foules that are created, thou hast named thee one Doue : and of all the cattell that are made, thou hast prouided thee one sheepe.

27 And among all the multitudes of peoples, thou hast gotten thee one people : and vnto this people whom thou louedst, thou gauest a law that is approued of all.

28 And now O Lord, why hast thou given this one people over vato many? and livpon the one roote hast thou prepared others, and why hast thou scattered thy onely one people among 29 And they which did gainesay thy promises, and beleeved not thy coue nants, haue trodden them downe.

SO If thou didst so much hate thy people, yet shouldest thou punish them with thine owne hands.

31 Now when I had spoken these words, the Angell that came to me the night afore, was sent vnto me.

32 And said vnto me, Heare me, and I will instruct thee, hearken to the thing that I say, & I shal tell thee more.

33 And I said, Speake on, my Lord : then said he vnto me, thou art sore troubled in minde for Israels sake: louest thou that people better then hee that made them?

S4 And I said, No Lord, but of very griefe haue I spoken : For my reines paine me euery houre, while I labour to comprehend the way of the most High, and to seeke out part of his judge-35 And he said vnto me, Thou caust not: and I said, wherfore Lord? wherunto was I borne then? or why was not my mothers wombe then my grave, that I might not have seene the trauell of Iacob, and the wearisome toyle of the stocke of Israel?

36 And he said vnto me, Number me the things that are not yet come, gather me together the droppes that are scattered abroad, make mee the flowres greene againe that are withered.

[all the trees thereof, thou hast chosen] | 87 Open me the places that are closed, and bring me forth the winds that in them are shut vp, shew me the image of a voyce : and then I will declare to thee the thing that thou labourest to knowe.

38 And I said, O Lord, that bearest rule, who may know these things, but hee that hath not his dwelling with men?

39 As for me, I am vnwise : how may I then speake of these things whereof thou askest me?

40 Then said he vnto me, Like as thou canst doe none of these things that I have spoken of, even so canst thou not find out my judgement, or in the end the loue that I baue promised vato my people.

41 And I said, behold, O Lord, yet art thou nigh vnto them that be reserued till the end; and what shall they doe that have beene before me, or we (that be now) or they that shall come after vs?

42 And he said vnto me. I wil liken my iudgement vnto a ring : like as there is no slacknesse of the last, euen so there is no swiftnesse of the first.

43 So I answered and said, Couldst thou not make those that have beene made, and be now, and that are for to come, at once, that thou mightest shewe thy judgement the sooner?

44 Then answered he me, and said, The creature may not hast aboue the maker, neither may the world hold them at once that shalbe created therin.

45 And I said. As thou hast said vnto thy seruant, that thou which giuest life to all, hast given life at once to the creature that thou hast created, and the creature bare it : euen so it might now also beare them that now be present at 47 And I said, She cannot: but must doe it by distance of time.

48 Then said he vnto me, Euen so haue I given the wombe of the earth to those that be sowen in it, in their times. 49 For like as a young child may not bring forth the things that belong to the aged, euen so haue I disposed the world which I created.

hast now given me the way, I will proceed to speak before thee : for our mother of whom thou hast told me that she is yong, draweth now nigh vnto age.

51 He answered me and said, Aske a woman that beareth children, and shee shall tell thee.

52 Say vnto her, Wherefore are not they whome thou hast now brought forth, like those that were before, but lesse of stature?

53 And she shall answere thee, They that be borne in the strength of youth, are of one fashion, and they that are borne in the time of age (when the wombe failcth) are otherwise.

54 Consider thou therfore also, how that yee are lesse of stature then those that were before you. 55 And so are they that come after you lesse then ye, as the creatures which now begin to be old, and haue passed o-

29 And when hee talked with mee, behold, I looked by little and little vp on him before whom I stood.

30 And these words said he vnto me. I am come to shew thee the time of the pight to come.

31 If thou wilt pray yet more, & fast seuen daies againe, I shal tel thee greater things || by day, then I have heard.

32 For thy voice is heard before the most High : for the mighty hath seene thy righteous dealing, he hath seene also thy chastitie, which thou hast had euer since thy youth.

33 And therefore hath he sent mee to shew thee al these things, and to say vn to thee, Be of good comfort, & feare not.

34 And hasten not with the times that are past, to thinke vaine things, that thou mayest not hasten from the latter times.

35 And it came to passe after this, that I wept againe, and fasted seuen dayes in like maner, that I might fulfill the three weekes which he told me.

36 And in the eight night was my heart vexed within mee againe, and I began to speake before the most High.

37 For my spirit was greatly set on fire, and my soule was in distresse.

38 And I said, O Lord, thou spakest from the beginning of the creation, euen the first day, & saidest thus, * Let *Gen. 1. 1. heaven and earth bee made: and thy word was a perfect worke.

39 And then was the spirit, and darkenesse, and silence were on every side; the sound of mans voice was not vet formed.

40 Then commandedst thou a faire light to come foorth of thy treasures. that thy worke might appeare.

41 Vpon the second day thou madest the spirit of the firmament, and commandedst it to part asunder, and to make a division betwixt the waters, that the one part might goe vp, and the other remaine beneath.

42 Vpon the thirde day thou didst commaund that the waters should bee gathered in the seventh part of the earth : sixe parts hast thou dried vp and kept them, to the intent that of these some being planted of God and tilled, might serue thee.

43 For as soone as thy word went foorth, the worke was made.

44 For immediatly there was great and innumerable fruit, and many and diuers pleasures for the taste, & flowers of vnchangeable colour, and odours of wonderfull smell: and this was done the third day.

49 Then didst thou ordeine two liuing creatures, the one thou calledst | E- 1 Behemoth noch, and the other Leuiathan.

CHAP. VII.

4 The way is narrow. 12 When it was made narrow. 28 All shall die and rise againe. 33 Christ shall sit in judgement. 46 God hath not made l'aradise in vaine, 62 & is merciful.

ND when I had made an ende of speaking these words, there was sent vn-to mee the Angel which had beene sent vnto mee the nights afore. 2 And he said vnto me, Vp Esdras, and heare the wordes that I am come

3 And I said, Speake on, my God. Then said he vnto me, The Sea is set in a wide place, that it might be deepe and great.

4 But put the case the entrance were narrow, and like a river,

5 Who then could goe into the Sea to looke vpon it, and to rule it? If hee could he come into the broad?

6 There is also another thing. A city is builded, and set v pon a broad field. and is full of all good things.

7 The entrance thereof is narrow, and is set in a | dangerous place to fall, Or, steepe like as if there were a fire on the right hand, and on the left a deepe water.

8 And one only path between them both, euen betweene the fire and the water, so small that there could but one man goe there at once.

9 If this city now were giuen vnto a man for an inheritance, if he neuer shall passe the danger set before it, how shall he receive this inheritance?

10 And I said, It is so, Lord. Then said he vnto me. Euch so also is Israels 11 Because for their sakes I made the world : and when Adam transgressed my Statutes, then was decreed that now is done.

12 Then were the entrances of this world made narrow, full of sorrow and trausile: they are but few and cuill, full of perils, and very painefull.

13 For the entrances of the || elder | Or, greater world were wide and sure, and brought immortall fruit. 14 If then they that live, labour not to enter these strait and vaine things, they can neuer receive those that are laide vp for them.

15 Now therefore why disquietest thou thy selfe, seeing thou art but a corruptible man? and why art thou moolued, whereas thou art but mortall?

16 Why hast thou not considered in thry minde this thing that is to come, rather then that which is present?

17 Then answered I, and sayd, O Lord, that bearest rule, thou hast ordained in thy * Law , that the righteous * Deut. 8. 1 should inherite these things, but that the vigodly should perish:

18 Neuerthelesse, the righteous shal suffer strait things, and hope for wide: for they that have done wickedly, have suffered the strait things, and yet shall not see the wide.

19 And he said vnto me, There is no iudge aboue God, and none that hath understanding aboue the highest.

20 For there be many that perish in this life, because they despise the Lawe of God that is set before them.

66 And that is of great mercie, for he multiplieth more and more mercies to them that are present, and that are past, & also to them which are to come.

67 For if he shall not multiplie his mercies, the world would not continue with them that inherit therein.

68 And he pardoneth; for if hee did not so of his goodnesse, that they which haue committed iniquities might be eased of them, the ten thousand part of men should not remaine liuing.

69 And being ludge, if he should not forgiue them that are || cured with his word, and put out the multitude of ||contentions,

Many created, but few saued. 6 Hee asketh why God destroyeth his owne worke, 26 and prayeth God to looke ypon the people which onely serue him. 41 God answereth that all seed commeth not to God, 52 and that glory is prepared for him and such like.

Nd he answered me, saying, The most High hath made this world for many, but the world to come for fewe.

trighteousnesse, and nourturedst it in thy Law, and reformedst it with thy iudgement.

13 And thou shalt mortifie it as thy creature, and quicken it as thy worke.

14 If therefore thou shalt destroy him which with so great *labour was fashioned, it is an easie thing to be ordeined by thy Commaundement, that the thing which was made might be pre serued.

15 Now therefore, Lord, I will speake (touching man in generall, thou knowest best) but touching thy people, for whose sake I am sory,

16 And for thine inheritance, for whose cause I mourne, and for Israel. for whom I am heauy, and for Iacob. for whose sake I am troubled:

17 Therefore will I begin to pray before thee, for my selfe, and for them for I see the falles of vs that dwell in the land.

18 But I have heard the swiftnesse of the Judge which is to come.

19 Therefore heare my voyce, and understand my wordes, and I shall speake before thee; this is the beginning of the words of Esdras, before he was taken vp : and I said;

20 O'Lord, Thou that dwellest in cuerlastingnes, which beholdest from a bone, things in the heaven, & in the aire.

21 Whose Throne is inestimable. whose glory may not be comprehended. before whom the hosts of Angels stand with trembling, 22 (Whose service is conversant in wind and fire, ) whose word is true, and sayings constant, whose Commandement is strong, and ordinance fearefull.

23 Whose looke drieth vp the depths, and indignation maketh the mountaines to melt away, which the trueth witnesseth:

24 O heare the prayer of thy ser uant, and give eare to the petition of thy creature.

25 For while I liue, I will speake, and so long as I have vnderstanding wil answere.

26 O looke not vpon the sinnes of thy people but on them which serne thee in tructh.

27 Regard not the wicked inuentions of the heathen; but the desire of those that keepe thy Testimonies in afflictions.

28 Thinke not vpon those that have walked fainedly before thee; but remember them, which according to thy will haue knowen thy feare.

29 Let it not bee thy will to destroy them, which have lived like beasts : but to looke voon them that have clearely taught thy Law.

30 Take thou no indignation at them which are deemed worse then beasts: but loue them that alway put their trust in thy rightcournesse, and

32 For if thou || hast a desire to have || Bewilling mercy vpon va, thou shalt bee called mercifull, to vs namely, that have no workes of righteousnesse.

33 For the just which have many good workes layed up with thee, shall out of their owne deedes receive reward.

34 For what is man that thou shouldest take displeasure at him? or what is a corruptible generation, that thou shouldest be so bitter toward it?

35 "For in trueth there is no man a- " 1. King. " mong them that be borne, but he hath chro. 6, 36 dealt wickedly, and among the faithfull, there is none which hath not done

37 Then answered he mee, and said, Some things hast thou spoken aright, and according vnto thy words it shalbe.

38 For indeed I will not thinke on the disposition of them which have sinned before death, before judgement, before destruction.

39 But * I will reioyce ouer the disposition of the righteous, and I wil remember also their pilgrimage, and the saluation, and the reward that they shall haue.

40 Like as I have spoken now, so shall it come to passe.

41 For as the hushandmau soweth much seed vpon the ground, and planteth many trees, and yet the thing that is sowen good in his season, commeth not vp, neither doeth all that is planted take root : euen so is it of them that are sowen in the world, they shall not all he saued.

Apocrypha.

I haue found grace, let me speake.

43 Like as the husbandmans seede perisheth, if it come not vp, and receive not the raine in due season, or if there come too much raine and corrupt it:

44 Euen so perisheth man also which is formed with thy hands, and is called thine owne image, because thou art like vnto him, for whose sake thou hast made all things, and likened him vnto the husbandmans seede.

45 Be not wroth with vs. but spare thy people, and haue mercy vpon thine owne inheritance : for thou art mercifull vnto thy creature.

46 Then answered he me, and said, Things present are for the present; and things to come, for such as be to come.

47 For thou commest farre short, that thou shouldest be able to loue my creature more then I : but I have oft times drawen nigh vnto thee, and vnto it, but neuer to the vnrighteous.

48 In this also thou art maruellous before the most high;

49 In that thou hast humbled thy selfe as it becommeth thee, and hast not judged thy selfe worthy to be much glorified among the righteous.

50 For many great miseries shall be done to them, that in the latter time shal dwell in the world, because they have walked in great pride. 51 But vnderstand thou for thy selfe, and seeke out the glory for such as be like thee.

52 For vnto you is Paradise opened, the tree of life is planted, the time to come is prepared, plenteousnesse is made ready, a citie is builded, and rest is allowed, yea perfect goodnesse and wisedome.

53 The root of euil is sealed vp from you, weakenesse and the moth is hidde from you, and corruption is fled into hell to be forgotten.

54 Sorrows are passed, & in the end is shewed the treasure of immortalitie.

55 And therefore aske thou no more questions concerning the multitude of them that perish.

Who shall be saued, and who not . 19 All the world is now corrupted: 22 Yet God doeth saue a few. 33 Hee complaineth that those perish which keepe Gods Law: 38 and seeth a woman lamenting in a field.

Ee answered me then, and sayde, Measure thou the time diligently in it selfe: and when thou seest part of the signes past, which

5 For like as all that is made in the world hath a beginning, and an ende, and the end is manifest :

6 Euen so the times also of the highest, haue plaine beginnings in wonders and powerfull workes, and endings in effects and signes.

7 And every one that shalbe saued, and shalbe able to escape by his works, and hy faith, whereby ye haue beleeued,

8 Shall be preserved from the sayd perils, and shall see my saluation, in my and, and within my borders : for I have sanctified them for me, from the beginning.

13 And therefore be thou not curious, how the vagodly shalbe punished and when : but enquire how the righteous shall be saued, whose the world is, and for whom the world is created. 14 Then answered I, and said,

32 But our fathers which received the law, kept it not, and observed not thy ordinances, and though the fruite of thy law did not perish, neither could it, for it was thine:

33 Yet they that received it, perished, because they kept not the thing that was sowen in them.

34 And loe, it is a custome when the ground hath received seed, or the Sea a ship, or any vessel, meate or drinke, that, that being perished wherein it was sowen, or cast into.

35 That thing also which was sowen or cast therein, or received, doth perish, and remaineth not with vs : but with vs it hath not happened so.

36 For we that have received the law perish by sinne, and our heart also which received it.

37 Notwithstanding the law perisheth not, but remaineth in his force.

38 And when I spake these things in my heart, I looked backe with mine eyes, & vpon the right side I saw a woman, and behold, she mourned, & wept with a loud voyce, and was much grieued in heart, and her clothes were rent, and she had ashes vpon her head.

32 And I said, because thou hast forsaken me, and yet I did according to thy words, and I went into the field, and loe I have seene, and yet see, that I am not able to expresse.

33 And hee said vnto me, Stand vp manfully, and I wil aduise thee.

34 Then said I, Speake on, my lord in me, onely forsake me not, lest I die frustrate of my hope.

35 For I have seene, that I knew not, and heare that I do not know.

39 Hee hath seene that thy | way is 10r, purpos right : for that thou sorrowest continually for thy people, and makest great lamentation for Sion.

40 This therefore is the meaning of the vision which thou lately sawest.

41 Thou sawest a woman mourning, and thou beganst to comfort her: 42 But now seest thou the likenesse of the woman no more, but there appeared vnto thee a city builded.

47 And whereas she told thee that shee nourished him with labour : that was the dwelling in Hierusalem.

48 But whereas she said vnto thee. That my sonne comming into his mat-riage chamber, happened to haue a fall, and died, this was the destruction that came to Hierusalem.

49 And behold, thou sawest her likenesse, and because she mourned for her sonne, thou beganst to comfort her, and of these things which have chaunced, these are to be opened vnto thee.

50 For now the most High seeth, that thou art grieued vnfainedly, & sufferest from thy whole heart for her, so hath he shewed thee the brightnes of her glory, and the comelinesse of her beautie.

Hee seeth in his dreame an Eagle comming out of the Sea : 37 And a Lion out of a wood talking to the Eagle.

Hen saw I a dreame, and beholde, there came vp from the Sea an Eagle, which had twelve feathe-red wings, & three heads.

2 And I saw, and behold, she spred her wings ouer all the earth, and all the windes of the ayre blewe on her, and were gathered together.

3 And I beheld, and out of her feathere there grewe other contrary feathers, and they became little feathers, and small.

4 But her heads were at rest: the head in the middest was greater then the other, yet rested + it with the residue.

5 Moreouer I beheld, and loe, the Eagle flew with her feathers, and reigned vpon earth, and ouer them that dwelt therein.

6 And I saw that all things vnder heauen were subject vnto her, and no man spake against her, no not one creature vpon earth.

7 And I beheld, and loe, the Eagle rose vpon her talents, and spake to her feathers, saying,

8 Watch not all at once, sleepe euery one in his own place, & watch by course. 9 But let the heads be preserved for the last.

10 And I beheld, and loe, the voice went not out of her heads, but from the middest of her body.

11 And I numbred her contrary feathers, and behold, there were eight of them.

12 And I looked, and behold, on the right side there arose one feather, and reigned ouer all the earth.

18 And so it was, that when it reigned, the ende of it came, and the place thereof appeared no more : so the next following stood vp and reigned, and had a great time. 14 And it happened, that when it reigned, the end of it came also, like as the first, so that it appeared no more.

15 Then came there a voice vnto it. and savd.

16 Heare, thou that hast borne rule ouer the earth so long : this I say vnto thee, before thou beginnest to appeare no more.

19 So went it with all the residue one after another, as that every one reigned, and then appeared no more.

20 Then I beheld, & loe, in processe of time, the feathers that followed, stood vp vpon the right side, that they might rule also, and some of them ruled, but within a while they appeared no more: 21 For some of them were set vp, but ruled not. 22 After this I looked, and behold, the twelne feathers appeared no more, nor the two little feathers:

23 And there was no more vpon the Eagles body, but three heads that rested, and sixe little wings.

24 Then saw I also that two little feathers divided themselves from the sixe, and remained under the head, that was vpon the right side : for the foure continued in their place.

25 And I bebeld, & lee, the feathers that were vnder the wing, thought to set vp themselues, and to have the rule.

26 And I beheld, & loe, there was one set vp, but shortly it appeared no more. 27 And the second was sooner away then the first.

28 And I beheld, and loe, the two that remained, thought also in themselues to reigne.

29 And when they so thought, behold, there awaked one of the heads that were at rest, namely it that was in the middest, for that was greater then the two other heads.

ther heads were joyned with it.

31 And behold, the head was turned thy vaine body: with them that were with it, and did eate vp the two feathers under the freshed, and may returne, being deliuewing that would have reigned.

32 But this head put the whole earth in fcare, and bare rule in it over all those that dwelt voon the earth. with much oppression, and it had the governance of the world more then all the wings that liad beene.

35 And I beheld, and loe, the head vpon the right side, denoured it, that was vpon the left side.

36 Then I heard a voyce, which said vnto me, Looke before thee, and 37 And I beheld, and loe, as it were a roaring Lyon, chased out of the wood : and I saw that hee sent out a mans voyce vnto the Eagle, and said,

38 Heare thou, I will talke with thee, and the highest shall say vnto thee, 39 Art not thou it that remainest of the foure beasts, whom I made to raigne in my world, that the end of their times might come through them?

40 And the fourth came and ouercame all the beasts that were past, and had power ouer the world with great fearefulnesse, and ouer the whole compasse of the earth with much wicked oppression, and so long time dwelt he vpon the earth with deceit.

41 For the earth hast thou not judged with trueth.

42 For thou hast afflicted the meeke. thou hast hurt the peaceable, thou hast loued lyers, and destroyed the dwellings of them that brought forth fruite, and hast cast downe the walles of such, as did thee no harme.

43 Therefore is thy wrongfull dealing come vp vnto the Highest, and thy pride vnto the Mighty.

44 The Highest also hath looked vpon the proud times, and behold, they are ended, and his abominations are fulfilled.

The Eagle which hee saw, is destroyed. 10 The vision is interpreted. 37 He is bid to write his visions, 39 and to fast, that he may ace more. 46 He doth comfort those, that were griened for his absence.

9 For thou hast judged me worthy, to show me the last times.

10 And he said vnto me, This is the interpretation of the vision.

11 The Eagle whom thou sawest come up from the sea, is the kingdome brother Daniel.

12 But it was not expounded vnto him, therefore now I declare it vnto

13 Behold, the dayes will come, that there shall rise vp a kingdome vpon earth, and it shall be feared aboue all the kingdomes that were before it.

14 In the same shall twelve kings reigne, one after another.

15 Whereof the second shall begin to reigne, and shall have more time then any of the twelue. 16 And this doe the twelve wings signific which thou sawest.

17 As for the voice which thou heardest speake, and that thou sawest not to goe out from the heads, but from the mids of the body thereof, this is the interpretation:

18 That after the time of that kingdome, there shall arise great striuings, and it shall stand in perill of falling : neuerthelesse it shall not then fall, but shall be restored againe to his beginning.

19 And whereas thou sawest the eight small vnder feathers sticking to her wings, this is the interpretation:

20 That in him there shal arise eight kings, whose time shall bee but small, and their yeeres swift. 21 And two of them shall perish : the middle time approching, foure shall bee kept vntill their end begin to approch: but two shall be kept vnto the end. 22 And whereas thou sawest three heads resting, this is the interpretation 23 In his last dayes shall the most High raise vp three kingdomes, and renew many things therein, and they shall haue the dominion of the earth, 24 And of those that dwell therein with much oppression, aboue all those that were before them : therefore are they called the heads of the Eagle.

25 For these are they that shal accomplish his wickednesse, and that shall finish his last end.

26 And whereas thou sawest that the great head appeared no more, it signifieth that one of them shall die vpon his bed, and yet with paine.

27 For the two that remaine, shall be slaine with the sword.

28 For the sword of the one shall deuoure the other : but at the last shall he fall through the sword himselfe.

29 And whereas thou sawest two

30 It signifieth that these are they whom the Highest hath kept vnto their end : this is the small kingdom and full of trouble, as thou sawest.

31 And the Lyon whom thou sawest rising vp out of the wood, and roaring, and speaking to the Eagle, and rebuking her for her vnrighteousnesse, with all the words which thou hast heard, 32 This is the Anointed which the Highest hath kept for them, and for their wickednesse vnto the end : he shall reprooue them, and shall vpbraid them with their crueltie.

33 For hee shall set them before him aliue in judgement, and shall rebuke them and correct them.

34 For the rest of my people shall he deliuer with mercie, those that haue bin preserued vpon my borders, and he shall make them joyfull vntill the comming of the day of judgement, whereof I haue spoken vnto thee from the begin-

35 This is the dreame that thou saw. est, and these are the interpretations. 36 Thou onely hast bene meete to that thou hast seene, in a booke, and hide them. 38 And teach them to the wise of the 39 But wait thou here thy selfe yet seuen dayes moe, that it may be shewed thee whatsoeuer it pleaseth the Highest to declare vnto thee : And with that he went his way.

50 So the people went their way into the city, like as I commanded them: 51 But I remained still in the field seven dayes, as the Angel commanded me, and did eate onely in those dayes, of the flowers of the fielde, and had my meat of the herbes.

12 Afterward saw I the same man come downe from the mountaine, and call voto him an other peaceable multitude.

13 And there came much people vnto him, whereof some were glad, some were sory, some of them were bound, and other some brought of jithem that leaning the things that were offred: then was I sicke through that were there and I maked and midgreat feare, and I awaked and said,

14 Thou hast shewed thy seruant wonders from the beginning, and hast counted me worthy that thou shouldest receine my prayer:

15 Shew mee now yet the interpretation of this dreame.

16 For as I conceine in mine vnderstanding, woe vnto them that shall be left in those dayes; and much more woe vnto them that are not left behinde.

17 For they that were not left, were in beauinesse.

18 Now vnderstand I the things that are layde vp in the latter dayes, which shall happen vnto them, and to those that are left behinde.

19 Therefore are they come into great perils, and many necessities, like as these dreames declare.

20 Yet is it easier for him that is in danger, to come into || these things, then Or, thu to passe away as a cloud out of the day. world, and not to see the things that happen in the lastdayes. And he answered vnto me, and said, 21 The interpretation of the vision shal I shew thee, and I wil open vnto thee, the thing that thou hast required. 22 Wherethat are left behinde, this is the interpretation.

23 He that shall endure the perill in that time, hath kept himselfe : they that be fallen into danger, are such as haue workes, and faith towards the Almightie.

24 Know this therefore, that they which be left behinde, are more blessed then they that be dead.

25 This is the meaning of the vision: Whereas thou sawest a man comming vp from the middest of the Sea:

26 The same is hee whom God the highest hath kept a great season, which by his owne selfe shall deliuer his creature : and hee shall order them that are left behinde.

27 And whereas thou sawest, that out of his mouth there came as a blast of winde, and fire, and storme:

28 And that he helde neither sword, nor any instrument of warre, but that the rushing in of him destroyed the whole multitude that came to subdue him, this is the interpretation.

29 Behold, the dayes come, when the most high wil begin to deliuer them that are vpon the earth.

30 And he shall come to the astonishment of them that dwell on the earth.

31 And one shall vndertake to fight against another, one city against ano-Mat 14.7 ther, one place against another, *one people against another, and one realme against another.

32 And the time shalbe, when these things shall come to passe, and the signes shall happen which I shewed thee before, and then shall my sonne be declared, whom thou sawest as a man ascending.

33 And when all the people heare his voice, enery man shall in their owne land, leave the battaile they have one avainst another.

34 And an innumerable multitude shalbe gathered together, as thou saw est them willing to come, and to ouer come him by fighting.

35 But hee shall stand vpon the top of the mount Sion.

36 And Sion shall come and shall be shewed to all men, being prepared and builded, like as thou sawest the hill grauen without hands.

37 And this my sonne shall rebuke the wicked inventions of those nations,

22 Wheras thou hast spoken of them | which for their wicked life are fallen into the tempest,

38 And shall lay before them their euill thoughts, and the torments wherwith they shall begin to be tormented, which are like vnto a flame : and hee shall destroy them without labour, by the law which is like vnto fire.

39 And whereas thou sawest that hee gathered another peaceable multitude vnto him;

40 Those are the ten tribes, which were caried away prisoners out of their owne land, in the time of Osea the king, whom *Salmanasar the king of Assy*e. Kings

41 But they tooke this counsaile amongst themselves, that they would leave the multitude of the heathen, and goe foorth into a further countrey, where neuer mankind dwelt, till they were passed ouer.

42 That they might there keepe their statutes, which they neuer kept in their owne land.

45 For through that countrey there was a great way to goe; namely, of a yeere and a halfe; and the same region is called || Arsareth.

46 Then dwelt they there vntill the latter time; and now when they shall begin to come, 47 The highest shall stay the springs of the streame againe, that they may go through: therefore sawest thou the mul titude with peace. 48 But those that be left behinde of thy people, are they that are found within my borders.

49 Now when hee destroyeth the multitude of the nations that are gathered together, he shal defend his people that remaine.

50 And then shall hee shewe them great wonders.

51 Then said I, O Lord, that bearest rule, shew me this: Wherefore haue I seene the man comming vp from the midst of the Sea?

54 For thou hast forsaken thine owne way, and applied the diligence ento my law, and sought it.

55 Thy life hast thou ordered in wisdome, and hast called vnderstanding thy mother.

56 And therefore have I shewed thee the treasures of the Highest: After other three dayes, I will speake other things vnto thee, and declare vnto thee mightie and wonderous things.

57 Then went I forth into the field giuing praise and thanks greatly vnto the most High, because of his wonders which he did in time.

Babylon and other places are threatned with plagues that cannot be suoided: 23 and with desolation. 40 The acruants of the Lorde must looke for troubles: 51 and not hide their sinnes, 74 but leave them, and they shall be deliuered.

5 Plagues are sent vnto you, and what is he that may drive them away? 6 May any man drive away a hungry Lion in the wood? or may any one quench the fire in stubble, when it hath begun to burne?

7 May one turne againe the arrow that is shot of a strong archer?

8 The mightie Lord sendeth the plagues, and who is hee that can drive them away?

9 A fire shall goe foorth from his wrath; & who is he that may quench it?

10 He shall cast lightnings, and who shall not feare? he shall thunder, and who shall not be afraid?

11 The Lord shall threaten, and who shall not be viterly beaten to powder at his presence?

12 The earth quaketh and the foundations thereof, the sea ariseth vp with waves from the deepe, and the waves of it are troubled, and the fishes thereof also before the Lord, and before the glorie of his power.

19 Behold, famine, and plague, tribulation and anguish, are sent as scourges for amendment.

20 But for all these things they shall not turne from their wickednes, nor be alway mindfull of the sconrges.

21 Behold, victuals shall be so good cheape vpon earth, that they shal think themselves to be in good case, and even Or. plagues then shall | euils growe vpon earth, sword, famine, and great confusion.

22 For many of them that dwell yn. on earth, shall perish of famine, and the other that escape the hunger, shall the sword destroy.

23 And the dead shall be cast out as doung, and there shalbe no man to comfort them, for the earth shall be wasted. and the cities shall be cast downe.

24 There shall be no man left to till the earth, and to sow it.

25 The trees shall give fruite, and who shall gather them?

26 The grapes shall ripe, and who shall treade them? for all places shall be desolate of men.

27 So that one man shall desire to see another, and to heare his voyce.

28 For of a citie there shalbe ten left. and two of the field which shall hide themselves in the thicke groves, and in the clefts of rockes.

SO Or, when as a vineyard is gathered, there are left some clusters of them that diligently seek through y vineyard: 31 Euen so in those dayes there shalbe three or foure left by them that search their houses with the sword.

32 And the earth shall be laid waste. and the fields therof shal waxe old, and her wayes and all her paths shall grow full of thornes, because no man shall trauaile therethrough.

33 The virgins shall mourne having no bridegromes, v women shal mourne having no husbands, their daughters shall mourne having no helpers.

34 In the warres shall their bridegromes bee destroyed, and their husbands shall perish of famine.

35 Heare now these things, and vnderstand them, ye sernants of the Lord. 36 Behold the word of the Lord, receiue it, beleeue not the gods of whom the Lord spake.

37 Behold, the plagues draw nigh, and are not slacke.

Tobit grieued with his wives taunts, prayeth. 11 Sara reproched by her fathers maides, prayeth also. t7 An Angel is sent to helpe them both.

Hen I being grieued, did weepe, and in my sorrowe prayed, saying, 2 O Lord, thou art just and all thy workes, and all thy wayes are mercie and trueth, and thou judgest truely & justly for ever. S Remember me, and looke on me, punish me not for my sinnes and ignorances, and the sinnes of my fathers, who haue sinned before thee. 4 For they obeyed not thy commandements, wherefore thou hast delivered vs * for a spoile, and vnto captiuitie, and vnto death, and for a prouerbe of reproch to all the nations among whom we are dispersed.

5 And how thy judgments are many and true; Deale with me according to my sinnes, and my fathers : because we have not kept thy commandements, neither have walked in trueth before

7 It came to passe the same day, that in Echatane a citie of Media, Sara the daughter of Raguel, was also reproched by her fathers maides,

8 Because that she had hin maried to seven husbands, whom Asmodeus the euill spirit had killed, before they had lien with her. Doest thou not knowe, said they, that thou hast strangled thine husbands? thou hast had already seuen husbands, neither wast thou named after any of them.

9 Wherefore doest thou beate vs for them? If they be dead, goe thy wayes after them, let vs neuer see of thee either sonne or daughter.

10 When she heard these things, she was very sorowful, so that she thought to have strangled her selfe, and she said,

I am the onely daughter of my father. and if I doe this, it shall bee a reproch vnto him, and I shall bring his old age with sorow vnto the graue.

11 Then she prayed toward the window, & said, Blessed art thou, O Lord my God, and thine holy and glorious Name is blessed, and honourable for euer, let al thy works praise thee for euer.

12 And now, O Lord, I set mine eyes and my face toward thee, 13 And say, take me out of the earth, that I may heare no more the reproch.

14 Thou knowest, Lord, that I am pure from all sinne with man,

15 And that I neuer polluted my name, nor the name of my father in the land of my captiuitie : I am the onely daughter of my father, neither hath he any child to bee his heire, neither any Il neere kinseman, nor any sonne of his 1 Or. brother aliue, to whome I may keepe my selfe for a wife : my seuen husbands are already dead, and why should I line? but if it please not thee that I should die. command some regard to be had of me. and pitie taken of me, that I heare no more reproch.

The Angel biddeth Tobias to take the liuer, heart and gall out of a fish, 10 And to marry Sara the daughter of Raguel; 16 And teacheth how to drive the wicked spirit away.

Nd as they went on their iourney, they came in the evening to the river Tigris, & they lodged there. 2 And when the yong man went downe to wash himselfe, a fish leaped out of the river, and would haue denoured him.

3 Then the Angel said vato him, Take the fish; and the yong man layd hold of the fish, and || drew it to land. | 1 Cast it up on the land.

5 So the yong man did as the Angel commaunded him, and when they had rosted the fish, they did eate it : then they both went on their way, till they drew neere to Echatane.

6 Then the yong man saide to the Angel; Brother Azarias, to what vse is the heart, and the liver, and the gall of the fish?

7 And he said vnto him, Touching the heart and the liver, if a deuil, or an euil spirit trouble any, we must make a smoke thereof before the man or the woman, and the party shalbe no more vexed.

8 As for the gall it is good to an-oint a man that hath whitenesse in his eves, and he shalbe healed.

9 And when they were come neere to Rages;

10 The Angel said to the yong man, Brother, to day wee shall lodge with Raguel, who is thy cousin; hee also hath one onely daughter, named Sara, I wil speake for her, that she may be given thee for a wife.

13 Then the yong man answered the Angel, I have heard, brother Azarias, that this maide hath beene given to seuen men, who all died in the marriage

Ichodonosor made warre with king Arphaxad in the great plaine, which is the plaine in the borders of Ragau.

6 And there came vnto him, al they that dwelt in the hill countrey, and all that dwelt by Euphrates, and Tigris, and Hydaspes, and the plaine of A-rioch the king of the Elimeans, and very many nations of the sonnes of Chelod, assembled themselves to the battell.

7 Then Nahuchodonosor king of the Assyrians, sent vnto all that dwelt in Persia, and to all that dwelt Westward, and to those that dwelt in Cilicis, and Damascus and Libanus, and Antilibanus, and to all that dwelt vpon the Sea coast.

8 And to those amongst the nations that were of Carmel, and Galaad, and the higher Galile, and the great plaine of Esdrelon.

9 And to all that were in Samaria, and the cities thereof : and beyond Iordan vnto Ierusalem, and Betane, and Chellus, and Kades, and the river of E. gypt, and Taphnes, and Ramesse, and all the land of Gesem, 10 Vntill you come beyond Tanis, and Memphis, and to all the inhahitants of Egypt, vntill you come to the borders of Ethiopia.

11 But all the inhabitants of the land made light of the commandement of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians, neither went they with him to the hattell : for they were not afraid of him: yea he was before them as one man, and they sent away his Ambassadours from them without effect, and with dis-

12 Therefore Nabuchodonosor was very angry with all this countrey, and sware by his throne and kingdome, that hee would surely be avenged vpon all those coasts of Cilicia, and Damascus, and Syria, and that he would slay with the sword all the inhabitants of the land of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and all Iudea, and all that were in Egypt, till you come to the borders of the two Seas.

13 Then he marched in battell aray with his power against king Arphaxad in the seuenteenth yeere, and he preuailed in his battell : for he ouerthrew all the power of Arphaxad, and all his horsemen and all his chariots,

14 And became Lord of his cities,

22 Then he tooke all his armie, his footmen, and horsemen and chariots, and went from thence into the hill countrev.

23 And destroyed Phud, and Lud: and spoiled all the children of Rasses, and the children of Ismael, which were toward the wildernesse at the South of the land of the Chellians.

24 Then he went ouer Euphrates, and went through Mesopotamia, and destroyed all the high cities that were vpon the river Arbonai, till you come to the sea.

25 And hee tooke the borders of Cilicia, and killed all that resisted him, and came to the borders of Iapheth, which were toward the South, ouer against Arabia.

26 He compassed also all the children of Madian, and burnt vp their tabernacles, and spoiled their sheepcoats.

27 Then hee went downe into the plaine of Damascus in the time of wheat-haruest, and burnt vp all their fieldes, and destroyed their flockes, and heards, also he spoiled their cities, and vtterly wasted their countreys, and smote all their yong men with the edge of the sword.

28 Therefore the feare and dread of him, fell vpon all the inhabitants of the sea coastes, which were in Sidon and Tyrus, and them that dwelt in Sur, and Ocina, and all that dwelt in Iemnaan, and they that dwelt in Azotus, and Aschalon feared him greatly.

2 Therefore they were exceedingly afraid of him, and were troubled for Ierusalem, and for the Temple of the Lord their God.

3 For they were newly returned from the captiuitie, and all the people lof Iudea were lately gathered together: and the vessels, and the Altar, and the house, were sanctified after the profanation.

4 Therefore they sent into all the coasts of Samaria, and the villages, and to Bethoron, and Belmen, and Iericho, and to Choba, and Esora, and to the valley of Salem,

5 And possessed themselves beforehand of all the tops of the high mountaines, and fortified the villages that were in them, and laid vp victuals for the prouision of warre: for their fieldes were of late reaped.

6 Also Ioacim the hie Priest which was in those daies in Ierusalem, wrote

8 And the children of Israel did as loacim the hie Priest had commanded them, with the || ancients of all the peo- 1 or, goverple of Israel, which dwelt at Ierusale.

9 Then every man of Israel cryed to God with great feruencie, and with great vehemency did they humble their soules:

10 Both they and their wines, and their children, and their cattell, and euery stranger and hireling, and their seruants bought with money, put sackecloth vpon their loynes.

11 Thus euery man and woman, and the little children, & the inhabitants of Ierusalem fell before the temple, and cast ashes vpon their heads, and spread out their sackcloth before the face of the Lord: also they put sackecloth about the Altar.

12 And cryed to the God of Israel all with one consent earnestly, that hee would not give their children for a pray, and their wives for a spoile, and the cities of their inheritance to destruction, and the Sanctuary to profanation and reproch, & for the nations to reloyce at.

13 So God heard their prayers, and looked vpon their afflictions : for the people fasted many dayes in all Iudea, and Ierusalem, before the Sanctuary of the Lord Almighty.

14 And Ioacim the high Priest, and all the Priestes that stood before the Lord, and they which ministred vnto the Lord, had their loines girt with sackecloth, and offered the daily burnt offerings, with the vowes and free gifts of the people,

He next day Holofernes commanded all his army, and all his people which were come to take his part, that they should re-

2 Then their strong men removed their campes in that day, and the armie of the men of warre was, an hundred and seventy thousand footmen, and twelue thousand horsemen, beside the baggage, & other men that were afoot amongst them, a very great multitude.

S And they camped in the valley neere vato Bethulia, by the fountaine, and they spred themselves in breadth ouer #Dothaim, euen to Belmaim, and in length from Bethulis vnto † Cyamon which is ouer against Eadraelon.

4 Now the children of Israel, when they saw the multitude of them, were greatly troubled, and said every one to his neighbour : Now will these men licke vp the face of the earth; for neither the high mountaines, nor the valleys, nor the hile, are shie to beare their waight.

9 Let our lord now heare a word. that there be not an ouerthrow in thine armie.

10 For this people of the children of Israel do not trust in their speares, but in the beight of the mountaines wherein they dwell, because it is not essie to come vp to the tops of their mountains.

11 Now therefore my lord, fight not against them in battell aray, and there shall not so much as one man of thy people perish

12 Remaine in thy campe, and keepe all the men of thine army, and let thy seruants get into their hands the fountaine of water which issueth foorth of the foot of the mountaine.

18 For all the inhabitants of Bethulia have their water thence; so shall thirst kil them, & they shall give vp their citie, and we and our people shal goe vp to the tope of the mountaines that are neere, and will campe vpon them, to watch that none goe out of the city.

14 So they and their wives, and their children shalbe consumed with famine, and before the sword come against them, they shall be ouerthrowen in the streets where they dwel.

15 Thus shalt thou render them an enil reward: because they rebelled and met not thy person peaceably.

16 And these words pleased Holofernes, and al his servants, and he appointed to doe as they had spoken.

17 So the campe of the children of Ammon departed, and with them five thousand of the Assyrians, and they pitched in the valley, and tooke the waters, and the fountaines of the waters of the children of Israel.

18 Then the children of Esan went vp, with the children of Ammon, and camped in the hil countrey over against Dotha-em : and they sent some of them toward the South, & toward the East oner against Ekrebel, which is neere vato Chusi, that is vpon the brooke Mochmur, and the rest of the army of the Assyrians camped in the plaine, and covered the face of the whole land, and their tents and cariages were pitched to a very great multitude.

Hen Tudeth fell voon her face, and put ashes vpon her head, and vncouered the sackcloth wherewith she was clothed, and about the time, that the incense of that euening was offered in Ierusalem, in the house of the Lord, Iudeth cryed with a loud voyce, and said,

2 O Lord God of my father *Si. meon, to whom thou gauest a sword to take vengeance of the strangers, who loosened the girdle of a maide to defile her, and discouered the thigh to her shame, and polluted her virginity to her reproch, (for thou saidst it shall not be so, and yet they did so.)

3 Wherefore thou gauest their rulers to be slaine, so that they died their bedinhlood, being deceived, and smotest the servants with their Lords, and the Lords vpon their thrones:

4 And hast given their wives for a pray, and their daughters to bee captiues, and all their spoiles to be divided amongst thy deere children : which were mooued with thy zeale, and ahhorred the pollution of their blood, and called vpon thee for aide : O God, O my God, heare me also a widow.

5 For thou hast wrought not onely those things, but also the things which fell out before, and which ensewed after, thou hast thought voon the things which are now, and which are to come.

6 Yea what things thou didst determine were redy at hand, and said, loe we are heere; for all thy wayes are prepared, and thy judgements are in thy foreknowledge.

7 For behold, the Assyrians are multiplyed in their power : they are exalted with horse and man: they glory in the strength of their footemen : they trust in shield and speare, and bow, and sling, and know not that thou art the Lord that breakest the battels : the Lord is thy name.

8 Throw downe their strength in thy power, and hring downe their force in thy wrath; for they have purposed to defile thy Sanctuary, and to pollute the Tabernacle, where thy glorious name resteth, and to cast downe with sword the horne of thy altar.

9 Behold their pride, and send thy wrath vpon their heads : giue into mine hand which am a widow, the power that I have conceived.

10 *Smite hy the deceit of my lips the seruant with the prince, and the prince 21. & 5. 26. with the seruant : hreake downe their statelinesse by the hand of a woman.

11 *For thy power standeth not in 2. chro. 14. multitude, nor thy might in strong men, 11. and 16. for thou art a God of the afflicted, an s. & 20. 6. helper of the oppressed, an voholder of the weake, a protector of the forelorne, a saujour of them that are without hope.

12 I pray thee, I pray thee, O God of my father, and God of the inheritance of Israel, Lord of the heavens, and earth, creator of the waters, king of euery creature : heare thou my prayer :

13 And make my speech and deceit to be their wound & stripe, who have purposed cruell things against thy couenant, and thy hallowed house, and against the top of Sion, and against the house of the possession of thy children.

14 And make every nation and tribe to acknowledge that thou art the God of all power and might, and that there is none other that protecteth the people of Israel hut thou.

CHAP. X.

Indeth doth set forth herselfe. 10 She and her maide goe forth into the campe. 17 The watch take and conduct her to Olofernes.

Ow after that she had cea-sed to cry vnto the God of Israel, and had made an end of all these words, 2 She rose where she had fallen downe, and called her maide, and went downe into the house, in the which she abode in the Sabbath dayes and in her feast dayes,

3 And pulled off the sackcloth which she had on, and put off the garments of her widowhood, and washed her body all ouer with water, and annointed herselfe with precious ointment, and hraided the haire of her head, and put on +a | t Cre. miter tire vpon it, and put on her garments of gladnesse, wherewith she was clad during the life of Manasses her hushand.

feete, and put about her, her bracelets and her chaines, and her rings, and her earerings, and all her ornaments, and decked her selfe brauely to allure the eves of all men that should see her.

5 Then she gave her enavd a bottle of wine, and a cruse of oyle, and filled a bagge with parched come, and lumpes of figs, and with fine bread, so she || folded all these things together, and layd them vpon her.

6 Thus they went forth to the gate of the citie of Bethulia, and found standiug there Ozias, and the ancients of the city Chabris, and Charmis.

7 And when they saw her, that her countenance was altered, and her apparel was changed, they wondered at her beautie very greatly, and said vnto her, 8 The God, the God of our fathers give thee fanour, and accomplish thine enterprises to the glory of the children of Israel, and to the exaltation of Ierusalem : then they worshipped God.

9 And she said vnto them, Command the gates of the city to be opened vnto me, that I may goe forth to accomplish the things, whereof you have spoken with me; so they commanded the yong men to open vnto her, as slice had spoken.

10 And when they had done so. Iudeth west out, she and her mayd with her, and the men of the citic looked after her, vntill shee was gone downe the mountaine, and till she had passed the valley, and could see her no more.

11 Thus they went straight foorth in the valley: and the first watch of the Assyrians met her;

12 And tooke her, and asked her, Of what people art thou? and whence comest thou? and whither goest thou? And she said. I am a woman of the Hehrewes, and am fled from them : for they shalbe given you to be consumed:

15 And I am comming before Olofernes the chiefe captaine of your army. to declare words of trueth, and I will shew him a way, whereby he shall goe, and winne all the hil countrey, without loosing the body or life of any one of his men.

14 Now when the men heard her wordes, and beheld her countenance. they wondered greatly at her beautie, and said vnto her:

15 Thou hast saued thy life, in that thou hast hasted to come downe to the presence of our lord : now therfore come to his tent, and some of va shall conduct thee, vatill they have delivered thee to his hands.

16 And when thou standest before him, bee not afraid in thine heart : hut shew vnto him according to thy word, and he will intreat thee well.

17 Then they chose out of them an hundred men, to ||accompany her and | or, and her mayd, and they brought her to the they prepatent of Olofernes.

18 Then was there a concourse throughout all the campe: for her comming was noised among the tents, and they came about her, as she stood without the tent of Olofernes, till they told him of ber.

19 And they wondered at her beautie, and admired the children of Israel because of her, and enery one said to his neighbour; Who would despise this people, that have among them such women, surely it is not good that one man of them be left, who being let goe, might deceive the whole earth.

20 And they that lay neere Olofernes, went out, and all his servants, and they brought her into the tent.

21 Now Olofernes rested vpon his bed vnder a canopie which was wouen with purple, and gold, and emeraudes, and precious stones.

22 So they shewed him of her, and he came out before his tent, with silver lampes going before him.

23 And when Iudeth was come before him and his seruants, they all marueiled at the beautie of her countenance; and she fel downe vpon her face, and did renerence vnto him; and his seruants tooke her vp.

CHAP. XI.

Olofernes asketh Iudeth the cause of her comming. 6 She telleth him how, and when hee may preuaile. 20 Hee is much pleased with her wisedome and beautie.

Hen said Olofernes vnto her, Woman, bee of good comfort, feare not in thine heart : for I neuer hurt any, that was willing to serue Nabuchodonosor the king of all the earth.

3 But now tell me wherefore thou art fled from them, and art come vnto vs : for thou art come for safeguard, be of good comfort, thou shalt line this night, and hereafter.

4 For none shall hurt thee, but intreat thee well, as they doe the seruants of king Nabuchodonosor my lord.

5 Then Iudeth said vnto him, Re ceive the words of thy servant, and suffer thine handmaid to speake in thy presence, and I will declare no lie to my lord this night.

6 And if thou wilt follow the words of thine handmaid, God will bring the thing perfectly to passe by thee, and my lord shall not faile of his purposes,

7 As Nabuchodonosor king of all the earth liueth, and as his power liueth, who hath sent thee for the vpholding of every living thing : for not only men shall serue him hy thee, hut also the beasts of the field, and the cattell, and the foules of the aire shall liue by thy power, vnder Nabuchodonosor and all his house.

8 For wee haue heard of thy wisedome, and thy policies, and it is reported in all the earth, that thou onely art lexcellent in all the kingdome, and mightie in knowledge, and wonderfull in feates of warre.

9 Now as concerning the matter which Achior did speake in thy counsell, we have heard his words; for the men of Bethulia || saued him, and hee declared vnto them all that hee had spoken nto thee.

10 Therefore, O lord and governor, reject not his word, but lay it vp in thine heart, for it is true, for our nation shall not be punished, neither can the sword prevaile against them, except they sinne against their God.

Il And now, that my lord be not defcated, and frustrate of his purpose, euen death is now fallen vpon them, and their sinne hath ouertaken them, wherewith they will prouoke their God to anger, whensoeuer they shall doe that which is not fit to be done.

12 For their victuals faile them, and all their water is scant, and they have determined to lay hands vpon their cattell, and purposed to consume all those things, that God hath forhidden them to eate by his Lawes,

18 And I will come, and shew it vnto thee : then thou shalt goe forth with all thine army, and there shall be none of them that shall resist thee.

2 Judeth will not eate of Olofernes meate. She taried three dayes in the campe, and eucrie night went forth to pray. 13 Bagons doth moue her to be merry with Olofernes, 20 who for iny of her companie drunke much.

2 And Iudeth said, #I will not eat thereof, lest there bee an offence : hut provision shall be made for mee of the things that I have brought.

3 Then Olofernes said vnto her, If thy prouision should faile, howe should we give thee the like? for there be none with vs of thy nation.

4 Then said Iudeth vnto him, As thy soule liucth, my lord, thine handemaid shall not spend those things that I haue, before the Lord worke by mine hand, the things y he hath determined.

5 Then the seruants of Olofernes brought her into the tent, and shee slept til midnight, and she arose when it was towards the morning watch,

6 And sent to Olofernes, saying, Let my lord now command, that thine handmaid may goe forth vnto prayer.

7 Then Olofernes commaunded his guard that they should not stay her: thus she abode in the camp three dayes, and went out in the night into the valley of Bethulia, and washed her selfe in a fountaine of water by the campe.

8 And when she came out, shee besought the Lord God of Israel to direct her way, to the raising up of the children of her people.

9 So she came in cleane, and remained in the tent, vntill shee did eate her meat at evening.

10 And in the fourth day Olofernes made a feast to his owne seruants only, and called none of the officers to the banquet.

II Then said he to Bagoas the Eunuch, who had charge ouer all that he had : Goe now, and perswade this Ebrewe woman which is with thee, ithat she come vnto vs. and eate and drinke with va.

Apocrypha.

12 For loc, it will be a shame for our person, if we shall let such a woman go, not having had her company : for if we draw her not vnto vs. she will laugh vs

IS Then went Bagoas from the presence of Olofernes, and came to her. and he said. Let not this faire damosell feare to come to my lord, and to bee honoured in his presence, and drink wine, and be merry with vs. and be made this day as one of the daughters of the Assyrians, which serue in the house of Nabuchodonosor

14 Then said Iudeth vnto him, Who am I now, that I should gainesay my lord? surely whatsoeuer pleaseth him, I will doe speedily, and it shall bee my ioy vnto the day of my death, 15 So she arose, and decked her selfe with her apparell, and all her womans lattire, and her maid went and laid soft skinnes on the ground for her, over a gainst Olofernes, which she had receiued of Bagoas for her daily vse, that she might sit, and eate vpon them.

16 Now when Iudeth came in, and sate downe, Olofernes his heart was rauished with her, and his minde was moued, and he desired greatly her company, for hee waited a time to deceive her, from the day that he had seene her.

17 Then said Olofernes vito her. Drinke now, and be merry with vs.

18 So Iudeth saide, I will drinke now my lord, because my life is magnified in me this day, more then all the dayes since I was borne.

19 Then she tooke and ate and dranke before him what her maide had prepared.

20 And Olofernes tooke great delight in her, & dranke much more wine, then he had drunke at any time in one day, since he was borne.

CHAP. XIII.

Iudeth is left alone with Olofernes in his tent. 4 She prayeth God to give her strength 8 She cut off his head while hee slept: 10 And returned with it to Bethulia: 17 They saw it, and commend her. .

Ow when the euening was come, his seruants made haste to depart, and Bagoas shut his tent without, and dismissed the waiters from the presence of his lord, | both small and great, for it was strange and they went to their beds ; for they were all weary, because the feast had bene long.

2 And Iudeth was left alone in the tent, and Olofernes lying along rpon his bed, for hee was filled with wine.

8 Now Indeth had commanded her maide to stand without her bedchamber, and to waite for her comming forth as she did daily : for she said , she would goe forth to her prayers, and she spake to Bagoas, according to the same purpose.

4 So all went forth, and none was left in the bedchamber, neither little, nor great. Then Iudeth standing by his bed, said in her heart : O Lord God of all power, looke at this present vpon the workes of mine hands for the exaltation of Ierusalem.

5 For now is the time to helpe thine inheritance, and to execute mine enterprises, to the destruction of the enemies, which are risen against vs.

6 Then she came to the pillar of the bed, which was at Olofernes head, and tooke downe his fauchin from thence,

7 And approched to his bed, and tooke hold of the haire of his head, and said, Strengthen mee, O Lord God of Israel, this day.

8 And she smate twise vpon his necke with all her might, and she tooke away his head from him.

9 And tumbled his body downe from the bed, and pulled downe the canopy from the pillars, and anon after she went forth, and gaue Olofernes his head to her maide.

10 And she put it in her bag of meate, so they twaine went together according to their custome vnto prayer, and when they passed the campe, they compassed the valley, and went vp the mountaine of Bethulia, and came to the gates thereof.

11 Then said Iudeth a farre off to the watchmen at the gate, Open, open now the gate : God, euen our God is with vs, to shew his power yet in Ierusalem, and his forces against the enemie, as he hath euen done this day.

12 Now when the men of her citie heard her voyce, they made haste to goe downe to the gate of their citie, and they called the Elders of the citie.

13 And then they raune altogether vnto them that she was come : so they opened the gate, and received them, and made a fire for a light, and stood round about them.

14 Then she said to them with a loud voyce, Praise, praise God, praise God, (I say) for hee hath not taken away his mercy from the house of Israel, but hath destroyed our enemies by mine hands this night,

15 So she tooke the head out of the bag, and shewed it, and said vnto them. Behold the head of Olofernes the chiefe captaine of the armie of Assur, and behold the canopy wherein he did lie in his drunkennesse, and the Lord hath smitten him by the hand of a wo-

16 As the Lord liveth, who hath kept me in my way that I went, my countenance hath deceived him to his destruction, and yet hath hee not committed sinne with mee, to defile and shame mee.

17 Then all the people were wonderfully astonished, and bowed themselues, and worshipped God, and said with one accord : Blessed be thou, O onr God, which hast this day brought to nought the enemies of thy people.

18 Then said Ozias vnto her. O daughter, blessed art thou of the most high God, aboue all the women vpon the earth, and hiessed be the Lord God, which hath created the heavens, and the earth, which hath directed thee to the cutting off of the head of the chiefe of our enemies.

19 For this thy confidence shall not depart from the heart of men, which remember the power of God for euer.

20 And God turne these things to thee for a perpetuall praise, to visite thee in good things, because thou hast not spared thy life for y affliction of our nation, but hast revenged our ruine, walking a straight way before our God: and all the people said, So be it, so be it.

3 Then they shal take their armour. and shal goe into their campe, and raise vp the captaines of the armie of Assur. and they shall runne to the tent of Olofernes, but shall not finde him, then feare shall fall vpon them, and they shall flee before your face.

4 So you, and all that inhabite the coast of Israel, shall pursue them, and ouerthrow them as they goe.

5 But before you doe these things, call me Achior the Ammonite, that hee may see and know him that despised the house of Israel, and that sent him to vs as it were to his death.

6 Then they called Achier out of the house of Ozias, and when hee was come, and saw the head of Olofernes in a mans hand, in the assembly of the people, he fell downe on his face, and his spirit failed.

renced her, and said: Blessed art thou in all the tabernacle of Iuda, and in all nations, which hearing thy name shall be astonished.

9 And when shee had left off spesking, the people shouted with a lowd voice, & made a loyful noise in their citie.

10 And when Achior had seene all that the God of Israel had done, hee beleeved in God greatly, and circumcised the foreskinne of his flesh, and was joyned vnto the house of Israel vnto this day.

done, and that all should rush forth vpon their enemies to destroy them.

5 Now when the children of Israel heard it, they all fell vpon them with one consent, and slewe them vnto Choba: likewise also they that came from Ierusalem, and from all the hill country, for men had told them what things were done in the campe of their enemies, and they that were in Galaad and in Galile ||chased them with a great slaughter, vntill they were past Damascus, and the borders thereof.

6 And the residue that dwelt at Bethulia, fell vpon the campe of Assur, and spoiled them, & were greatly enriched.
7 And the children of Israel that returned from the slaughter, had that which remained, and the villages, and the cities that were in the mountaines, and in the plaine, gate many spoiles : for the multitude was very great.

8 Then Ioacim the high Priest, and the Ancients of the children of Israel that dwelt in Ierusalem, came to behold the good things that God had shewed to Israel, and to see Iudeth, and to salute her.

9 And when they came vnto her, they blessed her with one accord, and said vnto her. Thou art the exaltation of Ierusalem : thou art the great glory of Israel: thou art the great reloyeing

10 Thou hast done all these things by thine hand : thou hast done much good to Israel, and God is pleased therewith: blessed bee thou of the Almightie Lord for euermore: and all the people said, So be it.

11 And the people spoiled the campe, the space of thirty dayes, and they gave vnto Iudeth Olofernes his tent, and all his plate, and beds, and vessels, and all his stuffe: and she tooke it, and laide it on her mule, and made ready her carts, and laid them thereon.

12 Then all the women of Israel ran together to see her, and hiessed her, and made a dance among them for her : and shee tooke branches in her hand, & gaue also to the women that were with her.

13 And they put a garland of oliue vpon her, and her maid that was with her, and shee went before the people in the dance, leading all the women : and all the men of Israel followed in their armor with garlands, and with songs in their mouthes.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The song of Indeth. 19 She dedicateth the stuffe of Olofernes. 23 Shee died at Bethulis a widow of great honour. 24 All Israel did lament her death.

Hen Iudeth began to sing this thankesgiuing in all Israel, and all the people sang after her || this song naising.

And Iudeth said, Begin vnto my

5 He hragged that he would burne vp my borders, and kill my young men with the sword, and dash the sucking children against the ground, and make mine infants as a pray, and my virgins as a spoile.

6 But the Almighty Lord hath disappointed them by the hand of a woman.

7 For the mighty one did not fall by the yong men, neither did the sonnes of the Titans smite him, nor high gyants set yoon him: but Iudeth the daughter of Merari weakned him with the beautie of her countenance.

8 For she put off the garment of her widowhood, for the exaltation of those that were oppressed in Israel, and anointed her face with oyntment, & bound her haire in a ttyre, and tooke a linnen t Gr. or migarment to deceive him.

9 Her sandals rauished his eyes, her beautie tooke his minde prisoner, and 14 Let all creatures serue thee: for thou spakest, and they were made, thou didst send forth thy spirit, and it created them, and there is none that can resist thy voyce.

15 For the mountaines shall be mooued from their foundations with the waters, the rockes shall melt as waxe at thy presence : yet thou art mercifull to them that feare thee.

16 For all sacrifice is too little for a sweete sauour vnto thee, and all the fat is not sufficient, for thy harnt offering but he that feareth the Lord is great at all times.

17 Woe to the nations that rise vp against my kinred : the Lord almighty will take vengeance of them in the day of indgement in putting fire & wormes in their flesh, and they shall feele them and weepe for euer.

18 Now assoone as they entred into Icrusalem, they worshipped the Lord, and assoone as the people were purified, they offered their burnt offerings, and their free offerings, and their gifts.

19 Judeth also dedicated all the stuffe of Olofernes, which the people had giuen her, and gaue the canopy which she had taken out of his bed chamber, for a wift vnto the Lord.

20 So the people continued feasting in Ierusalem before the Sanctuarie, for the space of three moneths, and ludeth remained with them.

21 After this time, every one returned to his owne inheritance, and Iudeth went to Bethulia, and remained in her owne possession, and was in her time honourable in all the countrey.

22 And many desired her, but none knew her all the dayes of her life, after that Manasses her husband was dead, and was gathered to his people.

23 But she encreased more and more in honour, and waxed olde in her husbands liouse, being an hundred and five yeeres olde, and made her maide free, so shee died in Bethulia : and they buried her in the ||caue of her husband | Or, sepul-Manasses.

The stocke and qualitie of Mardocheus. He dreameth of two dragons comming forth to fight, 10 and of a little fountaine, which became a great water.

N the fourth yeere of the Taigne of Ptolomeus, and Cleopatra, Dositheus, who said hee was a priest and Leuite, and Ptolome-us his some brought this Epistle of Phurim, which they said was the same, and that Lysimachus the sonne of Ptolomeus, that was in Ierusalem, had interpreted it.

2 In the second yeere of the raigne of Artaxerxes the great: in the first day of the moneth Nisan, Mardocheus the sonne of Iairus, the sonne of Semei, the sonne of Cisai of the tribe of Benia min, had a dreame.

4 He was also one of the captines. which Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon caried from Ierusalem, with Iechonias king of Iudca; and this was his dreame.

5 Behold a noise of a tumult with thunder, and earthquakes, and vproare in the land.

6 And behold, two great dragons came forth ready to fight, and their crie was great.

7 And at their cry all nations were prepared to battel, that they might fight against the righteous people.

3 Then the king examined the two Eunuches, and after that they had confessed it, they were strangled.

4 And the king made a record of these things, and Mardocheus also wrote thereof.

5 So the king commaunded Mar-docheus to scrue in the court, and for this he rewarded him.

6 Howbeit Aman the sonne of Amadathus the Agagite, who was in great honour with the king, sought to molest Mardocheus and his people, because of the two Eunuches of the king.

3 Now when I asked my counsellers how this might bee brought to passe, Aman that excelled in wisedome among vs. and was appropued for his constant good will, and stedfast fidelitie. and had the honour of the second place in the kingdome.

4 Declared vnto vs, that in all nations throughout the world, there was scattered a certaine malitious people, that had Lawes contrary to all nations, and continually despised the commandements of Kings, so as the vniting of our kingdomes honourably intended by vs, cannot || goe forward.

5 Seeing then we vnderstand that this people alone is continually in opposition vnto all men, differing in the strange maner of their Lawes, and euill affected to our state, working all the mischiefe they can, that our kingdome may not be firmely stablished :

6 Therefore have we commanded that al they that are signified in writing vnto you by Aman (who is ordained ouer the affaires, and is || next vnto vs) shall all with their wives and children bee vtterly destroyed, hy the sword of their enemies, without all mercie and pitie, the fourteenth day of the twelfth

8 Then Mardocheus thought vpon all the works of the Lord, and made his prayer vnto him.

9 Saying, O Lord, Lord, the king Almightie : for the whole world is in thy power; and if thou hast appointed to caue Israel, there is no man that can gainesay thee.

10 For thou hast made heaven and earth, and all the wonderous things vnder the heauen.

11 Thou art Lord of all things, and there is no man that can resist thee, which art the Lord.

12 Thou knowest all things, and lever thou didst promise them.

13 For I could have bene content with good will for the saluation of Israel, to kisse the soles of his feet.

14 But I did this, that I might not preferre the glory of man about the glory of God: neither will I worship any but thee, O God, neither wil I doc it in pride.

15 And now, O Lord God, and King, spare thy people: for their eyes. are vpon vs, to bring vs to nought, year they desire to destroy the inheritance that hath beene thine from the beginning.

16 Despise not the portion which thou hast deliuered out of Egypt for thine owne selfe:

5 Often times also faire speech of those that are put in trust to manage their friends affaires, hath caused many that are in authority to be partakers of innocent blood, and hath enwrapped them in remedilesse calamities:

6 Beguiling with the falshood and deceit of their lewd disposition, the innocencie and goodnesse of princes.

7 Now yee may see this as we have declared, not so much by ancient histories, as yee may, if ye search what hath beene wickedly done of late through the pestilent behaulour of them that are vnworthily placed in authoritie.

14 For by these meanes he thought, finding vs destitute of friends, to have translated the kingdome of the Persians to the Macedonians.

15 But wee finde that the Iewes. whom this wicked wretch hath deliuered to vtter destruction, are no euill doers, but live by most just lawes:

The wicked shal wonder at the godly, 4 and confesse their errour, 5 and the vanitie of their lines. 15 God will reward the Iust, 17 and warre against the wicked.

2 When they see it they shalbe troubled with terrible feare, & shall be amased at the strangenesse of his saluation, so farre beyond all that they looked for.

S And they repenting, and groning for anguish of spirit, shall say within themselues. This was he whom wee tor, parable had sometimes in derision, and a || pro-

12 Or like as when an arrow is shot at a marke, it parteth the aire, which immediatly commeth together againe; so that a man cannot know where it went thorow:

13 Euen so we in like maner, assoone as we were borne, began to draw to our end, and had no signe of vertue to shew: but were consumed in our owne wickednesse.

5 Horribly and speedily shall he come vpon you: for a sharpe judgement shall be to them that be in high places.

6 For mercy will soone pardon the meanest; but mighty men shall be mightily tormented.

10 For they that keepe holinesse holily, shall be ||iudged holy : and they that haue learned such things, shall find what to answere.

11 Wherefore set your affection vpon my words, desire them, and yee shall be instructed.

12 Wisedome is glorious and neuer fadeth away: yea she is easily scene of them that loue her, and found of such as seeke her.

13 She preuenteth them that desire her, in making herselfe first knowen vnto Ihem.

14 Whoso seeketh her earely, shall haue no great trauaile : for he shall find her sitting at his doores.

15 To thinke therefore vpon her is perfection of wisedome : and who so watcheth for her, shall quickly be with-

16 For she goeth about seeking such as are worthy of her, sheweth herselfe fauourably vnto them in the wayes, and meeteth them in euery thought.

17 For the very true beginning of 10r, nurture her, is the desire of || discipline, and the care of discipline is loue:

18 And loue is the keeping of her lawes; and the giving heed vnto her lawes, is the assurance of incorruption. 19 And incorruption maketh vs neere

ento God. 20 Therefore the desire of wisedome bringeth to a kingdome.

21 If your delight be then in thrones and scepters, O ye kings of the people, honour wisedome that yee may raigne for euermore.

22 As for wisedome what she is; and how she came vp, I will tell you, and will not hide mysteries from you: but will seeke her out from the beginning of her natiuity, & hring the knowledge of her into light, and will not passe ouer the trueth.

23 Neither will I goe with consuming enuy : for such a man shall haue no fellowship with wisedome.

24 But the multitude of the wise is the welfare of the world: and a wise king is the vpholding of the people.

11 All "good things together came to me with her, and innumerable riches in her bands.

12 And I rejoyced in them all, because wisedome goeth before them: and I knew not that shee was the mother of them.

13 I learned † diligently, and doe communicate her + liberally : I doe not hide her riches.

14 For shee is a treasure voto men that never faileth: which they that yee. become the friends of God: being commended for the gifts that come from 15 God hath ||granted me to speake as I would, and to conceive as is meet for the things || that are given mee: be-cause it is hee that leadeth vnto wisedome, and directeth the wise.

16 For in his hand are both we and our wordes : all wisedome also and knowledge of workemanship.

17 For bee hath given mee certaine knowledge of the things that are, namely to know how the world was made, & the operation of the elements :

18 The beginning, ending, and midst of the times: the alterations of the turning of the Sunne, and the change of seasons:

19 The circuits of yeres, and the positions of starres:

20 The natures of living creatures, and the furies of wilde beasts : the violence of windes, and the reasonings of men : the diversities of plants, and the vertues of rootes

21 And all such things as are either secret or manifest : them I know.

22 For wisedome which is the worker of all things, taught mee: for in her is an understanding spirit, holy, tone onely, manifold, subtile, liuely, cleare, vndefiled, plaine, not subject to hurt, louing the thing that is good, quicke, which canot be letted, ready to do good;

23 Kinde to man, stedfast, sure, free from care, bauing all power, ouerseeing all things, and going through all vnderstanding, pure, and most subtile spirits.

24 For wisedome is more mooning then any motion: she passeth and goeth through all things by reason of her purenesse.

25 For she is the libreath of the power 100, asof God, and a pure ||influence flowing || for street from the glory of the Almighty : therefore can no undefiled thing fall into ber.

26 For shee is the "brightnesse of the "Hebr. 1. 1. euerlasting light : the vnspotted mirrour of the power of God, and the Image of his goodnesse.

27 And being but one she can doe all things: and remayning in her selfe, she maketh all things new : and in all tor, oreaages entring into holy soules, she maketh them friends of God, & Prophets.

28 For God louetb none but him, that dwelleth with wisedome.

29 For she is more beautiful then the Sunne, and above all the order of starres, being compared with the light, she is found before it.

30 For after this commeth night: but vice shall not preunile against wisdome.

CHAP. VIII.

7 And if a man love righteousnesse, her labours are vertues: for she teachetb temperance and prudence : iustice and fortitude, which are such things as men can have nothing more profitable in their life.

Apocrypha

Vt thou O God, art gra-cious and true: long suffering, and in mercy ordering all things.

2 For if we sinne we are thine, knowing thy power: but we will not sinne, knowing that we are counted thine.

3 For to know thee is perfect righteousnesse: yea to know thy power is the roote of immortality.

4 For neither did the mischicuous inuention of men deceiuc vs : nor an image spotted with diners colours, the painters fruitlesse labour.

7 For the *potter tempering soft carth fashioneth, euery vessell with much labour for our service : yea of the same clay hee maketh both the vessels that serue for cleane vses : and likewise also all such as serue to the contrary : but what is the vse of either sort, the potter himselfe is the judge.

8 And employing his labours lewd ly, he maketh a vaine God of the same clay, euen he which a little before was made of earth himselfe, and within a little while after returneth to the same out of the which he was taken : when his *life which was lent bim shall be de-

9 Notwithstanding his care is, not that hee shall have much labour, nor that | his life is short: but striueth to excel goldsmiths, and silversmiths, and endenouretb to doe like the workers in brasse, and counteth it his glory to make counterfeit things.

10 His heart is ashes, his hope is more vile then earth, and his life of lesse

11 Forasmuch as hee knew not his maker, and him that inspired into him an active soule, and breathed in a living spirit.

12 But they counted our life a pastime, & our time here a market for gaine : for, say they, we must be getting levery way, though it be hy euil meanes.

13 || For this man that of earthly matter maketh brickle vessels, and grauen images, knoweth himselfe to offend abone all others.

14 And all the enemies of thy people, that hold them in subjection are most foolish and are more miserable then very babes.

15 For they counted all the idoles of the heathen to be gods : which neither haue the vse of eves to sec, nor noses to draw || breath, nor cares to heare, nor or or oyee fingers of hands to handle, and as for their feete they are slow to goe.

16 For man made them, and he that borrowed his owne spirit fashioned them, but no man can make a god like vnto himselfe.

17 For being mortall he worketh a dead thing with wicked hands : for hee himselfe is better then the things which he worshippeth : whereas he lived once, hut they neuer.

18 Yea they worshipped those beasts also that are most hatefull : for being compared together, some are worse then others.

19 Neither are they beautifull, so much, as to bee desired in respect of beasts, but they went without the praise of God and bis blessing.

13 For whereas they would not beleeue any thing by reason of the encliantments, vpon the destruction of the first borne, they acknowledged this people to be the sonnes of God.

14 For while all things were in quiet silence, and that night was in the midst of her swift course, 15 Thine almighty word leapt downe from heaven, out of thy royall throne, as a fierce man of warre into the midst of a land of destruction.

16 And brought thine vnfained commandement as a sharpe sword, and standing vp filled all things with death, and it touched the heauen, but it stood vpon the earth.

17 Then suddenly || visions of horrible dreames troubled them sore, and terrours came vpon them vnlooked for.

18 And one throwen here, another there halfe dead, shewed the cause of his death.

19 For the dreames that troubled them, did foreshew this, lest they should perisb, and not know why they were afflicted.

haste, and stood foorth to defend them, and bringing the shield of his proper ministerie, euen prayer and the propitiation of incense, set himselfe against the wrath, and so brought the calamity to an end, declaring that hee was thy seruant.

22 So hee ouercame the destroyer, not with strength of body, nor force of armes, but with a word subdued he him that punished, alleaging the oathes and couenants made with the fathers.

23 For when the dead were now fallen downe by heaps one vpon another, standing betweene, he stated the wrath, and | parted the way to the liuing.

THE WISDOME

Iefus the fonne of Sirach. Or Ecclesiasticus.

A Prologue made by an vncertaine Authour.

His Iesus was the sonne of Sirach, and grand-childe to Iesus of the same name with him; This man therefore liued in the latter times, after the people had bene led away captine, and called home againe, and almost after all the Prophets. Now his grandfather Iesus (as he himselfe witnesseth) was a man of great diligence and wisedome among the Hebrewes, who did not onely ga ther the grave and short Sentences of wise men, that had bene before him, but himselfe also vttered some of his owne, full of much understanding and wisedome. When as therefore the first Iesus died, leaving this booke almost | perfected, Sirach bis sonne receiuing it after him, left it to his owne sonne I sus, who having gotten it into his hands, compiled it all orderly into one Volume, and called it Wisdome. Intituling it, both by his owne name, his fathers name, and his grandfathers, alluring the hearer by the very name of Wisedome, to have a greater love to the studie of this Booke. It conteineth therefore wise Sayings, darke Sentences, and Parables, and certaine particular ancient godly stories of men that pleased God. Also his Prayer and Song. Moreouer, what benefits God had vouchsafed his people, and what plagues he had beaped vpon their enemies. This lesus did imitate Solomon, and was no lesse famous for Wisedome, and learning, both being indeed a man of great learning, and so reputed also.

¶ The Prologue of the Wisdome of Jesus the sonne of Sirach.

THereas many and great things have bene delivered vnto vs by the Law and the Prophets, and by others that have followed their steps, for the which things Israel ought to be commended for learning and Wisedome, and whereof not onely the Readers must needs become skilful themselves. but also they that desire to fearne, be able to profit them which are || without, both by speaking and writing: My grandfather Iesus, when he had much given bimselfe to the reading of the Law, and the Prophets, and other Bookes of our fathers, and had gotten therein good judgement, was drawen on also himselfe, to write something pertayning to learning and Wisedome, to the intent that those which are desirous to learne, and are addicted to these things, might profit much more in liuing according to the Law Wherefore, let me intreat you to reade it with fauour and attention, and to pardon Vs, wherein wee may seeme to come short of some words which we have laboured to interprete. For the same things vttered in Hebrew, and translated into an other tongue, hauc not the same force in them : and not onely these things, but the Law it selfe, and the + Prophets, and the rest of the Bookes, have no small [difference, when they are spoken in their owne lauguage. For in the eight and thirtieth yeere comming into Egypt, when Euergetes was King, and continuing there some time, I found a || Booke of no small learning, therefore I thought it most necessary for mee, to bestow some diligence and trauaile to interprete it: Vsing great watchfulnesse, and skill in that space, to bring the Booke to an end, and set it foorth for them also, which in a strange countrey are willing to learne, being prepared before in maners to liue after the Law

16 Two Judges hide themselves in the garden of Susanna to have their pleasure of her: 28 which when they could not obteine, they accuse and cause her to be condemned for adulterie, 46 but Daniel examineth the matter againe, and findeth the two judges false.

Here dwelt a man in Babylon, called Ioacim.

> And hee tooke a wife, whose name was Susanna, the daughter of Chelcias, a very faire woman, and one that feared the Lord.

3 Her parents also were righteous, and taught their daughter according to the Law of Moses.

4 Now Ioscim was a great rich man, and had a faire garden loyning vnto his house, and to him resorted the Iewes: because he was more honourable then all others.

5 The same yeere were appointed wo of the Ancients of the people to be indges, such as the Lord spake of, that wickednesse came from Babylon from ancient judges, who seemed to gouerne the people.

6 These kept much at Ioacims house : and all that had any suits in lawe, came vnto them.

7 Now when the people departed away at noone, Susanna went into her husbands garden to walke.

8 And the two Elders saw her going in cuery day and walking : so that their lust was inflamed toward her.

9 And they pertiented their owne mind, and turned away their eyes, that they might not looke vnto heauen, nor remember just judgements.

10 And albeit they both were wounded with her love : yet durst not one shew another his griefe.

11 For they were ashamed to declare their lust, that they desired to have to doe with her.

12 Yet they watched diligently from day to day to see her.

13 And the one said to the other, Let vs now goe home ; for it is dinner time.

14 So when they were gone out, they parted the one from the other, and turning backe againe they came to the same place, and after that they had asked one another the cause, they acknowledged their lust : then appointed they a time both together, when they might find her alone.

15 And it fell out as they watched a fit time, she went in +as before, with | Gr. as yetwo maids onely, and she was desirous the day be-

16 And there was no body there same the two Elders, that bad hid themselues, and watched her.

17 Then she said to her maids, Bring me oile and washing bals, and shut the garden doores, that I may wash me.

18 And they did as she had them, and shut the garden doores, and went out themselues at || privie doores to fetch the things that she had commaunded them : but they saw not the Elders, because they were hid.

19 Now when the maids were gone forth, the two Elders rose vp, and ran vnto her, saving,

20 Behold, the garden doores are shut, that no man can see vs, and we are in loue with thee : therefore consent vato vs. and lie with vs.

21 If thou wilt not, we will beare witnesse against thee, that a young man was with thee : and therefore thou didst send away thy maides from thee.

22 Then Susanna sighed and said, I am straited on every side : for if I doe this thing, it is death vnto me; and if I doe it not, I cannot escape your hands.

23 It is better for me to fall into your hands, and not doe it : then to sinne in the sight of the Lord.

24 With that Susanna cried with a loud voice : and the two Elders cried out against her.

25 Then ranne the one, and opened the garden doore.

26 So when the servants of the house heard the crie in the garden, they rushed in at a privile doore to see what was done vnto her.

27 But when the Elders had declared their matter, the seruants were greatly ashamed : for there was neuer such a report made of Susanna.

28 And it came to passe the next day, when the people were assembled to her husband Ioacim, the two Elders came also full of mischieuous imagination against Susanna to put her to death, 29 And said before the people, Send for Susanna, the daughter of Chelcias, Ioscims wife. And so they sent.

30 So she came with her father and mother, her children and all her kinred.

31 Now Susanna was a very delicate woman and beauteous to behold.

32 And these wicked men commanded to vncouer her face (for she was coto wash her selfe in the garden : for it | | uered) that they might be filled with her beautie.

33 Therefore her friends, and all that saw ber, wept.

34 Then the two Elders stood vp in the mids of the people, and laid their hands vpon her head.

35 And she weeping looked vp towards heaven: for her heart trusted in the Lord.

36 And the Elders said, As we walked in the garden alone, this woman came in, with two maides, and shut the garden doores, & sent the maides away 37 Then a young man who there was hid, came vnto her & lay with her. 38 Then we that stood in a corner of the garden, seeing this wickednesse, ran vnto them.

39 And when we saw them together, the man we could not hold : for he was stronger then we, and opened the doore, and leaped out.

40 But having taken this woman, we asked who the young man was : hut she would not tell vs : these things doe we testifie.

41 Then the assembly beleeved them, as those that were the Eiders and ludges of the people : so they condemned her to death.

42 Then Susanna cried out with a loud voice and said : O euerlasting God that knowest the secrets, and knowest all things before they be: 43 Thou knowest that they have borne false witnesse against me, and behold I must die : whereas I neuer did such things, as these men haue maliciously invented against me. 44 And the Lord heard her voice. 45 Therefore when she was led to be put to death : the Lord raised vp the holy spirit of a young youth, whose name was Daniel.

46 Who cried with a loud voice : I am cleare fro the blood of this woman.

47 Then all the people turned them towards him, & said : what meane these words that thou hast spoken?

48 So he standing in the mids of them, said, Are ye such fooles ye sonnes of Israel, that without examination or knowledge of the truth, ye have condemned a daughter of Israel?

49 Returne againe to the place of indgement : for they have borne false witnesse against her

51 Then said Daniel vnto them, Put these two aside one farre from another, and I will examine them.

52 So when they were put asunder one from another, hee called one of them, and said vnto him, O thou that art waxen old in wickednesse : now thy sinnes which thou hast committed a foretime, are come [ to light. ]

53 For thou hast pronounced false judgement, and hast condemned the innocent, and hast let the guiltie goe free, albeit the Lord saith, The innocent and righteous shalt thou not slay.

54 Now then if thou hast seene her: tell me, Vnder what tree sawest thou them companying together? who answered, Vnder a + masticke tree.

55 And Daniel said, Very wel; Thou hast lied against thine owne head : for enen now the Angel of God hath receiued the sentence of God, to cut thee in 56 So hee put him aside, and commanded to bring the other, & said vnto him, O thou seed of Chansan, and not of Iuda, beauty hath deceived thee, and lust hath peruerted thine heart.

57 Thus have yee dealt with the companied with you: but the daughter of Iuda would not abide your wickednesse.

58 Now therefore tell mee, Vuder what tree didst thou take them companying together? who answered, Vnder a liholme tree.

59 Then said Daniel vnto him, Well: thou hast also lied against thine owne head : for the Angel of God waiteth with the sword to cut thee in two, that he may destroy you.

60 With that all the assembly cried out with a lowd voice, and praised God who saueth them that trust in him.

61 And they arose against the two Elders, (for Daniel had connicted them of false witnesse by their owne mouth).

62 And according to the Law of Moses, they did vnto them in such sort as they malitiously intended to doe to beat. 18. their neighbour: And they put them to 18, proudeath. Thus the innocent blood was saued the same day.

68 Therefore Chelcias and his wife praised God for their daughter Susanna, with Ioscim her husband, and all the kinred: because there was no dishonestie found in her.

64 From that day foorth was Daniel had in great reputation in the sight of the people.

The history of the destruction of Bel Dragon. and the Dragon, cut off from the end of Daniel.

19 The fraud of Bels Priests, is discouered by Daniel, 27 and the Dragon alaine, which was worshipped. 33 Daniel is preserved in the Lions denne. 43 The King doeth acknowledge the God of Daniel, and casteth his enemies into the same denne.

King Astyages Nd was gathered to his fathers, and Cyrus of Persia received his kingdome.

And Daniel || conuersed with the king. and was honored aboue all his friends, S Now the Babylonians had an Idol called Bel, and there were spent vpon him euery day twelue great measures of fine flowre, and fourtie sheepe, and sixe vessels of wine.

4 And the king worshipped it, and went daily to adore it : but Daniel worshipped his owne God. And the king said vnto him, Why doest not thou worship Bel?

5 Who answered and said, Because I may not worship idols made with bands, but the living God, who hath created the heaven, and the earth, and hath soueraigntie ouer all flesh.

8 So the king was wroth, and called for his Priests, and said vnto them, If yee tell me not who this is that deuoureth these expenses, ye shall die.

9 But if ve can certifie me that Bel devoureth them, then Daniel shall die : for hee hath spoken blasphemie against Bel. And Daniel sayd vnto the king,

Let it be according to thy word.

10 (Now the Priests of Bel were threescore and tenne, beside their wives and children) and the king went with Daniel into the temple of Bel.

11 So Bels Priests said, Loe, wee goe out: but thou, O king, set on the meate, and make ready the wine, and shut the doore fast, and seale it with thine owne signet:

12 And to morrow, when thou commest in, if thou findest not that Bel hath eaten vp all, wee will suffer death; or else Daniel, that speaketh falsely against vs.

18 And they little regarded it : for under the table they had made a prinie entrance, whereby they entred in con-timally, and consumed those things.

14 So when they were gone forth, the king set meates before Bel. Now Daniel had commanded his seruants to bring ashes, and those they strewed throughout all the temple, in the presence of the king alone; then went they out and shut the doore, & sealed it with the kings signet, and so departed.

15 Now in the night came the Priests with their wives and children (as they were woont to doe) and did eate and drinke vp all.

16 In the morning betime the king arose, and Daniel with him.

17 And the king said, Daniel, are the seales whole? And he said, Yea, O king, they be whole.

18 And assoone as he had opened the doore, the king looked vpon the table, and cried with a loude voice, Great art thou, O Bel, and with thee is no deceit at all.

19 Then laughed Daniel, and helde the king that he should not goe in, and sayd, Behold now the pauement, and marke well whose footsteps are these.

20 And the king said, I see the footsteps of men, women and children : andl then the king was angry, 21 And tooke the Priests, with their wives and children, who shewed him the priny doores, where they came in, and consumed such things as were voon the table.

22 Therefore the king slewe them, and deliuered Bel into Daniels power, who destroyed him and his temple.

23 || And in that same place there some adde was a great Dragon, which they of this title: Of Babylon worshipped.

24 And the king said vnto Daniel. Wilt thou also say that this is of brasse; loe, he liucth, he cateth and drinketh, thou canst not say, that he is no living God: therefore worship him.

Nd it happened, after that Alexander sonne of Philip, the Macedonian, who came out of the land of Chettiim , had smitten Darius king of the Persians and Medes, that hee reigned in his stead, the first ouer Greece,

2 And made many wars, and wan many strong holds, and slew the kings of the earth.

3 And went through to the ends of the earth, and tooke spoiles of many nations, insomuch, that the earth was quiet before him, whereupon ||he was exalted, and his heart was lifted vp.

4 And he gathered a mighty strong hoste, and ruled ouer countries, and nations and ||kings, who became tributaries vnto him.

5 And after these things he fell sicke, and perceived that he should die.

6 Wherefore he called his seruants such as were honourable, and had bin brought vp with him from his youth, and parted kis kingdome among them while he was yet aliue:

7 So Alexander reigned twelue yeeres, and (then) died.

8 And his servants bare rule every one in his place.

9 And after his death they all put crownes [vpon themselues] so did their sonnes after them, many yeeres, and euils were multiplied in the earth.

10 And there came out of them a wicked roote, Antiochus [surnamed] Epiphanes, sonne of Antiochus the king, who had beene an hostage at Rome, and he reigned in the hundreth and thirty and seuenth yeere of the kingdome of the Greekes.

15 And made themselves, vncircumcised, and forsooke the holy couenant, and loyned themselves to the heathen, and were sold to doe mischiefe.

16 Now when the kingdome was established, before Antiochus, hee thought to reigne ouer Egypt, that he might have y dominion of two realms:

17 Wherefore he entred into Egypt with a great multitude, with chariots, and elephants, and horsemen, and a great nauie, 18 And made warre against Ptolomee king of Egypt, but Ptolomee was afraide of liim, and fled : and many were wounded to death.

19 Thus they got the strong cities in the land of Egypt, and hee tooke the spoiles thereof.

20 And after that Antiochus had smitten Egypt, he returned againe in the hundreth fortie and third yeere, and went vp against Israel and lerusalem with a great multitude,

21 And entred proudly into the sanctuarie, and tooke away the golden altar, and the candlesticke of light, and all the vessels thereof,

The prayer of Manasses King of Iuda, when he was holden captive in Babylon.

Lord, Almightie God of our Fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob, and of their righteous seed: who hast made heauen and earth, with all the ornament thereof: who hast bound the Sea by the word of thy Commandement: who hast shut up the deepe, and sealed it by thy terrible and glorious Name, whome all men feare, and tremble before thy power: for the Maiestie of thy glory cannot bee borne, and thine angry threatning towards sinners is importable : but thy mercifull promise is vnmeasurable and vnsearchable; for thou art the most High Lord, of great compassion, long suffering, very mercifull, and repentest of the euils of men. Thou, O Lord, according to thy great goodnesse hast promised repentance, and forgiuenesse to them that have sinned against thee : and of thine infinite mercies hast appointed repentance vnto sinners that they may be saued. Thou therefore, O Lord, that art the God of the just, hast not appointed repentance to the just, as to Abraham, and Isaac, and Iacob, which haue not sinned against thee : but thou hast appointed repentance vnto me that am a sinner : for I have sinned above the number of the sands of the Sea. My transgressions, O Lord, are multiplied: my transgressions are multiplied, and I am not worthy to behold and see the height of heaven, for the multitude of mine iniquitie. I am bowed downe with many yron bands, that I cannot lift vp mine head, [neither have any release: For I have provoked thy wrath, and done evill before thee, I did not thy will, neither kept I thy Commandements: I have set vp abominations, and haue multiplied offences. Now therefore I bow the knee of mine heart, beseeching thee of grace : I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned, and I acknowledge mine iniquities: wherefore I humbly beseech thee, forgiue me, O Lord, forgiue me, and destroy me not with mine iniquities. Be not angry with me for euer, by rescruing euill for me, neither condemne mee into the lower parts of the earth. For thou art the God, even the God of them that repent: and in me thou wilt shew all thy goodnesse : for thou wilt saue me that am vnworthy, according to thy great mercie. Therefore I will praise thee for euer all the dayes of my life : for all the powers of the heavens doe praise thee, and thine is the glory for ever and ever, Amen.

24 And when hee had taken all away, he went into his owne land, hauing made a great massacre, and spoken very proudly.

25 Therfore there was great mourning in Israel, in eucry place where they were;

26 So that the Princes and Elders mourned, the virgines and yong men were made feeble, and the beautie of women was changed.

27 Euery bridegrome tooke vp lamentation, and she that sate in the marriage chamber, was in heauinesse.

28 The land also was moued for the inhabitants thereof, and all the house of Iacob was couered with confusion.

29 And after two yeeres fully expired, the king sent his chiefe collectour of tribute vnto the cities of Iuda, who came vnto Ierusalem with a great multitude.

30 And spake peaceable wordes vnto them, but [all was] deceit : for when they had given him credence, he fell suddenly vpon the citie, and smote it very sore, & destroyed much people of Israel.

31 And when hee had taken the spoiles of the citie, hee set it on fire, and pulled downe the houses, and walles thereof on euery side.

32 But the women & children tooke they captine, and possessed the cattell.

33 Then builded they the citie of Dauid with a great and strong wall, [and] with mightie towers, and made it a strong hold for them, 34 And they put therein a sinfull nation, wicked men, and fortified [themselues therein.

35 They stored it also with armour and victuals, and when they had gathered together the spoiles of Ierusalem, they layd them vp there, and so they became a sore snare:

36 For it was a place to lie in wait a gainst the Sanctuary, and an euill aduersary to Israel.

37 Thus they shed innocent blood on cuery side of the Sanctuary, and defiled it.

44 For the king had sent letters by messengers vnto Ierusalem, and the cities of Iuda, that they should follow li the strange lawes of the land.

45 And forbid burnt offerings, and rites of the sacrifice, and drinke offerings in the strangers of temple; and that they should prophane the Sabbaths, and festivall dayes:

46 And pollute the Sanctuarie and holy people:

47 Set vp altars, and groues, and chappels of idols, and sacrifice swines flesh, and vncleane beasts:

48 That they should also leave their children vncircumcised, and make their soules abominable with all maner of vncleannesse, and prophanation:

49 To the end they might forget the Law, and change all the ordinances.

50 And whosoeuer would not doe according to the commandement of the king [he said] he should die.

51 In the selfe same maner wrote he to his whole kingdome, and appointed ouerseers over all the people, commanding the cities of Iuda to sacrifice, citie by citie.

52 Then many of the people were gathered vato them, to wit, every one that forsooke the Lawe, and so they committed euils in the land:

56 And when they had rent in pieces the bookes of the Lawe which they found, they burnt them with fire.

57 And wheresoeuer was found with any, the booke of the Testament, or if any consented to the Lawe, † the kings commandement was, that they should put him to death.

58 Thus did they by their authority, vnto the Israelites cuery moneth, to as many as were found in the cities.

59 Now the fine and twentieth day of the moneth, they did sacrifice vpon the idole altar, which was vpon the Altar of God.

60 At which time, according to the commandement, they put to death certaine women + that had caused their children to be circumcised.

61 And they hanged the infants about their neckes, and rifled their houses, and slewe them that had circumcised them.

62 Howbeit, many in Israel were fully resolued and confirmed in themselues, not to eate any vncleane thing.

63 Wherfore they chose rather to die, that they might not be defiled with meats, and that they might not profane the holy Couenant : So then they died. 64 And there was very great wrath and there went with him a mighty host avenged of the children of Israel.

16 And when hee came neere to the going vp of Bethoron, Iudas went forth to meet him with a smal company.

17 Who when they saw the host comming to meet them, said vnto Iudas: How shall wee be able, being so few to fight against so great a multitude, and so strong, seeing wee are ready to faint with fasting all this day?

18 Vnto whom Iudas answered: 1. Sem. 14. Tt is no hard matter for many to bee shut vp in the hands of a few; and with the God of heaven it is all one, to deliuer with a great multitude, or a small company:

> 19 For the victory of battell standeth not in the multitude of an hoste, but strength commeth from heauen.

20 They come ||against vs +in much pride and iniquitie to destroy vs. and our wives & children, and to spoile vs: 21 But wee fight for our liues, and

23 Now as soone as hee had left off speaking, he lept suddenly vpon them, and so Seron and bis host was ouer-throwen before him.

24 And they pursued them † from the going downe of Bethoron, vnto the plaine, where were slaine about eight hundred men of them; and the residue fledde into the land of the Philistines.

25 Then began the feare of Iudas and his brethren, & an exceeding great dread to fall vpon the nations round a bout them:

26 In so much, as his fame came vnto the king, and all nations talked of the battels of Indas.

27 Now when King Antiochus heard these things, he was full of indignation: wherefore hee sent and ga-thered together all the forces of his realme [euen] a very strong armic.

28 He opened also his treasure, and gaue his souldiers pay for a yeere, commanding them to be ready, twhensoeuer he should need them.

29 Neuerthelesse, when he saw that of tribute in the money of his treasures failed, and the country that the tributes in the country were few.

S1 Wherefore, being greatly perplexed in his minde, hee determined to goe into Persia, there to take the tributes of the countreys, and to gather much money.

32 So hee left Lysias a poble man, and one of the blood royall, to ouersee the affaires of the King, from the riuer Euphrates, vnto the borders of Egypt: 33 And to bring vp his sonne Antiochus, vntill he came againe.

34 Moreouer he delivered vnto him the halfe of his forces, and the Elepbants, and gaue him charge of all things that he would have done, as also concerning them that dwelt in Inda and Ierusalem.

35 To wit, that he should send an armie against them, to destroy and root out the strength of Israel, and the remnant of Ierusalem, and to take away their memoriall from that place:

36 And that he should place strangers in all their quarters, and divide their land by lot.

37 So the king tooke the halfe of the forces that remained, and departed from Antioch this royall city, the hun-tor. a citie dreth fourtie and seventh yeere, and ha of his kinguing passed the river Euphrates, hee went through the high countreys.

38 Then Lysias chose Ptoleme, the son of Dorymenes and Nicanor, & Gorgias, mighty men of the kings friends:

59 And with them hee sent fourtie thousand footmen, and seven thousand borsemen to goe into the land of Iuda, and to destroy it as the king comanded.

40 So they went forth with all their power, and came and pitched by Emmaus in the plaine countrey.

41 And the merchants of the countrey, hearing the fame of them, tooke ailuer, & gold very much, with || seruants, | Or, fetters. and came into the campe to buy the children of Israel for slaves; A power also of Syria, and of the land |of the Phili-10r. of stress stines, loyned themselves vnto them.

42 Now when Iudas and his brethren saw that miseries were multipli ed, & that the forces did encampe themselues in their borders, (for they knewe how the king had given commaundement to destroy the people, and etterly abolish them.)

46 Wherefore the Israelites assembled themselves together, and came to Maspha ouer-against Ierusalem; for in Maspha was the place where they prayed aforetime in Israel.

33 So he went foorth behinde them in three companies, who sounded their trumpets, and cryed with prayer.

34 Then the hoste of Timotheus knowing that it was Maccabeus, fled from him : wherefore hee smote them with a great slaughter : so that there were killed of them that day about eight thousand men.

35 This done, Iudas turned aside to Maspha, and after he had assaulted it, hee tooke it, and slewe all the males therein, and received the spoiles therof, and burnt it with fire.

36 From thence went he, and tooke Casphon, Maged, Bosor, and the other cities of the countrey of Galand.

37 After these things, gathered Timotheus another hoste, and encamped against Raphon beyond the brooke.

38 So Iudas sent [men] to espie the hoste, who brought him word, saying; All the heathen that be round about vs, are assembled vnto them, euen a very great hoste.

39 Hee hath also hired the Arabians to helpe them, and they have pitched their tents beyond the brooke, readie to come and fight against thee: vpon this Iudas went to meet them.

46 Now when they came vnto E phron (this was a great city in the way as they should goe, very well fortified) they could not turne from it, either on the right hand or the left, but must needs passe through the midst of it.

27 Wherefore if thou doest not preuent them quickly, they wil doe greater things then these, neither shalt thou be able to rule them.

28 Now when the king heard this, he was angry, and gathered together all his friends, and the captaines of his armie, and those that had charge of the

38 As for the remnant of the horsemen they set them on this side, and that 10r. stirring side, at the two parts of the host | giuing them signes what to do, and being harnessed all ouer amidst the rankes.

39 Now when the Sunne shone vpon the shields of golde, and brasse, the mountaines glistered therewith, and shined like lampes of fire.

40 So part of the kings armie being spred voon the high mountaines. and part on the valleyes below, they marched on safely, and in order.

41 Wherefore all that heard the noise of their multitude, and the marching of the company, and the rathing of the harnesse, were moued; for the army was very great and mighty.
42 Then ludas and his host drew neere, and entred into battell, and there were slaine of the kings army, sixe hundred men.

43 ¶ Elcazar also (syrnamed) Sauaran, perceiuing that one of the beasts, armed with royall harnesse, was higher then all the rest, and supposing that the king was vpon him,

44 Put himselfe in icopardic, to the end hee might deliuer his people, and get him a perpetuall name:

45 Wherefore hee ranne vpon him courageously through the midst of the battell, slaving on the right hand, and on the left, ||so that they were divided from him on both sides.

46 Which done, he crept vnder the Elephant, and thrust him vnder and slew him : whereupon the Elephant fell downe vpon him, and there he died.

47 How be it the rest of the Iewes] seeing the strength of the king, and the violence of his forces, turned away from them.

48 Then the kings armie went vp to lerusalem to meet them, and the king pitched his tents || against ludea, and against mount Sion.

49 But with them that were in Bethsura hee made || peace : for they came out of the citie, because they had no victuals there, to endure the siege, it being a yeere of rest to the land.

50 So the King tooke Bethsura, and set a garison there to keepe it.

51 As for the Sanctuarie hee besieged it many dayes : | and set there ar-

52 Whereupon | they also made en- tor. the gins, against their engine, and helde lewes. them battell a long season.

53 Yet at the last their vessels being without victuals, (for that it was the seventh yeers, and they in Judea that were delivered from the Gentiles, had eaten vp the residue of the store)

54 There were but a few left in the Sanctuary, because the famine did so preuaile against them, that they were faine to disperse themselves, every man to his owne place.

55 At that time Lysias heard say, that Philip (whom Antiochus the King whiles hee lived had appointed to bring vp his sonne Antiochus, that he might be king)

56 Was returned out of Persia, and Media, and the Kings host also that went with him, and that hee sought to take vnto him the ruling of the affaires.

57 Wherefore hee went in all haste, and said to the King, and the captaines of the host, and the company, Wee decay dayly, and our victuals are hut small, and the place wee lay siege vnto is strong: and the affaires of the kingdome lie vpon va.

58 Now therefore let vs the friends 1 Gr. gius with these men, and make peace with them, and with all their nation.

59 And couenant with them, that they shall live after their Lawes, as they did before : for they are therefore displeased, & have done all these things because wee abolished their Lawes.

60 So the King and the Princes were content : wherefore hee sent vnto them to make peace, and they accepted thereof.

61 Also the King and the Princes made an oath vnto them : whereupon they went out of the strong hold.

62 Then the King entred into mount Sion, but when hee saw the strength of the place, hee brake his oath that hee had made, and gave commandement to pull downe the wall round about.

63 Afterward departed hee in all haste, and returned vnto Antiochia. where hee found Philip to bee master of the citie: So he fought against him, and tooke the citie by force.

Antiochus is slaine, and Demetrius reigneth in his stead. 5 Aleimus would be hie Priest, and complaineth of ludas to the king. 16 He slayeth threescore Asideans. 43 Nicanor is alaine, and the kings forces are defeated by Iudas. 49 The day of this victorie is kept holy enery yeere.

N the hundreth and one and fiftieth yeere, Deme-trius the sonne of Seleu-cus departed from Rome, and came vp with a fewe men vnto a ||citie of the Sea coast, and

2 And as he entred into the +palace of his ancestors, so it was, that his forces had taken Antiochus and Lysias to bring them voto him.

3 Wherefore when he know it, hee said; Let me not see their faces.

4 So his hoste slewe them. Now when Demetrius was set vpon the throne of his kingdome, 5 There came vnto him all the wicked and vngodly men of Israel, hauing Alcimus (who was desirous to be high Priest) for their captaine.

6 And they secused the people to the king, saying; Iudas and his brethren haue slaine all thy friends, and driuen vs out of our owne land. 7 Now therefore send some man whom thou trustest, and let him goe and see what hauocke he hath made amongst vs, and in the kings land, and let him punish them with all them that aide them. 8 Then the king chose Bacchides a friend of the king, who ruled beyond the flood, and was a great man in the kingdome, and faithfull to the king.

9 And him hee sent with that wic ked Alcimus, whom hee made high Priest, and commanded that be should take vengeance of the children of Is rael.

10 So they departed, and came with a great power into the land of Iudea where they sent messengers to Iudas and his hrethren with peaceable words deceitfully.

11 But they gaue no heede to their words, for they sawe that they were come with a great power.

12 Then did there assemble vnto Al cimus and Bacchides, a company of Scribes, to require iustice.

13 Now the Assideans were the first among the children of Israel, that sought peace of them:

14 For, said they, one that is a Priest of the seede of Aaron, is come with this armie, and he will doe vs no wrong.

15 So he spake vnto them peaceably. and sware vnto them, saying; We will procure the harme neither of you nor your friends.

16 Whereupon they beleeved him: howbeit hee tooke of them threescore men, and slewe them in one day, according to the words which he wrote:

17 The flesh of thy Saints [haue Peal 79, they cast out | and their blood haue they shed round about Ierusalem, and there was none to bury them.

18 Wherefore the feare and dread of them fell vpon all the people, who said, I'here is neither trueth, nor † righteousnesse in them; for they have broken the ment. conenant and othe that they made.

19 After this remooued Bacchides from Ierusalem, and pitched his tents in Bezeth, where he sent and tooke many of the men that had forsaken him. and certaine of the people also, and when he had slaine them, he cast them into the great pit.

20 Then committed he the countrey to Alcimus, and left with him a power to aide him : so Bacchides went vnto

27 So Nicanor came to Ierusalem with a great force : and sent vnto Iudas and his brethren deceitfully with firiendly words, saying, 28 Let there be no battell betweene me and you, I will come with a fewe men, that I may tace you in peace.

29 He came therefore to Iudas, and they saluted one another peaceably. Howbeit the enemies were prepared to take away Iudas by violence. 30 Which thing after it was knowen to Iudas (to wit) that he came vnto him with deceit, he was sore afraid of him, and would see his face no more. 31 Nicanor also when he saw that his counsell was discouered, went out to tfight against Iudas besides || Capharsalama.

82 Where there were slaine of Nicanors side, about five thousand men, and the rest | fled into the citie of Dauid.

33 After this went Nicanor vp to mount Sion, and there came out of the Sanctuarie certaine of the priestes, and certaine of the elders of the people to salute him peaccably, and to shewe him the burnt sacrifice that was offred for the king.

S4 But he mocked them, and laugh-Gr. defiled ed at them, and tabused them shamefully, and spake proudly, 35 And swore in his wrath, saying, vnlesse Iudas and his hoste be now deliuered into my hands, if euer I come ton in posses agains tin safetie, I will burne vp this house; and with that he went out in a great rage.

36 Then the priests entred in , and stood before the alter, and the Temple, weeping, and saying, 37 Thou O Lord didst choose this house, to be called by thy Name, and to be a house of prayer and petition for thy people.

38 Be avenged of this man and his hoste, and let them fall hy the sword: Remember their blasphemies, and suffer them not to continue any longer.

39 So Nicanor went out of Ierusalem, & pitched his tents in Bethoron, where an hoste out of Syria met him.

40 But Iudas pitched in Adasa with three thousand men, and there be prayed, saying, 41 O Lord, when they that were sent from the king of the Assyrians blasphemed, thine Angel went out, and smote a bundred, fourescore, and fine thousand of them.

42 Euen so destroy thou this host before ve this day, that the rest may know that he hath spoken blasphemously a gainst thy Sanctuary, and judge thou him according to his wickednesse.

43 So the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar, the hostes ioyned battell, but Nicanors host was discomfitted, & he himselfe was first slaine in the battell.

4 And that by their policie and patience, they had conquered | all that place (though it were very farre from them) and the kings also that came a-gainst them from the vitermost part of the earth, till they had discomfited them, & given them a great overthrow, so that the rest did give them tribute every yere.

5 Besides this, how they had discomfited in hattell Philip, and Perseus king of the ||Citims, with others that lift vp themselves against them, and had ouercome them.

6 How also Antiochus the great king of Asia that came against them in battaile, haning an hundred and twentie Elephants with horsemen and chariots, and a very great armie, was discomfited by them.

7 And how they tooke him aliue. and couenanted that bee and such as reigned after him, should pay a great tribute, and give hostages, and that which was agreed vpon,

8 And the country of India, and Media, and Lidia, and of the goodliest countries: which they tooke of him, and gaue to king Eumenes.

9 Moreover how the Grecians had determined to come and destroy them.

10 And that they having knowledge thereof sent against them a certaine captaine, and fighting with them slew many of them, and caried away captines, their wives, and their children, and spoiled them, and tooke possession of their lands, and pulled downe their strong holds, and brought them to be their seruants vnto this day.

11 [It was told him besides] how they destroyed and brought under their dominion, all other kingdomes and isles that at any time resisted them.

12 But with their friends, and such as relied vpon them they kept amitie: and that they had conquered kingdomes both farre and nigh, insomuch as all that heard of their name were afraid of them.

13 Also that whom they would helpe to a kingdome, those raigne, and whom againe they would, they displace : finally that they were greatly exalted.

14 Yet for all this, none of them wore a crowne, or was clothed in purple to be magnified thereby.

15 Moreover how they had made for themselues a senate house, wherin three hundred and twentie men sate in coun-

|sell daily, consulting alway for the people, to the end they might be wel ordered

16 And that they committed their gouernment to one man euery veere, who ruled ouer all their countrie, and that all were obedient to that one, and that there was neither enuy, nor emulation amongst them.

17 In consideration of these things Iudas chose Eupolemus the sonne of Iohn, the sonne of Accas, and Iason the sonne of Eleazar, and sent them to Rome to make a league of amitie and confederacie with them,

18 [And to intreate them] that they would take the yoke from them, for they saw that the kingdome of the Grecians did oppresse Israel with seruitude

19 They went therefore to Rome (which was a very great iourney) and came into the Senate, where they spake and said.

20 Iudas Maccabeus with his brethren, and the people of the Iewes, haue sent vs vnto you, to make a confederacie, and peace with you, and that we might be registred, your confederats and friends.

21 So that matter pleased the Romanes well.

22 And this is the copie of the Epistle which (the Senate) wrote backe againe, in tables of hrasse: and sent to Ierusalem, that there they might have by them a memorial of peace & confederacy.

28 Good successe be to the Romans and to the people of the Iewes, by Sea, and by land for euer: the sword also and enemie, be farre from them.

24 If there come first any warre vpon the Romans or any of their confederats throughout all their dominion, 25 The people of the Iewes shall helpe them, as the time shall be appointed, with all their heart.

26 Neither shal they give any thing, vnto them that make war vpon them. or aide them with victuals, weapons. money, or ships, as it bath seemed good vnto the Romans, but they shall keepe their couenant without taking any thing therefore.

27 In the same maner also, if warre come first vpon the nation of the Iewes, the Romans shall helpe them with all their heart, according as the time shall be appointed them.

29 According to these articles did the Romanes make a covenant with the people of the lewes.

30 Howbeit, if hereafter the one partie or the other, shall thinke meete to adde or diminish any thing, they may doe it at their pleasures, and whatsoeuer they shall adde or take away, shalbe ratified.

Sl And as touching the euils that Demetrius doeth to the lewes, wee haue written vnto him, saying, Wherefore hast thou made thy yoke heauie vpon our friends, and confederate the lewes?

3 Moreouer Demotrius sent letters vnto Ionathan with louing wordes, so as he magnified him.

4 For, said hee, Let va first make peace with him before he loyne with A. lexander against vs.

5 Else he wil remember all the euils that we have done against him, and against his brethren and his people.

6 Wherefore he gaue him authority to gather together an host, and to prouide weapons that hee might aide him in battell: he commaunded also that the hostages that were in the towre, should be delivered him.

7 Then came Ionathan to Ierusalem, and read the letters in the audi ence of all the people, and of them that were in the towre.

8 Who were sore afraid when they heard that the king had given him authoritie to gather together an host.

9 Whereupon they of the towre delivered their hostages vnto Ionathan, & he delivered them vnto their parents

10 This done, Ionathan settled himselfe in Ierusalem, and began to build and repaire the citie.

11 And he commaunded the workemen to build the wals, and the mount Sion round about with square stones, for fortification, and they did so.

12 Then the strangers that were in the fortresses which Bacchides had built, fled away:

13 Insomuch as every man left his place, and went into his owne country.

14 Onely at Bethsura certaine of those that had forsaken the law, and the commaundements remained still : for it was their place of refuge.

15 Now when king Alexander had heard what promises Demetrius had sent voto Ionathan : when also it was told him of the battels and noble acts which he & his brethren had done, and of the paines that they had indured,

16 He said, Shal we find such another

N the hundreth & sixtieth | man? Now thereforee we will make him our friend, and confederate.

17 Vpon this he wrote a letter and sent it vato him according to these words, saving :

18 King Alexander to his brother Ionathan, sendeth greeting:

19 We have heard of thee, that thou art a man of great power, and meete to be our friend.

20 Wherefore now this day we ordaine thee to bee the high priest of thy nation, and to be called the kings friend, (and therewithall he sent him a purple robe and a crowne of gold) [and require thee I to take our part, and keepe friendship with vs.

21 So in the seventh moneth of the hundreth and sixtieth yere, at the feast of the Tabernacles, Ionathan put on the holy robe, and gathered together forces, and prouided much armour.

22 Wherof when Demetrius heard. he was very sory, and said,

23 What have we done that Alexander hath prevented vs. in making amity with the lewes to strengthen himself?

24 I also will write vnto them words of encouragement and promise them | dignities and gifts, that I may haue their avde

25 He sent vnto him therefore, to this effect: King Demetrius vnto the people of the lewes, sendeth greeting:

26 Whereas you have kept covenants with vs. & continued in our friendship. not loyning your selues with our enemies, we have heard hereof, & are glad:

27 Wherefore now continue yee still to be faithful vnto vs, and we will well recompence you for the things you doe in our behalfe.

28 And will grant you many immunities, and give you rewards.

29 And now I doe free you, and for your sake I release all the Iewes from tributes, and from the customes of salt, and from crowne taxes,

30 And fro that which appertaineth vnto me to receive for the third part of the seed, and the halfe of the fruit of the trees, I release it from this day forth, so that they shall not be taken of the land of Iudea, nor of the three gouernments which are added thereunto out of the country of Samaria and Galile, from this day forth for euermore.

46 Now when Ionathan and the people heard these words, they gane no credite vnto them, nor received them, because they remembred the great suill that he had done in Israel; for hee had afflicted them very sore.

50 And he continued the battell very sore vntill the Sunne went downe, and that day was Demetrius slaine.

51 Afterward Alexander sent Embassadors to Ptoleme king of Egypt, with a message to this effect;

52 Forsomuch as I am come againe to my realme, and am set in the throne of my progenitors, and have gotten the dominion, and ouerthrowen Demetrius, and recouered our countrey,

53 (For after I had joyned battell with him, both he, and his hoste was discomfited by vs., so that we sit in the throne of his kingdome)

54 Now therefore let vs make a league of amitie together, and give me now thy daughter to wife : & I will be thy son in law, and will give both thee and her, gifts according to thy dignity.

55 Then Ptoleme the king gaue answere, saying, Happy be the day wherein thou diddest returne into the land of Apocrypha.

their kingdome.

56 And now will I doe to thee, as thou hast written : meet me therefore at Ptolemais, that wee may see one another, for I will marry my daughter to thee according to thy desire.

57 So Ptolome went out of Egypt with his daughter Cleopatra, and they came vnto Ptolemais in the hundred threescore and second yeere.

58 Where king Alexander meeting him, gaue vnto him bis daughter Cleopatra, and celebrated her marriage at Ptolemais with great glory, as the maner of kings is.

59 Now king Alexander bad writ ten vnto Ionathan, that hee should come and meete him.

60 Who thereupon went honoursbly to Ptolemais, where he met the two kings, and gave them and their friends siluer and golde, and many presents, and found fauour in their sight.

61 At that time certaine pestilent fellowes of Israel, men of a wicked life. assembled themselves against him, to accuse him : but the king would not heare them-

62 Yea more then that, the king commanded to take off his garments, and clothe him in purple : and they did so.

63 Also he made him sit by himselfe. and said vnto his princes, Goe with him into the midst of the city, and make proclamation, that no man complaine against him of any matter, and that no man troble him for any maner of cause.

64 Now when his accusers sawe that he was honoured according to the proclamation, and clothed in purple, they fled all away.

65 So the king honoured him, and wrote him amongst his chiefe friends, and made him a duke, and | partaker of his dominion.

66 Afterward Ionathan returned to Ierusalem with peace and gladnes.

67 Furthermore, in the bundreth threescore and fifth yeere, came Demetrius sonne of Demetrius, out of Crete into the land of his fathers.

68 Whereof when king Alexander heard tell, he was right sory, and returned into Antioch.

69 Then Demetrius made Apollonius the gouernour of Coelosyria his general, who gathered together a great hoste, and camped in Iamnia, and sent [thy fathers, and satest in the throne of | |vnto Ionathan the high Priest, saying, 70 Thou alone liftest vp thy selfe a gainst vs. and I am laughed to scorne for thy sake, and reproched, and why doest thou vaunt thy power against vs in the mountaines?

71 Now therefore if thou trustest in thine owne strength, come downe to vs into the plaine field, and there let vs trie the matter together, for with me is the power of the cities.

72 Aske and learne who I am, and the rest that take our part, and they shall tel thee that thy foot is not able to stand before our face; for thy fathers have bene twice put to flight in their owne land.

78 Wherefore now thou shalt not be able to abide the horsemen and so great a power in the plaine, where is neither stone nor flint, nor place to flee vnto.

74 So when Ionathan heard these words of Apollonius, he was moued in his mind, & choosing ten thousand men, he went out of lerusale, where Simon his brother met him for to helpe him.

75 And hee pitched his tents against Ioppe : but they of Ioppe shut him out of the citie, because Apollonius had a garison there.

76 Then Ionathan laid siege vnto it : whereupon they of the city let him in for feare : & so Ionathan wan Ioppe.

77 Wherof when Apollonius heard, he tooke three thousand horsemen with great hoste of footmen, and went to Azotus las one that iourneyed, & there-107, as thor Azotus as one that fourneyeds of these he would withal drew him forth into the plaine, passe the because he had a great number of horsemen, in whom he put his trust.

78 Then Ionathan followed after him to Azotus, where the armies iovned battell. 79 Now Apollonius had left a thousand horsemen in ambush.

80 And Ionathan knew that there was an ambushment behinde him; for they had compassed in his host, and cast darts at the people, from morning till euening.

81 But the people stood still, as Ionathan had commanded them : and so the ||enemies borses were tired.

82 Then brought Simon forth his hoste, and set them against the footmen. (for the horsmen were spent) who were discomfited by him, and fled.

83 The horsemen also being scattered in the field, fled to Azotus, and went into Bethdago their idols temple for safety.

84 But Ionathan set fire on Azotus, and the cities round about it, and tooke their spoiles, and the temple of Dagon, with them that were fled into it, he burnt with fire.

85 Thus there were burnt and slaine with the sword, well nigh eight thousand men.

86 And from thence Ionathan remoued his hoste, and camped against Ascalon, where the men of the city came forth, and met him with great pompe.

87 After this, returned Ionathan and his hoste vnto Ierusalem, having many spoiles.

88 Now when king Alexander heard these things, he honoured Ionathan

Nd the king of Egypt gathered together a great host like the sand that lieth vpon the Sea shore, and many ships, and went about through deceit to get Alexanders kingdome, and ioyne it to his owne. 2 Whereupon he tooke his tourney into Syria in peaceable maner, so as they of the cities opened vnto him, and met him : for king Alexander had commanded them so to doe, because he was his father in law

3 Now as Ptolomee entred into the cities, he set in euery one of them a garison of souldiers to keepe it.

4 And when he came neere to Azotus, they shewed him the temple of Dagon that was burnt, and Azotus, and the suburbs thereof that were destroy. ed, and the bodies that were cast a broad, and them that he had burnt in the battell, for they had made heapes of them by the way where he should passe.

5 Also they told the king whatsoeluer Ionathan had done, to the intent he might blame him : but the king helde his peace.

6 Then Iorlathan met the king with great pompe at Ioppa, where they saluted one another, and † lodged.

7 Afterward Ionathan when he had gone with the king to the riner called Eleutherus, returned againe to Ierusalem.

8 King Ptolomee therefore hauing gotten the dominion of the cities by the sea, vnto Seleucia vpon the sea coast, imagined wicked counsels against Alexauder.

9 Whereupon he sent embassadours vnto king Demetrius, saying, Come, let vs make a league betwixt vs, and I will give thee my daughter whome A. lexander hath, and thou shalt reigne in thy fathers kingdome:

10 For I repent | I gaue my daugh.

ter vnto him, for he sought to slay me.
11 Thus did he slander him, because he was desirous of his kingdome.

12 Wherefore he tooke his daughter from him, and gaue her to Demetrius, and forsooke Alexander, so that their hatred was openly knowen.

13 Then Ptolomee entred into Antioch, where he set two crownes vpo his head, the crowne of Asia, and of Egypt.

14 In the meane season was king Alexander in Cilicia, because those y dwelt in those parts, had revolted from him.

15 But when Alexander heard of this, hee came to warre against him, whereupon king Ptolomee brought forth his hoste, and met him with a mightie power, and put him to flight.

16 So Alexander fled into Arabia, there to be defended, but king Ptolomee was exalted.

17 For Zabdiel the Arabian tooke off Alexanders head, and sent it vnto Ptolomee.

18 King Ptolemee also died the third day after, † & they that were in the strong holds, were slaine one of another.

19 By this meanes Demetrius reigner in the holds were in the holds were in the ned in the hundreth, threescore and setting of those that ucnth yeere. uenth yeere.

20 At the same time Ionathan ga thered together them that were in Iudea, to take the towre that was in Ierusalem, and he made many engines of warre against it.

21 Then certaine vngodly persons who hated their owne people, went vn-

23 Neuerthelesse Ionathan when he heard this, commanded to besiege it still land he chose certaine of the Elders of Israel, and the priests, and put himselfe in perill, 24 And tooke siluer and gold, and rayment, and diuers presents besides, and went to Ptolemais, vnto the king, where he found fauour in his sight.

25 And though certaine vngodly men of the people, had made complaints against him.

26 Yet the king entreated him as his predecessors had done before, & promoted him in the sight of all his friends, 27 And confirmed him in the high priestbood, and in all the honours that hee had before, and gaue him preeminence among his chiefe friends.

28 Then Ionathan desired the king, that hee would make Indea free from tribute, as also the three governments with the countrey of Samaria, & he promised him three hundred talents

29 So the king consented and wrote letters vnto Ionathan, of all these things after this maner.

30 King Demetrius vnto his bro-ther Ionathan, and vnto the nation of the Iewes, sendeth greeting.

31 We send you heere a copie of the letter, which we did write vnto our cousin Lasthenes, concerning you, that you might see it.

32 King Demetrius vnto his father Lasthenes, sendeth greeting:

33 We are determined to doe good to the people of the Iewes, who are our friends, and keepe couenants with vs, because of their good will towards vs.

34 || Wherefore we have ratified vnto them the borders of Iudea, with the three governments of Apherema, and Lidda, and Ramathem, that are added vnto Iudea, from the countrie of Samaria, and all things appertaining vnto them, for all such, as doe sacrifice in Ierusalem, in stead of the paiments, which the king received of them yearely aforetime out of the fruits of the earth, and of trees.

85 And as for other things that belong vnto vs of the tithes and customes pertaining vnto vs, as also the salt pits, and the crowne taxes, which are due vnto vs. we discharge them of them all for their reliefe.

36 And nothing heereof shall be reuoked from this time foorth for ever.

37 Now therefore see that thou make a copie of these things, and let it be deliuered vnto Ionathan, and set vpon the holy mount in a conspicuous place.

38 After this, when king Demetrius saw that the land was quiet before him, and that no resistance was made against him, he sent away all his forces enery one to his owne place, except certaine bands of strangers, whom he had gathered from the iles of the heathen, wherefore all the forces of his fathers hated him.

39 Moreouer there was one Tryplion, that had beene of Alexanders part afore, who seeing that all the hoste murmured against Demetrius, went to Simalcue the Arabian, that brought vp Antiochus y yong sonne of Alexander, 40 And lay sore vpon him, to deliuer him [this young Antiochus] that he might raigne in his fathers stead : he told him therefore all that Demetrius had done, and how his men of warre were at enmitie with him, and there he remained a long season.

41 In the meane time Ionathan sent vnto king Demetrius, that hec would cast those of the towre out of Ierusalem, and those also in the fortresses. For they fought against Israel.

42 So Demetrius sent vnto Ionathan, saying, I will not onely doe this for thee, and thy people, but I will greatly honour thee and thy nation, if opportunitie serue.

43 Now therefore thou shalt do wel if thou send me men to helpe me; for all my forces are gone from me.

44 Vpon this Ionathan sent him three thousand strong men vnto Antioch, and when they came to y king, the king was very glad of their comming.

45 Howbeit, they that were of the citie, gathered themselves together into the midst of the citie, to the number of an hundreth and twentie thousand men, and would have slaine the king.

46 Wherefore the king fled into the court, but they of the citie kept the passages of the citie, and began to fight.

47 Then

47 Then the king called to the Iewes for helpe, who came vnto him all at once, and dispersing themselves through the city, slew that day in the citie to the number of an hundred thou-

48 Also they set fire on the citie, and gat many spoiles that day, and deliuered the king.

49 So when they of the city saw, that the Iewes had got the city as they would, their courage was abated, wherefore they made supplication to the king, and cried, saying:
50 ||Graunt vs peace, and let the lewes cease from assaulting vs and the citie.

51 With that they cast away their weapons, and made peace, and the lewes were honoured in the sight of the king, and in the sight of all that were in his realme, and they returned to Ie-rusalem having great spoiles.

52 So king Demetrius sate on the throne of his kingdome, and the land was quiet before him.

53 Neuerthelesse hee dissembled in all that ever hee spake, and estranged himselfe from Ionathan, neither rewarded he him, according to the benefits which hee had received of him, but troubled him very sore.

54 After this returned Tryphon, and with him the yong childe Antiochus, who reigned and was crowned.

55 Then there gathered vnto him all the men of warre whom Demetrius had put away, and they fought against Demetrius, who turned his backe and fled.

58 Vpon this he sent him golden vessels to be served in, and gave him leave to drinke in gold, and to bee clothed in purple, and to weare a golden buckle.

68 And behold, the hoste of strangers met them in the plaine, who having layed men in ambush for him in the mountaines, came themselves over against him.

69 So when they that lay in ambush rose out of their places, and loyned battel, al that were of Ionathans side fled.

Ionathan reneweth his league with the Ro-manes and Lacedemonians. 28 The forces of Demetrius thinking to surprise lonathan, flee away for feare. 35 Ionathan fortifieth the castles in Iudea, 48 and is shut up by the fraud of Tryphon in Ptolemais.

Owe when Ionathan saw that the time serued bim, he chose certaine men and sent them to Rome, for to confirme and renew the friendship that they had with them. 2 He sent letters also to the Lacedemonians, and to other places, for the 3 So they went vnto Rome, and entred into the Senate, and said, Iona. than the high Priest, and the people of the Iewes sent vs vnto you, to the end you should renew the friendship which you had with them, and league, as in former time.

4 Vpon this the Romanes gaue them letters vnto the governours of e-uery place, that they should bring them into the land of Iudea peaceably.

5 And this is the copy of the letters which Ionathan wrote to the Lacedemonians :

6 Ionathan the hie Priest, and the Elders of the nation, and the Priestes and the other people of the Iewes, vnto the Lacedemonians their brethren, send greeting.

10 Haue neuerthelesse attempted to send vnto you, for the renewing of brotherhood and friendship, lest we should become strangers vnto you altogether: for there is a long time passed since you

11 We therefore at all times without ceasing, both in our Feasts, and other

16 For this cause we chose Numenius the son of Antiochus, and Antipater the sonne of Iason, and sent them vnto the Romanes, to renew the amitie that we had with them, and the former league.

17 We commanded them also to goe vnto you, and to salute you, and to deliuer you our letters, concerning the renewing of our brotherhood.

38 Simon also set vp Adida, in Sephela, and made it strong with gates and barres.

39 Now Tryphon went about to get the kingdome of Asia, and to kill Antiochus the king, that hee might set the crowne vpon his owne head.

40 Howbeit, he was afraid that Ionathan would not suffer him, and that he would fight against him, wherefore he sought a way, howe to take Ionamoued, and came to Bethsan.

41 Then Ionathan went out to meet him with fourtie thousand men, chosen for the battell, and came to Bethsan.

43 But received him honourably. and comended him vnto all his friends. and gave him gifts, and commaunded his men of warre to be as obedient vnto him, as to himselfe.

44 Vnto Ionathan also hee said. Why hast thou put all this people to so great trouble, seeing there is no warre betwixt vs?

45 Therefore send them now home againe, and chuse a few men to waite on thee, and come thou with me to Ptolemais, for I will give it thee and the rest of the strong holds and forces, and all that have any charge; as for me, I will returne and depart : for this is the cause of my comming.

46 So Ionathan beleeving him, did as he bade him, and sent away his host, who went into the land of Iudea.

47 And with himselfe hee retained but three thousand men, of whome he tsent two thousand into Galile, and one to Gr. teft two thousand in Galile.

48 Now assoone as Ionathan entred into Ptolemais, they of Ptolemais shut the gates, and tooke him, and all them that came with him, they slewe with the sword.

49 Then sent Tryphon an hoste of footmen, and horsemen into Galile, and into the great plaine, to destroy all Ionathans company.

50 But when they knew that Ionathan and they that were with him were taken and slaine, they encouraged one another, and went close together, prepared to fight.

51 They therfore that followed vpon them, perceiving y they were ready to fight for their lives, turned back againe.

52 Whereupon they all came into the land of Judea peaceably, and there they bewailed Ionathan & them that were with him, & they were sore afraid, wherfore all Israel made great lamentation.

53 Then all the heathen that were round about them, sought to destroy them. For, said they, they have no captaine, nor any to helpe them. Now therthan, that he might kill him. So he re- fore let vs make war vpon them, & take away their memorial fro amongst men.

Simon is made captaine in his brother Iona-thans roume. 19 Tryphon getteth two of Ionathans somes into his hands, and slayeth their father. 27 The tombe of Ionathan. 36 Simon is fauoured by Demetrius, 46 and winneth Gaza, and the towre at Hierusalem.

Ow when Simon heard that Tryphon had gathered together a great hoste to inuade the laud of ludea, and destroy it,

2 And saw that the people was in great trembling and feare, he went vp to Icrusalem, and gathered the people together,

3 And gaue them exhortation, say. ing : Yee your selves know, what great things I and my brethren, and my fathers house have done for the lawes, and the Sanctuarie, the battels also, and troubles which we have seene,

4 By reason whereof all my brethren are slaine for Israels sake, and I am left alone.

5 Now therefore be it farre from me, that I should spare mine owne life in any time of trouble : for I am no better then my brethren.

6 Doubtlesse I will auenge my nation and the Sanctuarie, & our wines, and our children : for all the heathen are gathered to destroy vs, of very malice. 7 Now as soone as the people heard these words, their spirit reuiued.

8 And they answered with a loud voice, saying, Thou shalt bee our leader in stead of Iudas and Ionathan thy 10 So then he gathered together all the men of warre, and made hast to finish the walles of Ierusalem, and he fortified it round about.

11 Also he sent Ionathan, the sonne of Absolom, & with him a great power to Ioppe, who casting out them that were therein, remained there in it.

12 So Trypbon remoued from Ptolemais, with a great power to inuade the land of Iudea, and Ionathan was with him in warde.

13 But Simon pitched his tents at Adida, ouer against the plaine.

14 Now when Tryphon knew that Simon, was risen up in stead of his brother Ionathan, and meant to ioyne battell with him, he sent messengers vnto him, saying,

15 Whereas we have Ionathan thy brother in hold, it is for money that he is owing vnto the kings treasure, || con- 1 Or, for the cerning the businesse that was commitofficers that he had for ted vnto him.

16 Wherefore, now send an hundred uses which talents of siluer, and two of his sonnes for hostages, that when he is at liberty he may not repolt from vs, and we will let him goe.

17 Heereupon Simon, albeit he perceiued that they spake deceiptfully vnto him, yet sent he the money, and the children, lest peraduenture he should procure to himselfe great hatred of the people:

18 Who might have said, Because I sent him not the money, and the children, therefore is [Ionathan] dead.

19 So he sent them the children, and the hundred talents : Howbeit [Tryphon dissembled, neither would he let Ionathan goe.

20 And after this came Tryphon to inuade the land, and destroy it, going round about by the way that leadeth vnto Adors, but Simon and his host marched against him in euery place wheresoeuer he went.

21 Now they that were in the towre, sent messengers vnto Tryphon, to the end that he should hasten his comming vnto them by the wildernesse, and send them victuals.

22 Wherefore Tryphon made readie all his horsemen to come that night, but there fell a very great snow, by reason whereof he came not : So he departed & came into the countrey of Galand.

23 And when he came neere to Bascama, he slew Ionathan, who was huried there.

24 Afterward Tryphon returned, and went into his owne land.

25 Then sent Simon and tooke the bones of Ionathan his brother, and buried them in Modin the citie of his fathers.

26 And all Israel made great lamentation for him, and bewailed him many daies.

27 Simon also built a monument vpon the Sepulchre of his father and his brethren, and raised it aloft to the sight, with hewen stone behind and be-

29 And in these he made cunning deuices, about the which he set great pillars, and vpon the pillars he made all their armour for a perpetuall memory, and by the armour, ships carued, that they might be seene of all that saile on 80 This is the Sepulchre which he made at Modin, and it standeth yet vnto this day.

31 Now Tryphon dealt deceitfully with the yong king Antiochus, and slew him.

32 And he raigned in his stead, and crowned himselfe king of Asia, and brought a great calamitie vpo the land.

33 Then Simon built up the strong holds in Iudea, and fensed them about with high towres, and great walles and gates and barres, and layd vp vi-

35 Vnto whom king Demetrius answered and wrote after this maner.

36 King Demetrius vnto Simon the high Priest, and friend of kings, as also vnto the Elders and nation of the Iewes, sendeth greeting.

37 The golden crowne, and the scarlet robe which ye sent vnto vs, we have received, and wec are ready to make a stedfast peace with you, yea and to write vnto our officers to confirme the immunities which we have granted.

38 And whatsoeuer couenants we haue made with you, shall stand, and the strong holdes which yee have builded shalbe your owne.

39 As for any ouersight or fault committed vnto this day, we forgive it, and the crowne taxe also which yee owe vs, if there were any other tribute paide in Ierusalem, it shall no more be paide.

40 And looke who are meet among you to be in our court, let them be inrolled, and let there be peace betwixt vs.

41 Thus the yoke of the heathen was taken away from Israel, in the hundred and seventieth yeare.

42 Then the people of Israel beigan to write in their instruments, and contracts, in the first yeere of Simon the high Priest, the governour, and leader of the Iewes.

43 In those dayes Simon camped against Gaza, and besieged it round about; he made also an engine of warre, and set it by the city, and battered a cer. taine towre, and tooke it.

44 And they that were in the Engine leapt into the citie, whereupon there was a great vproare in the citie:

45 Insomuch as the people of the citie rent their clothes, and climed vpon the walles, with their wines and children, and cried with a lowd voice, beseeching Simon to grant them peace. | Gr. to give 46 And they said, Deale not with them his right hand. vs according to our wickednesse, but according to thy mercy.

47 So Simon was appeased towards them, and fought no more against them, but put them out of the citie, and cleansed the houses wherein the idols were : and so entred into it, with songs, and thankesgiving.

48 Yea, he put all vncleannesse out of it, and placed such men there, as would keepe the Law, and made it stronger then it was before, and built therein a dwelling place for himselfe.

49 They also of the towre in Icrusalem were kept so strait, that they could neither come foorth, nor goe into the countrey, nor buy, nor sell, wherefore they were in great distresse for want of victuals, and a great number of them perished through famine.

50 Then cried they to Simon, beseeching him || to bee at one with them, 1 or, to which thing hee graunted them, and make peace when he had put them out from thence. he cleansed the towre from pollutions

52 Hee ordained also that that day should be kept enery yeere with gladnes. Moreover, the bill of the Temple that was by the towre he made stronger then it was, and there hee dwelt himselfe with his company.

Bemetrius is taken by the King of Pernia. 4
The good deeder of Simon to his countrey.

18 The Lacedemonians and Romans renew their league with him. 26 A memoriall of his actes is set vp in Sion.

Ow in the hundred three-score and twelfth yeere, king Demetrius gathered his forces together, and went into Media, to get him helpe to fight against Tryphon.

2 But when Arsaces the king of Persia & Media, heard that Demetrius was entred within his borders, he sent one of his princes to take him aliue,

3 Who went and smote the hoste of Demetrius, and tooke him and brought him to Arsaces, hy whom hee was put in warde.

4 As for the land of Iudea, that was quiet all the daves of Simon : for he sought the good of his nation, in such wise, as that euermore his authoritie and honour pleased them well.

5 And as he was honourable (in all his acts) so in this, that he tooke Toppe for an hauen, and made an entrance to the yles of the Sea,

6 And enlarged the boundes of his nation, and recovered the countrey,

7 And gathered together a great number of captines, and had the dominion of Gazara and Bethsura, and the towre, out of the which he tooke all vncleannesse, neither was there any that resisted him.

8 Then did they till their ground in peace, and the earth gaue her increase, and the trees of the field their fruit.

9 The ancient men sate all in the streetes, communing together of || good things, and the young men put on glorious and warrelike apparell.

10 He prouided victuals for the cities, and set in them all maner of munition. so that his honourable name was renowmed vato the end of the world.

11 He made peace in the land, and Isracl reioyced with great ioy:

12 For *euery man sate vnder his vine, and his figgetree, and there was none to fray them:

13 Neither was there any left in the lande to fight against them : yea, the Kings themselves were overmade him captaine of all the hostes and | throwen in those dayes.

14 Moreover hee strengthened all those of his people that were brought low : the Law he searched out, and euery contemner of the Law, and wicked person, he tooke away.

15 He beautified the Sanctuary, and multiplied the vessels of the Temple.

16 Now when it was heard at Rome, & as far as Sparta, that Ionathan was dead, they were very sorie.

17 But assoone as they heard that his brother Simon was made high Priest in his stead, and ruled the countrey, and the cities therein.

18 They wrote vnto him in tables of brasse, to renew the friendship & league which they had made with Judas and Ionathan his brethren:

19 Which writings were read before the Congregation at Ierusalem.

20 And this is the copy of the letters that the Lacedemonians sent : The rulers of the Lacedemonians, with the city, vnto Simon the high Priest, and the Elders and Priestes, and residue of the people of the lewes, our brethren, send greeting.

21 The Embassadors that were sent vnto our people, certified vs of your glory and honour, wherefore we were glad of their comming.

22 And did register the things that they spake, in the counsell of the people, in this maner : Numenius sonne of Antiochus, and Antipater sonne of Iason. the Iewes Embassadours, came vnto vs, to renew the friendship they had with vs.

23 And it pleased the people to entertaine the men honourably, and to put the copy of their embassage in publike records, to the end the people of the Lacedemonians might haue a memoriali therof : furthermore we have written a copy thereof vnto Simon the hie Priest.

24 After this, Simon sent Numenius to Rome, with a great shield of golde of a thousand pound weight, to confirme the league with them.

25 Whereof when the people heard, they said, What thankes shall wee give to Simon and his sonnes?

28 At || Saramel in the great congregation of the priests and people, and rulers of the nation, & elders of the country, were these things notified vnto vs.

29 Forsomuch as often times there haue bin warres in the countrey, wherin for the maintenance of their Sanctuarie, and the law, Simon the sonne of Mattathias of the posteritie of Iarib. together with his brethren, put themselves in icopardie, and resisting the enemies of their nation, did their nation great honour.

30 (For after that Ionathan having gathered his nation together, and bene their hie priest, was added to his people, S1 Their enemies purposed to inuade their countrey that they might destroy it, and lay hands on the Sanctuary.

32 At which time Simon rose vp, and fought for his nation, and spent much of 10r. the men his own substance, & armed | the valiant men of his nation, & gaue them wages, 33 And fortified the cities of Iudea. together with Bethsura that lieth vp-on the borders of ludes, where the armour of the enemies had hin before. but he set a garison of Iewes there.

34 Moreouer, hee fortified Ioppe which lieth vpon the Sea, and || Gazara that bordereth vpon Azotus, where the enemies had dwelt before : but hee placed lewes there, and furnished them with all things convenient for the reparation thereof.) 35 The people therefore seeing the acts of Simon, and vnto what glory he thought to bring his nation, made him their governor and chiefe priest, because he had done all these things, and for the iustice and faith which hee kept to his nation, and for that hee sought by all meanes to exalt his people.

36 For in his time things prospered in his hands, so that the heathen were taken out of their countrey, and they also that were in the citie of Dauid in lerusalem, who had made themselves a towre, out of which they issued, and polluted all about the Sanctuarie, and did much hurt ||in the holy place,

37 But he placed Iewes therein, and fortified it for the safetie of the coun-

lof brasse, which they set vpon pillars in | trey, and the city, and raised vp the wals of Ierusalem.

38 King Demetrius also confirmed him in the high priesthood, according to those things.

39 And made him one of his friends, and honoured him with great honour.

40 For he had heard say, that the Romanes had called the lewes their friends, and confederates, and brethren, and that they had entertained the Embassadours of Simon honourably.

41 Also that the Iewes & priests were wel pleased that Simon should be their gouernour, and high priest for euer vntil there should arise a faithfull prophet.

42 Moreouer, that he should be their captaine, and should take charge of the Sanctuarie, to set them over their workes, and ouer the countrey, and ouer the armour, and ouer the fortresses, that (I say) he should take charge of the Sanctuarie.

43 Besides this, that he should be obeyed of every man, and that all the writings in the countrey should be made in his name, and that he should be clothed in purple, and weare gold.

44 Also that it should be lawfull for none of the people or priests, to breake any of these things, or to gainesay his words, or to gather an assembly in the countrey without him, or to bee clothed in purple, or weare a buckle of gold.

45 And whosoeuer should do otherwise, or breake any of these things, he should be punished.

46 Thus it liked all y people to deale with Simon, & to do as hath bene said.

47 Then Simon accepted hereof, and was well pleased to be high Priest, and captaine, and gouernour of the lewes, & priests, & to defend them all.

48 So they commanded that this writing should be put in tables of hrasse. and that they should be set up within the compasse of the Sanctuary in a conspicuous place.

49 Also y the copies therof should be laid up in the treasurie, to the ende that Simon & his sonnes might have them.

of Demetrius the king, sent letters from the isles of the Sea, vnto Simon the priest, and prince of the

3 For as much as certaine pestilent men, haue vsurped the kingdome of our fathers, and my purpose is to chalenge it againe, that I may restore it to the old estate, and to that end have gathered a multitude of forraine souldiers together, and prepared shippes of warre.

4 My meaning also being to goe through the countrey, that I may be auenged of them that have destroyed it, and made many cities in the kingdome desolate:

5 Now therefore I confirme vato thee, all the oblations which the kings before me granted thee, and whatsoeuer gifts besides they granted.

6 I give thee leave also to coine money for thy countrey with thine owne stampe.

7 And as concerning Ierusalem, and the Sanctuarie, let them be free. and al the armour that thou hast made. and fortresses that thou hast built, and keepest in thy hands, let them remaine vnto thee.

8 And if any thing bee, or shall be owing to the king, let it be forgiuen thee, from this time forth for evermore.

9 Furthermore, when we have obtained our kingdome, ye will honour thee, and thy nation, and thy temple with great honour, so that your honour shall bee knowen throughout the world.

10 In the hundred threescore and fourteenth yeere, went Antiochus into the land of his fathers, at which time all the forces came together vnto him, so that few were left with Tryphon.

11 Wherefore being pursued by king Antiochus, he fled vnto Dora, which lieth by the Sea side.

12 For he saw, that troubles came pon him all at once, and that his forces had forsaken him.

13 Then camped Antiochus against Dora, having with him, an hundred and twentie thousand men of warre.

Oreouer Antiochus sonne; and eight thousand horsemen.

14 And when he had compassed the citie round about, and joyned ships close to the towne on the Sea side, hee vexed the citie by land, and by Sea, neither suffered he any to goe out or in.

15 In the meane season came Numenius, & his company from Rome hauing letters to the kings and countries. wherein were written these things.

19 We thought it good therefore, to write vnto the kings and countries, that they should doe them no harme, nor fight against them, their cities, or countries, nor yet aide their enemies against them.

20 It seemed also good to vs, to receive the shield of them.

Leut, 23, lof "Tabernacles in the moneth Casleu. 10 In the hundreth, fourescore, and eight veere, the people that were at Icrusalem, and in Indea, and the counsel and Iudas, sent greeting and health vnto Aristobulus, king Ptolomeus master, who was of the stock of the anointed priests, and to the Iewes that were in Egypt.

11 Insomuch as God hath deliuered vs from great perils, wee thanke him highly, as haning bin in battell against a king.

12 For he cast them out that fought within the holy citie.

13 For when the leader was come into Persia, and the armie with him that seemed inuincible, they were slaine in the temple of Nanea, by the deceit of Naneas priests.

14 For Antiochus, as though hee would marrie her, came into the place, and his friends that were with him, to receive money in name of a dowrie.

15 Which when the priests of Nanea had set forth, and he was entred with a small company into the compasse of the temple, they shut the temple assoone as Antiochus was come in.

16 And opening a privile doore of the roofe, they threw stones like thunderbolts, and stroke downe the captaine, hewed them in pieces, smote off their heads, and cast them to those that were without.

17 Blessed be our God in all things, who hath delivered up the ungodly.

18 Therefore whereas we are nowe purposed to keep the purification of the Temple vpon the fiue & twentieth day of the moneth * Casleu, we thought it necessary to certifie you thereof, that ye also might keepe it, as the [feast] of the tabernacles, and of the fire [ which was giuen vs] when Necmias offered sacrifice, after that he had builded the Temple, and the Altar.

19 For when our fathers were led into Persia, the Priests that were then deuout, took the fire of the Altar prinily, & hid it in a hollow place of a pit without water, where they kept it sure, so that the place was vnknowen to all men.

20 Now after many yeeres, when it pleased God, Neemias being sent from the king of Persia, did send of the posteritie of those Priests that had hid it, to the fire : but when they tolde vs they found no fire, but thicke water, 21 Then comanded he them to draw it vp, and to bring it : and when the sacrifices were laid on, Neemias comanded the Priests to sprinkle v wood, and the things laid therupon with v water.

22 When this was done, and the time came that the Sun shone which a fore was hid in the cloude, there was a great fire kindled, so that every man

23 And the Priests made a prayer whilest the sacrifice was consuming, [] say | both the Priests, and all the rest. Ionathan beginning, and the rest answering thereunto, as Neemias did.

24 And the prayer was after this maner, O Lord, Lord God, Creatour of all things, who art fearefull, and strong, and righteous, and mercifull, and the onely, and gracious king,

25 The onely giver of all things, the onely just, almightie & euerlasting, thou that deliuerest Israel from al trouble, & didst choose the fathers, & sanctifie them:

26 Receive the sacrifice for thy whole people Israel, and preserue thine owne portion, and sanctifie it.

27 Gather those together that are scattered fro vs. deliuer them that serue among the heathen, looke vpon them that are despised & abhorred, and let the heathen know that thou art our God.

28 Punish them that oppresse vs. and with pride doe vs wrong.

29 Plant thy people againe in thy holy place, as Moises hath spoken.

SO And the Priests sung psalmes of thankesgiuing.

31 Now when the sacrifice was consumed. Neemias commanded the water that was left, to bee powred on the great stones.

32 When this was done, there was kindled a flame ; but it was consumed by the light that shined from the Altar.

33 So when this matter was knowen, it was told the king of Persia, that in the place, where the Priests that were led away, had hid the fire, there appeared water, and that || Neemins | Or. Neehad purified the sacrifices therewith.

34 Then the king inclosing the place, made it holy after he had tried y matter.

35 And the king tooke many gifts, and bestowed thereof, on those whom he would gratifie.

36 And Neemias called this thing Naphthar, which is as much to say as a cleansing : but many men call it Nephi.

What Ieremie the Prophet did. 5 How he hid the Tabernacle, the Arke, and the Altar. 13 What Neemias, and Indas wrote. 20 What Iason wrote in fine bookes, 25 And how those were abridged by the author of this booke.

T is also found in the re-Prophet, commaunded them that were caried away, to take of the fire as it

3 And with other such speeches exhorted he them, that the law should not depart from their hearts.

4 It was also contained in the same writing, that the Prophet being warned of God, commanded the Ta bernacle, and the Arke to goe with him. as he went forth into the mountaine, where Moises climed vp, and sawe the heritage of God

5 And when Ieremie came thither, he found an hollow caue wherin he laid the Tabernacle, and the Arke, and the altar of incense, & so stopped the doore.

6 And some of those that followed him, came to marke the way, but they could not find it.

7 Which when Ieremie perceiued, hee blamed them, saying, As for that place, it shall be vnknowen vntill the time that God gather his people againe together, and receive them vnto mercy.

8 Then shall the Lord shew them these things, and the glory of the Lord shall appeare, and the cloud also as it was shewed under Moises, and as when Solomon desired that the place might be honourably sanctified.

9 It was also declared that he being wise, offered the sacrifice of dedication, and of the finishing of the Temple.

10 And as when Moises prayed vnto the Lord, the fire came down from heauen, and consumed the sacrifices: euen so prayed Solomon also, and the fire came downe from heauen, and consumed the burnt offerings.

11 And Moises said, because the sinne

13 The same things also were reported in the writings, and commentaries of Neemias, and how he founding a librarie, gathered together the acts of the Kings, and the Prophets, and of Da-uid, and the Epistles of the Kings concerning the holy gifts.

14 In like maner also, Iudas gathered together all those things that were lost, by reason of the warre we had, and they remaine with vs.

15 Wherefore if yee haue neede thereof, send some to fetch them vnto you.

16 Whereas we then are about to celebrate the purification, we have written vnto you, and yee shall doe well if yee keepe the same dayes.

17 + We hope also that the God, that | ore. now deliuered all his people, and gaue them that saued all an heritage, and the kingdome, and all his people and rendred the priesthood, and the Sanctuarie, he priesthood, and the Sanctuarie,

18 As he promised in the lawe, will dome, and shortly haue mercy vpon vs, and gather the priest-theory was together out of euery land vnder sactuaties, the auen into the holy place: for he hath deliuered vs out of great troubles, and laure. For we hope in that he purified the place. hath purified the place.

19 Now as concerning Iudas Mac-tell shortly. cabeus, and his brethren, and the purification of the great Temple, and the dedication of the altar,

20 And the warres against Antiohus Epiphanes, & Eupator his sonne,

21 And the manifest signes that came from heauen, vnto those that behaued themselves manfully to their honour for Iudaisme : so that being but a few, they ouercame the whole country, and chased barbarous multitudes,

22 And recourred againe the Temple renowned all the world ouer, and freed the citie, and vpheld the lawes, which were going downe, the Lord being gracious vnto them with al fauour: 23 All these things (I say) being declared by Iason of Cyrene in fiue books, we will assay to abridge in one volume 24 For considering the infinite number, and the difficulty, which they find that desire to looke into the narrations of the story, for the variety of y matter, 26 Therefore to vs that have taken vpon vs this paineful labour of abridging, it was not easie, but a matter of sweat, and watching.

27 Euen as it is no ease vnto him, that prepareth a banquet, and seeketh the benefit of others: yet || for the pleasuring of many we will undertake gladly this great paines:

28 Leaving to the authour the exact handling of every particular, and labouring to follow the rules of an abridgement.

29 For as the master builder of a new house, must care for the whole building : but hee that vndertaketh to set it out, and paint it, must seeke out fit things for the adorning thereof : euen so I thinke it is with vs.

30 To stand vpon euery point, and goe ouer things at large, and to be curious in particulars, belongeth to the first authour of the storie.

SI But to vse breuitie, and augyde much labouring of the worke, is to bee granted to him that will make an abridgement.

S2 Here then will we begin the story: onely adding thus much to that which hath bene said, That it is a foolish thing to make a long prologue, and to be short in the story it selfe.

CHAP, III.

Of the honour done to the Temple by the Kings of the Gentiles. 6 Simon vitereth what treasures are in the Temple. 7 Heliodorus is sent to take them away. 24 He is stricken of God, and healed at the praier of Onias.

Ow when the holy Citie was inhabited with all peace, and the Lawes were kept very well, because of the godlinesse of Onias the high Priest, and his hatred of wickednesse, 2 It came to passe that even the Kings themselves did honour the place, and magnifie the Temple with their best gifts;

S Insomuch that Seleucus king of Asia, of his owne reuenues, bare all the costes belonging to the scruice of the sacrifices.

4 But one Simon of the tribe of Beniamin, who was made gouernour of the Temple, fell out with the high 5 And when he could not ouercome Onias, he gate him to Apollonius the sonne of Thraseas, who then was gouernour of Coelosyria, and Phenice.

6 Aud told him that the treasurie in Ierusalem was full of infinite summes of money, so that the multitude of their riches which did not pertaine to the account of the sacrifices, was innumerable, and that it was possible to bring all into the kings hand.

7 Now when Apollonius came to the king, and had shewed him of the money, whereof he was told, the king chose out Heliodorus his treasurer, and sent him with a commaundement, to bring him the foresaid money.

8 So foorthwith Heliodorus tooke his iourney vnder a colour of visiting the cities of Coelosyria, and Phenice, but indeed to fulfill the kings purpose.

9 And when he was come to Ierusalem, & had benecourteously received of the high Priest of the citie, hee told him what intelligence was given of the money, & declared wherefore hee came, and and asked if these things were so in deed.

10 Then the high Priest tolde him that there was such money layde vp for the reliefe of widowes, and fatherlesse children,

11 And that some of it belonged to Hircanus, sonne of Tobias, a man of great dignitie, and not as that wicked Simon had misinformed: the summe whereof in all was foure hundred talents of siluer, and two hundred of gold, 12 And that it was altogether impossible that such wrong should be done vnto them, that had committed it to the holinesse of the place, and to the maiestie and inuiclable sanctitie of the Temple, honoured ouer all the world.

15 But Heliodorus because of the kings commandement given him, said, That in any wise it must be brought into the kings treasury.

14 So at the day which hee appointed, hee entred in to order this matter, wherefore, there was no small agonie throughout the whole citie.

15 But the Priests prostrating themselues before the Altar in their Priests Vestments, called vnto heauen vpon him that made a Lawe concerning things given to bee kept, that they should safely bee preserved for such as had committed them to be kept

Priest in the face, it would have wounded his heart : for his conntenance, and the changing of his colour, declared the inward agonie of his minde:

17 For the man was so compassed with feare, and horror of the body, that it was manifest to them that looked vpon him, what sorrow hee had now in his heart.

t Or. espe-

18 Others ran flocking out of their houses | to the generall Supplication, l Or, to make because the place was like to come into contempt.

19 And the women girt with sackecloth under their breasts, abounded in the streetes; and the virgins that were kept in, ran some to the gates, and some to the walles, and others looked out of the windowes:

20 And all holding their handes towards heauen, made supplication.

21 Then it would have pitied a man to see the falling downe of the multitude of all sorts, and the t feare of the hie Priest, being in such an agony.

22 They then called vpon the Almightie Lord, to keepe the things committed of trust, safe and sure, for those that had committed them.

23 Neuerthelesse Heliodorus executed that which was decreed.

24 Now as hee was there present himselfe with his guard about the trea-surie, the || Lord of spirite, & the Prince of all power caused a great apparition, so that all that presumed to come in with him, were astonished at the power of God, and fainted, and were sore afraid.

25 For there appeared vnto them a horse, with a terrible rider vpon him, and adorned with a very faire couering, and he ranne fiercely, and smote at Heliodorus with his forefeet, and it seemed that hee that sate vpon the horse, had complete harnesse of golde.

26 Moreouer two other yong men appeared before him, notable in strength, excellent in beautie, and comely in apparell, who stood by him on either side, and scourged him continually, and gaue him many sore stripes.

27 And Heliodorus fell suddeuly vnto the ground, and was compassed with great darkenesse : but they that were with him, tooke him vp, and put him nto a litter.

28 Thus him that lately came with 16 Then whose had looked the hiel a great traine, and with all his guard into the said treasury, they caried out, being vnable to helpe himselfe with his weapons : and manifestly they acknowledged the power of God.

29 For hee by the hand of God was cast downe, and lay speechlesse without all hope of life.

Chap.iii.

30 But they praised the Lord that had miraculously honoured his owne place ; for the Temple which a little afore was full of feare and trouble, when the Almightie Lord appeared, was filled with ioy and gladnesse.

31 Then straightwayes certaine of Heliodorus friends, prayed Onias that hee would call vpon the most High to graunt him his life, who lay ready to giue vp the ghost.

32 So the high Priest suspecting lest the king should misconceive that some treachery had beene done to Heliodorus by the lewes, offered a sacrifice for the health of the man.

35 Now as the high Priest was making an atonement, the same youg men, in the same clothing, appeared and stood beside Heliodorus, saying, Giue Onias the high Priest great thankes, insomuch as for his sake the Lord hath granted thee life.

S4 And seeing that thou hast beene scourged from heaven, declare vnto all men the mightie power of God : and when they had spoken these wordes, they appeared no more. 35 So Heliodorus after he had offered sacrifice vnto the Lord, and made great vowes voto him that had saued his life, and saluted Onias, returned with his hoste to the king.

36 Then testified hee to all men, the workes of the great God, which he had seene with his eyes.

87 And when the king asked Heliodorus, who might be a fit man to be sent yet once againe to Ierusalem, he said, 38 If thou hast any enemy or traitor, send him thither, and thou shalt receive him well scourged, if he escape with his life : for in that place, no doubt, there is an especiall power of God.

39 For hee that dwelleth in heauen hath his eye on that place, and defendeth it, and hee besteth and destroyeth them that come to hurt it.

40 And the things concerning Heliodorus, and the keeping of the treasurie, fell out on this sort.

Simon alandereth Onias. 7 Isson by corrup-ting the king, obtaineth the office of the his Priest. 24 Menelaus getteth the same from Jason by the like corruption. 34 Andronicus traiterously murdereth Onias. 34 The King being informed thereof, causeth Andronicus to be put to death. 39 The wickednes of Lysimachus, by the instigation of Menelaus.

His Simon now (of who bin a bewrayer of the money, and of his countrey, slandered Onias, as if he had terrified Heliodorus, and bene the worker of these eails.

2 Thus was hee bold to call him a traitour, that had deserved well of the citie, and tendred his owne nation, and was so zealous of the lawes.

3 But when their hatred went so farre, that by one of Simons faction murthers were committed.

4 Onias seeing the danger of this contention, and that Appollonius, as being the gouernour of Coclosyria and Phenice, did rage, and increase Simons malice.

5 He went to the king, not to be an accuser of his countrey men, but seeking the good of all, both publike, & private."

6 For he saw that it was impossible, that the state should continue quiet, and Simon leave his folly, valesse the king did looke thereunto.

7 But after the death of Seleucus, when Antiochus called Epiphanes, tooke the kingdom, Isson the brother of Onias, laboured vuder hand to bee hie Priest.

8 Promising vnto the king by intercession, three hundred and threescoretalents of siluer, and of another reuenew. eightie talents:

9 Besides this, he promised to assigne an hundred and fiftie more, if he might haue licence to set him vp a place for exercise, and for the training vp of youth in the fashions of the heathen, and to write them of Ierusalem [by the name of ] Antiochians.

10 Which when the king had granted, and hee had gotten into his hand the rule, he foorthwith brought his owne nation to the Greekish fashion.

11 And the royal priniledges granted of speciall fauour to the Iewes, by the meanes of Iohn the father of Eupole-mus, who went Embassador to Rome. for amitie and aid, he tooke away, and putting down the gouernments which were according to the law, he brought vp new customes against the law.

12 For he built gladly a place of exercise vnder the towre it selfe, and brought the chiefe yong men vnder his subjection, and made them weare a hat.

13 Now such was the height of Greek fashions, and increase of heathenish ma ners, through the exceeding profanenes of Isson that vngodly wretch, and no high priest :

14 That the priests had no courage to serue any more at the altar, but despising the Temple, and neglecting the sacrifices, hastened to be partakers of the vnlawfull allowance in the place of exercise, after the game of || Discus cal- 10, the led them forth.

15 Not setting by the honours of their as stone with an hole in fathers, but liking the glory of the Gre-the midst. cians best of all.

16 By reason whereof sore calamity came vpon them; for they had them to be their enemies and avengers, whose custome they followed so carnestly, and vnto whom they desired to be like in all

17 For it is not a light thing to doe wickedly against the lawes of God, but the time following shall declare these

18 Now when the game that was vsed euery fift yere was kept at Tyrus, the king being present, 19 This vngracious Iason sent † spe-icall messengers from Ierusalem, who ous embassa were Antiochians, to carie three hundred drachmes of siluer to the sacrifice of Hercules, which even the bearers therof thought fit not to bestow vpon the sacrifice, because it was not convenient. but to be reserved for other charges.

20 This money then in regard of the sender, was appointed to Hercules sacrifice, but because of the bearers thereof, it was imployed to the making of gallies.

21 Now when Apollonius the sonne of Manastheus was sent vnto Egypt, for the || coronation of king Ptolomeus | Or, inthre-Philometor, Antiochus vnderstanding him not to bee well affected to his af faires, prouided for his owne safetie : whereupon he came to Ioppe, & from thence to Ierusalem.

22 Where he was honourably receibrought in with torchlight, and with great shoutings : and so afterward went with his hoste vnto Phenice.

23 Three yeere afterward, Iason sent Menelaus the foresaid Simons brother, to beare the money vnto the king, and to put him in minde of certaine necessary matters.

24 But he being brought to the presence of the king, when he had magnified him, for the glorious appearance of his power, got the priesthood to himselfe, offering more then I ason by three hundred talents of silver.

25 So he came with the kings Mandate, bringing nothing worthy the high priesthood, but having the fury of a cruell Tyrant, and the rage of a sauage beast.

26 Then Iason, who had vndermined his owne brother, being vndermined by another, was copelled to flee into the countrey of the Ammonites.

27 So Menelaus got the principalitie: but as for the money that he had promised vnto the king, hee tooke no good order for it, albeit Sostratus the ruler of the castle required it.

28 For vnto him appertained the gathering of the customes. Wherefore they were both called before the king.

29 Now Menelaus left his brother Lysimachus in his stead in the priesthood, and Sostratus left Crates, who was gouernour of the Cyprians.

30 While those things were in doing, they of Tharsus and Mallos made insurrection, because they were given to the kings concubine called Antiochis.

31 Then came the king in all haste to appease matters, leaving Andronicus a man in authority, for his deputy.

32 Now Menelaus supposing that he had gotten a convenient time, stole certaine vessels of gold, out of the temple, and gaue some of them to Andronicus, and some he sold into Tyrus, and the cities round about.

33 Which when Onias knew of a surety, he reprooued him, and with drew himselfe into a Sanctuarie at Daphne, that lieth by Antiochia.

84 Wherefore Menelaus, taking Andronicus apart, prayed him to get Onias into his hands, who being perswaded thereunto, and comming to O nias in deceit, gaue him his right hand with othes, and though hee were suslued of Isson, and of the citie, and was | pected (by him) yet perswaded he him to come forth of the Sanctuarie : whom forthwith he shut vp without regard of > 35 For the which cause not onely the Iewes, but many also of other nations tooke great indignation, and were much grieued for the vniust murder of the man.

> 36 And when the king was come againe from the places about Cilicia, the Iewes that were in the citie, and certaine of the Greekes, that abhorred the fact also complained because Onias was slaine without cause.

S7 Therefore Antiochus was heartily sorry, and mooued to pity, and wept, because of the sober and modest behaujour of him that was dead.

38 And being kindled with anger, forthwith he tooke away Andronicus his purple, and rent off his clothes, and leading him through the whole city vnto that very place, where he had committed impictie against Onias, there slew he the cursed murtherer. Thus the Lord rewarded him his punishment, as he had deserued.

39 Now when many sacriledges had beene committed in the citie by Lysima. chus, with the consent of Menelaus, and the bruit therof was spread abroad. the multitude gathered themselves to gether against Lysimachus, many vessels of gold being already caried away.

40 Whereupon the common people rising, and being filled with rage, Lysimachus armed about three thousand men, and beganne first to offer violence on || Auranus, being the leader, a man 10, Ty. farre gone in yeeres, & no lesse in folly.

41 They then seeing the attempt of Lysimachus, some of them caught stones, some clubs, others taking handfuls of dust, that was next at hand, cast them all together vpon Lysimachus, and those that set vpon them.

42 Thus many of them they wounded, & some they stroke to the ground, and all [of them] they forced to flee : but as for the Churchrobber himselfe, him they killed besides the treasury.

43 Of these matters therefore there was an accusation laide against Menc-

44 Now when the king came to Tyrus, three men that were sent from the Senate, pleaded the cause before him:

45 But

45 But Menelaus being now conuicted, promised Ptolomee the sonne of Dorymenea, to giue him much mo-ney, if hee would pacifie the King towards him.

46 Whereupon Ptolomee taking the king aside into a certaine gallerie, as it were to take the aire, brought him to be of another minde:

47 Insomuch that hee discharged Menelaus from the accusations, who notwithstanding was cause of all the mischiefe : and those poore men, who if they had told their cause, yea, before the Scythians, should have bene judged innocent, them he condemned to death.

48 Thus they that followed the matter for the citie, and for the people, and for the holy vessels, did soone suffer vniust punishment.

49 Wherefore even they of Tyrus mooued with hatred of that wicked deed, caused them to bee honourably buried.

50 And so through the couetousnesse of them that were in power, Menelaus remained still in authority, increasing in malice, and being a great traitour to the Bout the same time Antiochus prepared his second voyage into Egypt :

2 And then it happened, that through all the citie, for the space almost of fourtie dayes, there were seene horsemen running in the aire, in cloth of golde, and armed with lances, like a band of souldiers,

8 And troupes of horsemen in aray, incountring, and running one against another with shaking of shieldes, and 1 07, stones. multitude of || pikes, and drawing of swords, and casting of darts, and glittering of golden ornaments, and harnesse of all sorts.

4 Wherefore enery man praied that that apparition might turne to good.

5 Now when there was gone forth a false rumour, as though Antiochus had bene dead, I ason tooke at the least a thousand men, and suddenly made an assault vpon the citie, and they that were voon the walles, being put backe, and the citie at length taken, Menclaus fled into the castle :

6 But Iason slew his owne citisens without mercy, (not considering that to get the day of them of his owne nation, would be a most vnhappy day for him : but thinking they had bene his enemies, and not his countrey men whom he conquered.)

7 Howbeit, for all this hee obtained not the principalitie, but at the last receiued shame for the reward of his treason, and fled againe into the countrey of the Ammonites.

8 In the end therefore hee had an vnhappy returne, being accused before Aretas the king of the Arabians, fleeing from city to city, pursued of all men hated as a forsaker of the Lawes, and being had in abomination, as an open ||enemie of his countrey, and countrey-10r. execumen, he was cast out into Egypt.

9 Thus hee that had driven many out of their countrey, perished in a strange land, retiring to the Lacedemonians, and thinking there to finde succour by reason of his kindred.

10 And hee that had cast out many vnburied, had none to mourne for him, nor any solemne funerals at all, nor sepulchre with his fathers.

11 Now when this that was done came to the kings eare, he thought that Indea had renolted, whereupon remouing out of Egypt in a furious minde, he tooke the citie by force of armes.

12 And commaunded his men of warre not to spare such as they met, and to slay such as went vp vpon the houses.

18 Thus there was killing of youg and old, making away of men, women and children, slaying of virgins and

14 And there were destroyed within the space of three whole daies, fourescore thousand, whereof fourty thousand were slaine in the conflict; and no fewer sold, then slaine.

18 For had they not beene formerly wrapped in many sinnes, this man as soone as hee had come, had foorthwith beene scourged, and put backe from his presumption, as Heliodorus was, whom Seleucus the king sent to view the treasurie.

19 Neuerthelesse God did not choose the people for the places sake, but the place for the peoples sake,

20 And therefore the place it selfe that was partaker with them of the adversities that happened to the nation, did afterward communicate in the benefits sent from the Lord; and as it was forsaken in the wrath of the Almighty, so againe the great Lord being reconciled, it was set up with all glory.

21 So when Antiochus had caried out of the Temple, a thousand and eight hundred talents, hee departed in all haste into Antiochia, weening in his pride to make the land nauigable, and the Sea passable by foot : such was the haughtinesse of his minde.

22 And he left governours to vexe the nation : at Ierusalem Philip, for his countrey a Phrygian, and for manners more barbarous then hee that set 23 And at Garixim, Andronicus; and besides, Menelaus, who worse then all the rest, bare an heavie hand over the citizens, having a malicious minde against his countreymen the Iewes.

24 He sent also that detestable ringleader Apollonius, with an armie of two and twentie thousand, commaunding him to slay all those that were in their best age, and to sell the women and the yonger sort:

25 Who comming to Ierusalem, and pretending peace, did forbeare till the holy day of the Sabbath, when taking the Iewes keeping holy day, hee com-

The Iewes are compelled to leane the Law of God. 4 The Temple is defiled. 8 Crueltie vpon the people and the women. 12 An exhortation to heare affliction, by the example of the valiant courage of Eleazarus, cruelly tortured.

OT long after this, the king sent an olde man of Athens, to compell the Latine interpreters the lawes of their fathers, and not to live after the Lawes of God: 2 And to pollute also the Temple in Ierusalem, and to call it the Temple of Iupiter Olympius: and that in Garizim, of Iupiter the defender of strangers, as they || did desire that dwelt in 1 Out of Io the place.

3 The comming in of this mischiefe was sore and grieuous to the people: 4 For the Temple was filled with riot and reuelling, by the Gentiles, who dallied with harlots, and had to doe with women within the circuit of the holy places, and besides that, brought in things that were not lawfull.

5 The Altar also was filled with profane things, which the Law forbid-

7 And in the day of the kings birth, euery moneth they were brought by bitter constraint to eate of the sacrifices and when the Feast of Bacchus was kept, the Iewes were compelled to goo in procession to Bacchus, carying Iuie.

8 Moreover there went out a decree to the neighbour cities of the theathen, t Gr. Oneby the suggestion of Ptolomee, against the Iewes, that they should observe the same fashions, and be partakers of their sacrifices.

9 And whose would not conforme themselues to the maners of the Gentiles, should be put to death : then might a man hane seene the present misery.

12 Now I beseech those that reade this booke, that they be not discouraged for these calamities, but that they judge those punishments not to be for destruction, but for a chastening of our nation.

13 For it is a token of his great goodnesse, when wicked doers are not suffered any long time, but forthwith punithed.

14 For not as with other nations whom the Lord patiently forbeareth to punish, till they be come to the fulnesse of their sinnes, so dealeth he with vs,

15 Lest that being come to the height of sinne, afterwards hee should take vengeance of val

16 And therfore he neuer withdraweth his mercie from vs : and though he punish with aduersitie, yet doeth he neuer forsake his people.

17 But let this that we have spoken be for a warning vnto vs : And nowe will wee come to the declaring of the matter in few words.

18 Eleazar one of the principall Scribes, an aged man, and of a well fauoured countenance, was constrained to open his mouth, and to cate swines flesh.

19 But he chusing rather to die gloriously, then to live stained with such an abomination, spit it forth, and came of his owne accord to the torment.

20 As it behoued them to come, that are resolute to stand out against such things, as are not lawfull for loue of life to be tasted.

21 But they that had the charge of that wicked feast, for the olde acquaintance they had with the man, taking him aside, besought him to bring flesh of his owne prouision, such as was lawfull for him to vse, and make as if he did eate of the flesh, taken from the sacrifice commanded by the king,

22 That in so doing hee might bee deliuered from death, and for the olde

23 But he began to consider discreetly, and as became his age, and the excellencie of his ancient yeeres, and the honour of his gray head, whereunto hee was come, and his most honest education from a child, or rather the holy lawe made, and given by God : therefore hee answered accordingly, and willed them atraightwaies to send him to the graue.

24 For it becommeth not our age, said he, in any wise to dissemble, whereby many yong persons might thinke. that Eleazar being fourescore yeres old and ten, were now gone to a strange religion.

25 And so they through mine hypocrisie, and desire to live a litle time, and a moment longer, should bee deceived by me, and I get a staine to mine olde age, and make it abominable.

26 For though for the present time I should be delivered from the punish ment of men : yet should I not escape the hand of the Almightie, neither alive nor dead.

27 Wherefore now manfully changing this life, I will shew my selfe such an one, as mine age requireth, 28 And leave a notable example to such as bee yong, to die willingly, and couragiously, for the honourable and holy lawes : and when he had said these words, immediatly he went to the torment.

29 They that led him, changing the good will they bare him a litle before, into hatred, because the foresaid speaches proceeded as they thought, from a || desperate minde.

30 But when hee was readie to die with stripes, he groned, and said, It is manifest vnto the Lord, that hath the holy knowledge, that wheras I might haue bin deliuered from death, I [now] endure sore paines in body, by being beaten : but in soule am well content to suffer these things, because I feare him.

31 And thus this man died, leaving his death for an example of a noble courage, and a memoriall of vertue not only vnto yong men, but vnto all his nation.

seven brethren with their mother were taken, and compelled by the king against the lawe to taste swines flesh, and were tormented with scourges, and whips; 2 But one of them that spake first said thus: What wouldest thou aske, or learne of vs? we are ready to die, rather then to transgresse the lawes of our fathers.

3 Then the king being in a rage, commanded pannes, and caldrons to be made whot.

4 Which forthwith being heated, he commanded to cut out the tongue of him that spake first, and to cut off the vtmost parts of his body, the rest of his brethren, and his mother looking on.

5 Now when he was thus maimed in all his members, he commanded him being yet aliue, to be brought to the fire, and to be fried in the panne : and as the vapour of the panne was for a good space dispersed, they exhorted one another, with the mother, to die manfully, saying thus:

6 The Lord God looketh vpou vs. and in trueth hath comfort in vs, as * Moises in his song, which witnessed to their faces declared, saying, And he shall be comforted in his seruants.

7 So when the first was dead, after this maner, they brought the second to make him a mocking stocke : and when they had pulled off the skin of his head with the haire, they asked him, Wilt thou eate before thou bee punished throughout every member of thy body?

8 But hee answered in his owne language, and said, No. Wherefore hee also received the next torment in order. as the former did.

9 And when hee was at the last gaspe, hee said, Thou like a fury takest vs out of this present life, but the king of the world shall raise vs vp, who have died for his lawes, vnto euerlasting life.

10 After him was the third made a mocking stocke, and when he was required, he put out his tongue, and that right soone, holding forth his hands manfully, 11 And said couragiously, These had from heaucn, and for his lawes I despise them, and from him I hope to receive them againe.

T came to passe also that | they that were with him marueiled at the yong mans courage, for that he nothing regarded the paines.

18 Now when this man was dead also, they tormented and mangled the fourth in like maner.

14 So when he was ready to die, he said thus, It is good, being put to death by men, to looke for hope from God to be raised vp againe by him : as for thee thou shalt have no resurrection to life.

15 Afterward they brought the fift also, and mangled him.

16 Then looked hee vnto the king and said. Thou hast power ouer men. thou art corruptible, thou doest what thou wilt, yet thinke not that our nation is forsaken of God.

17 But abide a while, and behold his great power, how he will torment thee. and thy seed.

18 After him also they brought the sixt, who being ready to die, said, Be not deceived without cause : for we suffer these things for our selues, having sinned against our God. Therefore marueilous things are done (vnto vs.)

19 But thinke not thou that takest in hand to strive against God, that thou shalt escape vnpunished.

20 But the mother was marueilous aboue all, and worthy of honorable memorie : for when shee sawe her scuen sonnes slaine within the space of one day, she bare it with a good courage, because of the hope that she had in y Lord

21 Yea she exhorted every one of them in her owne language, filled with couragious spirits, and stirring up her womanish thoughts, with a manly stomacke, she said vnto them,

22 I cannot tell how you came into my wombe : for I neither gaue you breath, nor life, neither was it I that formed the mebers of enery one of you.

23 But doubtlesse the Creator of the world, who formed the generation of man, and found out the beginning of all things, wil also of his owne mercy give you breath, and life againe, as you now regard not your owne selues for his Lawes sake.

24 Now Antiochus thinking himselfe despised, and suspecting it to be a reprochfull speach, whiles the yongest was yet aliue, did not onely exhort him by wordes, but also assured him with oathes, that he would make him both a 12 Insomuch that the king, and rich, and a happy man, if hee would turne from the Lawes of his fathers, and that also he would take him for his friend, and trust him with affaires.

25 But when the yong man would in no case hearken vnto him, the king called his mother, and exhorted her, that she would counsell the yong man to saue his life.

26 And when hee had exhorted her with many words, she promised him that she would counsell her sonne.

27 But shee bowing her selfe towards him, laughing the cruell tyrant to scorne, spake in her countrey language on this maner; O my sonne, haue pitie vpon mee that bare thee nine moneths in my wombe, and gaue thee sucke three yeeres, and nourished thee, and brought thee vp vnto this age, and endured the troubles of education.

28 I beseech thee, my sonne, looke pon the heauen, and the earth, and all that is therein, and consider that God made them of things that were not, and so was mankinde made likewise;

29 Feare not this tormentour, but being worthy of thy brethren, take thy death, that I may receive thee againe in mercy, with thy brethren.

30 Whiles she was yet speaking these words, the yong man said, Whom wait ye for? I will not obey the kings commandement : but I will obey the commandement of the Law that was giuen vnto our fathers, by Moses.

31 And thou that hast bene the authour of all mischiefe against the Hebrewes, shalt not escape the handes of God.

82 For wee suffer because of our sinnes.

33 And though the living Lord bee angrie with vs a little while for our chastening and correction, yet shall hee be at one againe, with his seruants.

34 But thou, O godlesse man, and of all other most wicked, be not lifted vp without a cause, nor puffed vp with vncertaine hopes, lifting vp thy hand against the servants of God:

35 For thou hast not yet escaped the judgement of Almightie God, who seeth all things.

36 For our brethren who now haue suffered a short paine, are dead under Gods Couenant of enerlasting life : but thou through the judgement of God, shalt receive just punishment for thy pride.

S7 But I, as my brethren, offer vo my body, and life for the Lawes of our fathers, beseeching God that he would speedily bee mercifull vnto our nation. and that thou by torments & plagues mayest confesse, that he alone is God:

7 But specially tooke he advantage of the night, for such privie attempts, insomuch that the bruite of his manlinesse was spread euery where.

8 So when Philip sawe that this man encreased by little and little, & that things prospered with him still more and more, hee wrote vnto Ptolemeus, the governour of Coelosyria & l'henice, to yeeld more aide to the kings affaires.

9 Then forthwith choosing Nicanor the son of Patroclus, one of his speciall friends, he sent him with no fewer then twentie thousand of all nations vnder him, to root out the whole generation of the Iewes; and with him he ioyned also Gorgias a captaine, who in matters of warre had great experience.

10 So Nicanor vndertooke to make so much money of the captine Iewes, as should defray the tribute of two thousand talents, which the king was to pay to the Romanes. 11 Wherefore immediatly he sent to the cities upon the sea coast, proclaiming a sale of the captine Iewes, and promising that they should have fourescore and ten bodies for one talent, not expecting the vengeance that was to follow vpon him from the Almighty God. 12 Now when word was brought vnto Iudas of Nicanors coming, and he had imparted vnto those that were with him, that the army was at hand, 13 They that were fearefull, and distrusted the justice of God, fled, and conueved themselves away.

14 Others sold all that they had left. and withall besought the Lord to deliuer them, being solde by the wicked Nicanor before they met together:

15 And if not for their owne sakes, yet for y couenants he had made with their fathers, and for his holy and glorious Names sake, by which they were called

16 So Maccabeus called his men together vnto the number of sixe thousand, and exhorted them not to be stricken with terrour of the enemie, nor to feare the great multitude of the heathen who came wrongfully against them, but to fight manfully,

17 And to set before their eyes, the iniury that they had vniustly done to the holy place, and the cruell handling of the city, whereof they made a mockery, and also the taking away of the gouernment of their forefathers:

18 Forthey, said he, trust in their weapons and boldnesse, but our confidence is in the Almightie God, who at a becke can cast downe both them that come against vs, and also all the world.

19 Moreouer, hee recounted vnto them what helps their forefathers had found, and how they were delinered, when under Sennacherib an hundred fourescore and fine thousand perished.

20 And he told them of v battel that they had in Babylon with the Galatians, how they came but eight thousand in all to v busines, with foure thousand Macedonians, and that the Macedonians being perplexed, the eight thousand destroyed an hundred and twenty thousand, because of the helpe that they had from heaven, & so received a great booty.

21 Thus when liee had made them bold with these words, and ready to die for the Lawes, and the countrey, he diuided his army into foure parts:

22 And joyned with himselfe his owne brethren, leaders of each band, to wit, Simon, and Ioseph, & Ionathan, giuing each one fifteene hundred men.

23 Also (hee appointed) Eleazar to reade the holy booke : and when he had giuen them this watchword, The help of God; himselfe leading the first band, he loyned battell with Nicanor:

24 And by the helpe of the Almightie, they slew aboue nine thousand of their enemies, and wounded and maimed the most part of Nicanors hoste, and so put all to flight:

25 And tooke their money that came to buy them, and pursued them farre: but lacking time, they returned.

S4 As for that most vngracious Nicanor, who had brought a thousand merchants to buy the lewes, 85 He was through the helpe of the Lord brought downe by them, of who he made least account, & putting off his glorious apparell, and discharging his company, he came like a fugitive servant through the mid land vnto Antioch, hauing very great dishonour for that his hoste was destroyed.

36 Thus he that tooke voon him to make good to the Romanes, their tribute by meanes of the captines in Ierusalem, told abroad, that the Iewes had God to fight for them, and therfore they could not be hurt, because they followed the lawes that he gaue them.

Antiochus is chased from Persepolis. 5 Heeis striken with a sore disease, 16 and promiseth to become a Iew. 28 He dieth miserably.

Bout that time came Antiochus with || dishonor out of the countrey of Persia.

2 For he had entred the citie called Persepolis, and went about to rob the Temple, and to hold the citie, whereupon the multitude running to defend theselves with their weapons, put them to flight, & so it happened y Antiochus being put to flight of the inhabitants, returned with shame.

S Now when he came to Echatana, newes was brought him what had happened vnto Nicanor & Timotheus. 4 Then swelling with anger, hee

30 Moreover of those that were with | thought to avenge vpon the Iewes the disgrace done vnto him by those that made him flie. Therfore commanded he his chariot man to drive without cessing, and to dispatch the iourney, the indgement of God now following him. For he had spoken prondly in this sort, y he would come to Ierusalem, & make it a common burying place of y Iewes. 5 But the Lord almightie, the God of Israel smote him with an incurable and inuisible plague : for assoone as hee had spoken these words, a paine of the bowels that was remediles, came vpon him, & sore torments of the inner parts.

6 And that most justly : for hee had tormented other mens bowels with many and strange torments.

7 Howbeit hee nothing at all ceased from his bragging, but still was filled with pride, breathing out fire in his rage against the Iewes, and commanding to haste the journey : but it came to passe that he fel downe fro his chariot, caried violently, so that having a sore fal, al the mebers of his body were much pained.

8 And thus hee that a little afore thought he might command the waves of the sea (so proud was hee beyond the condition of man) and weigh the high mountaines in a ballance, was now cast on the ground, and carried in an horselitter, shewing foorth voto all, the manifest power of God.

9 So that the wormes rose vp out of the body of this wicked man, and whiles hee lived in sorrow and paine, his flesh fell away, and the filthinesse of his smell was noysome to all his army.

10 And the man that thought a little afore he could reach to the starres of heaven, no man could endure to carry for his intollerable stinke.

11 Here therefore being plagued, hee began to leave off his great pride, and to come to the knowledge of himselfe by the scourge of God, his paine encreasing euery moment.

12 And when hee himselfe could not abide his owne smell, hee saide these wordes: It is meete to bee subject vnto God, and that a man that is mortall, should not proudly thinke of himselfe. as if he were God.

18 This wicked person vowed also vnto the Lord, (who now no more would haue mercy voon him) saying thus:

14 That the holy citie (to the which hee was going in haste to lay it euen Apocrypha.

with the ground, & to make it a common burying place) he would set at liberty.

15 And as touching the Iewes. whom hee had judged not worthy so much as to be buried, but to be cast out with their children to be deuoured of the foules, and wild beasts, he would make them al equals to y citizens of || Athens, 16 And the holy Temple, which before he had spoiled, hee would garnish with goodly gifts, and restore all the holy vessels with many more, and out of his owne reuenew defray the charges belonging to the sacrifices:

17 Yes, and that also hee would become a lew himselfe, and goe through all the world that was inhabited, and declare the power of God.

18 But for all this his paines would not cease : for the just judgement of God was come vpô him: therfore despairing of his health, he wrote vnto the lewes the letter vnderwritten, containing the forme of a supplicatio, after this maner.

19 Antiochus king and gouernour, to the good Iewes his Citisens, wisheth much ioy, health, and prosperity.

20 If ye, and your children fare well, and your affaires be to your contentment, I give very great thankes to God, having my hope in heaven.

21 As for mee I was weake, or else I would have remembred kindly your honour, and good will. Returning out of Persia, and being taken with a grienous disease, I thought it necessary to care for the common safety of all:

10 Now will wee declare the acts of Autiochus Eupator, who was the sonne of this wicked man, gathering briefly the calamities of the warres.

II So when he was come to y crowne. he set one Lysias ouer the affaires of his Realme, and [appointed him] chiefe go-uernour of Coelosyria and Phenice.

12 For Ptolomeus that was called Macron, chosing rather to doe justice vnto the lewes, for the wrong that had bene done vnto them, endeuoured to continue peace with them.

13 Whereupon being accused of [the kings] friends, before Eupator, & called traitor at every word, because he had left Cyprus that Philometor had comitted vnto him, & departed to Antiochus Epiphanes; || and seeing that hee was in no substruction honorable place, he was so discouraged, that he poysuned himselfe and died.

14 But when Gorgias was gouer-1 Or, strong nour of the | holds, hee hired souldiers, and nourished warre continually with the lewes

> 15 And therewithali the Idumeans hauing gotten into their handes the most commodious holdes, kept the Iewes occupied, and receiving those that were banished from Ierusalem, they went about to nourish warre.

16 Then they that were wich Maccabeus made supplication, & besought God, that he would be their helper, and so they ranne with violence vpon the strong holds of the Idumeans, 17 And assaulting them strongly, they wanne the holds, and kept off all that fought vpon the wall, and slew all that fell into their hands, and killed no fewer then twentie thousand.

18 And because certaine (who were no lesse then nine thousand) were fled together into two very strong castles, having all maner of things convenient to sustaine the siege.

19 Maccabeus lest Simon, & Ioseph, and Zaccheus also, and them that were with him, who were enow to besiege them, and departed himselfe vnto those places, which more needed bis helpe.

10r, Simon. 20 Now || they that were with Simon, being led with couctousnes, were perswaded for money (through certaine of those that were in the castle) and let some of them escape.

21 But when it was told Maccabeus what was done, hee called the gouernours of the people together, and accused those men, that they had sold their brethren for money, & set their enemies free to fight against them.

22 So he slew those that were found traitors, and immediatly tooke the two castles.

23 And having good successe with his weapons in all things hee tooke in hand, hee slew in the two holdes, more then twentie thousand.

24 Now Timotheus whom the Iewes had ouercome before, when he had gathered a great multitude of forraine forces, and horses out of Asia not a few, came as though hee would take lewrie by force of armes.

25 But when hee drew neere, || they | 10r. Macthat were with Maccabeus, turned they that themselves to pray vnto God, and torre with him. sprinckled earth vpon their heads, and girded their loynes with sackcloth,

26 And fell downe at the foot of the Altar, and besought him to be mercifull to them, and to be an * enemie to their e- Deut. 28. nemies, and an adversarie to their aduersaries, as the Law declareth.

27 So after the prayer, they tooke their weapons, & went on further from the city; and when they drew neere to their enemies, they kept by themselves.

28 Now the Sunne being newly risen, they ioyned both together; the one part having, together with their vertue, their refuge also vnto the Lord, for a | pledge of their successe and victorie; 1 07, merthe other side making their rage leader randorsus. of their battell.

29 But when the battaile waxed strong, there appeared vnto the enemies from heauen, fiue comely men vpon horses, with bridles of golde, and two of them ledde the Iewes, 30 And tooke Maccabeus betwixt them, and couered him on every side with their weapons, and kept him safe, but shot arrowes & lightenings against the enemies : so that being confounded with blindnesse, and full of trouble, they were killed.

31 And there were slaine [of footemen] twentie thousand and fine hundred, and sixe hundred horsemen.

32 As for Timotheus himselfe, hee fled into a very strong holde, called GaApocrypha.

zara, where Chereas was gonernour. 33 But they that were with Maccabens, laid siege against the fortresse couragiously foure daves.

34 And they y were within, trusting to the strength of the place, hlasphemed exceedingly, & vttered wicked words.

35 Neuerthelesse, vpon the fifth day early, twentie yong men of Maccabeus company, inflamed with anger because of the blasphemies, assaulted the wall manly, and with a fierce courage killed all that they met withall.

36 Others likewise ascending after them, whiles they were basied with them that were within, burnt the towres, and kindling fires, burnt the blasphemers aliue, and others broke open the gates, and having received in the rest of the army, tooke the city, 37 And killed Timotheus that was hidde in a certaine pit, and Chereas his brother, with Apollophanes.

38 When this was done, they praised the Lord with Psalmes and thankesgiuing, who had done so great things for Israel, and given them the victory.

CHAP. XI.

Lysias thinking to get Ierusalem, 8 Is put to flight. 16 The letters of Lysias to the Iewes; 22 Of the king vnto Lysias; 27 and to the Iewes: 34 Of the Romanes to the Iewes.

Ot long after this, Lysias the kings + protectour & consin, who also managed the affaires, tooke sore displeasure for the things that were done.

2 And when he had gathered about fourescore thousand, with all the horsemen, he came against the Iewes, thinking to make the citie an habitation of or, Green the || Gentiles.

3 And to make a gaine of the Temple, as of the other Chappels of the heathen, and to set the high Priesthood to sale euery yeere:

4 Not at all considering the power of God, but puffed vp with his ten thousand footmen, and his thousand horsemen, and his fourescore Elephants.

5 So he came to Iudea, & drew neere to Bethsura, which was a strong town, hut distant from Ierusalem about five furlongs, and he laid sore siege vnto it.

6 Now when | they that were with Maccabeus heard that he besieged the holdes, they and all the people with lamentation and teares besought the Lord, that he would send a good Angel to deliuer Israel.

Apocrypha

Chap.xj.

7 Then Maccabeus himselfe first of all tooke weapons, exhorting the other, that they would icopard themselues together with him, to helpe their brethren : so they went forth together with a willing minde.

8 And as they were at Ierusalem, there appeared before them on horsebacke, one in white clothing, shaking his armour of gold.

9 Then they praised the mercifull God altogether, and tooke heart, iusomuch that they were ready not onely to fight with men, but with most cruell beasts, & to pierce through wals of yron.

10 Thus they marched forward in their armour, hauing an helper from beauen : for the Lord was mercifull vnto them.

11 And giuing a charge vpô their enemies like lions, they slew eleuen thoueand footmen, & sixteene hundred horsemen, and put all the other to flight.

12 Many of them also being wounded, escaped naked, and Lysias himselfe fled away shamefully, and so escaped.

13 Who as hee was a man of vnder. standing, casting with himselfe what osse he had had, and considering that the Hebrewes could not be ouercome. because the Almighty God helped them. he sent voto them.

14 And perswaded them to agree to all reasonable conditions, & [promised] that hee would perswade the king, that he must needs be a friend vnto them.

15 Then Maccabeus consented to all that Lysias desired, being carefull of the common good; and whatsoeuer Maccabeus wrote vnto Lysias concerning the Iewes, the king granted it.

16 For there were letters written ento the Iewes from Lysias, to this effect : Lysias vnto the people of the Iewes, sendeth greeting.

17 John and Absalon, who were sent from you, deliuered me the petition subscribed, and made request for the performance of the contents thereof.

18 Therefore what things soeuer were meet to be reported to the king, I haue declared them, and he hath granted as much as might be.

19 If then you wil keepe your selues loyall to the state, hereafter also will I endenour to be a meanes of your good.

20 But of the particulars I have giluen order, both to these, & the other that | judged to be referred to the king : after came from me, to commune with you. 21 Fare ye wel. The hundred & eight. and fortie yeere, the foure and twentie day of the moneth Dioscorinthius.

22 Now the kings letter conteined these words, King Antiochus vnto his brother Lysias sendeth greeting.

23 Since our father is translated vnto y gods, our will is, that they that are in our realine liue quietly, that every one may attend vpon his own affaires. 24 Wee vnderstand also that the Iewes would not consent to our father for to bee brought vnto the custome of the Gentiles, but had rather keepe their owne manner of living : for the which cause they require of vs that we should suffer the to liue after their own lawes.

25 Wherefore our mind is, that this nation shall be in rest, and we have determined to restore them their Temple, that they may live according to the customes of their forefathers.

26 Thou shalt doe well therefore to send vnto them, and || grant them peace. that whe they are certified of our mind, they may be of good comfort, & euer goe cheerefully about their owne affaires.

27 And the letter of $\forall king vnto the nation of the lewes was after this maner : king Antiochus sendeth greeting vnto the counsel, & the rest of the Iewes

28 If ye fare well, we have our desire, we are also in good health.
29 Menelaus declared vnto vs, that your desire was to returne home, and to follow your owne businesse.

30 Wherefore they that will depart shall have safe conduct, till the thirtieth day of Xanthicus with securitie,

I And the Iewes shal vse their owne kind of meats, and lawes, as before, and none of them any maner of wayes shal be molested for things ignorantly done.

32 I haue sent also Menelaus, that he may comfort you.

SS Fare ye wel. In the hundred, forty and eight yeare, and the fifteenth day of 10r, April. the moneth || Xanthicus.

34 The Romanes also sent vnto them a letter containing these wordes: Quintus Memmius, & Titus Manii-10r, consuls us ||embassadours of y Romanes, send greeting vnto the people of the Iewes. 35 Whatsoeuer Lysias the kings cousin hath granted, therewith we also are well pleased.

36 But touching such things as hee you have aduised therof, send one forthwith, that we may declare as it is conuenient for you : for we are now going to Antioch.

37 Therefore send some with speed, that we may know what is your mind. 38 Farewell, this hundred and eight and fortie yeere, the fifteenth day of the moneth Xanthicus.

CHAP. XII.

The Kingalieutenants vex ethe lewes, 3 They of loppe drowne two hundred lewes. 6 Iudas is amenged vpon them. 11 Hee maketh peace with the Arabians, 16 and taketh Caspis. 22 Timotheus armies ouerthrowen.

Hen these Couenants were made, Lysias went vnto the king, and the Iewes were about their husbandrie.

2 But of the gouernours of seueral places, Timotheus, and Apollonius the sonne of Genneus, also Hieronymus, and Demophon, and besides them Nicanor y gouernor of Cyprus would not suffer them to be quiet, and live in peace.

8 The men of loppe also did such an vagodly deed: they prayed the Iewes that dwelt among them, to goe with their wiues, and children into the boats which they had prepared, as though they had meant them no hurt.

4 Who accepted of it according to the common decree of the citie, as being desirous to live in peace, and suspecting nothing : but when they were gone forth into the deepe, they drowned no lesse then two hundred of them.

5 When Iudas heard of this crueltie done vnto his countrey men, he commanded those that were with him [to make them ready.]

6 And calling vpon God the righteous judge, he came against those murtherers of his brethren, & burnt the hauen by night, and set the boats on fire. and those that fled thither, he slew.

7 And when the towne was shut vp, he went backward, ||as if he would | 0r, with returne to root out all them of the citie reference. of Ioppe.

8 But when he heard that y Iamnites were minded to doe in like maner vnto the lewes y dwelt among them

9 He came vpon the Iamnites also by night, and set fire on the hauen, & the nauy, so that the light of the fire was seene at Ierusalem, two hundred and fortie furlongs off. 10 Now thence nine furlongs in their journey toward Timotheus, no fewer then fine thousand men on foote, & fine hundred horse men of the Arabians, set vpon him.

11 Whereupon there was a very sore battell: but Iudas side by the helpe of God got the victory, so that the Nomades of Arabia being ouercome, besought Iudas for peace, promising both to give him cattell, and to pleasure him

12 Then Iudas thinking indeede that they would be profitable in many things, granted them peace, wherupon they shooke hands, and so they | departed to their tents.

18 Hee went also about to make a bridge to a certaine strong citie, which was fenced about with walles, and inhabited by people of divers countries, and the name of it was Caspis.

14 But they that were within it put such trust in the strength of the walles, and prouision of victuals, that they behaued themselues rudely towards them that were with Iudas, railing, and blaspheming, and vttering such words, as were not to be spoken.

15 Wherefore Iudas with his company, calling vpon the great Lord of the world (who without any rammes, or engines of warre did cast downe Iericho in the time of Iosua) gaue a fierce assault against the walles, 16 And tooke the citie by the will of God, and made vnspeakeable slaughters, insomuch that a lake two furlongs broad, neere adjoining thereunto, being filled ful, was seen running with blood.

17 Then departed they from thence seven hundred and fifty furlongs, and came to Characa vnto the Iewes that are called Tubieni.

18 But as for Timotheus they found him not in the places, for before hee had dispatched any thing, he departed from thence, having left a very strong garrison in a certaine hold :

19 Howbeit, Dositheus, and Sosipater, who were of Maccabeus captaines, went forth, and slew those that Timotheus had left in the fortresse, aboue tenne thousand men.

20 And Maccabeus ranged his armie by bands, & set | them over the bands, and went against Timotheus, who had about him & hundred and twentie

10 Now when they were gone from | |thousand men of foote, and two thousand, and five hundred horsemen.

21 Nowe when Timotheus had knowledge of Iudas comming, he sent the women and children, and the other baggage vnto a fortresse called Carnion (for the towne was hard to besiege and vnessie to come vnto, by reason of the straitnesse of all the places.)

22 But when Iudas his first band came in sight, the enemies (being smitten with fcare, and terrour through the appearing of him that seeth all things) fied amaine, one running this way, another that way, so as that they were often hurt of their owne men, and wounded with y points of their owne swords

23 Iudas also was very earnest in pursuing them, killing those wicked wretches, of whom he slew about thirtie thousand men.

24 Moreouer, Timotheus himselfe fell into the hands of Dositheus, & Sosipater, whom he besought with much craft to let him goe with his life, because hee had many of the Iewes parents, and the brethren of some of them, who, if they put him to death, should not be regarded.

25 So when hee had assured them with many words, that hee would restore them without hurt according to the agreement, they let him goe for the sauing of their brethren.

26 Then Maccabeus marched forth to Carnion, & to the Temple of || Atar-|| i. Fenus. gatis, and there he slew five and twenty thousand persons.

27 And after he had put to flight, and destroyed them, Iudes remooned the hoste towards Ephron, a strong citie. wherin Lysias abode, and a great multitude of divers nations, and the strong yong men kept the wals, and defended them mightily; wherin also was great provision of engines, and darts.

28 But when Iudas and his company had called vpon Almighty God (who with his power breaketh the strength of his enemies) they wanne the citie, and slew twentie and five thonsand of them that were within.

29 From thence they departed to Scythopolis, which lieth sixe hundreth furlongs from Ierusalem.

30 But when the Iewes that dwelt there had testified that the Scythopolitans dealt louingly with them, and entreated them kindely in the time of their aduersitie: 13 They

31 They gave them thankes, desi-| | sum of two thousand drachmes of silring them to be friendly stil vn to them, and so they came to Ierusalem, the feast of the weekes approching.

82 And after the feast called Pentecost, they went foorth against Gorgias the gouernour of Idumes.

33 Who came out w three thousand men of foot, & foure hundred horsemen. 34 And it happened that in their fighting together, a few of the Iewes were slaine.

35 At which time Dositheus one of Bacenors company, who was on horsbacke, and a strong man, was still vpon. Gorgias, and taking hold of his coate, drew him by force, and when he would haue taken that cursed man aliue, a horseman of Thracia comming vpon him, smote off his ||shoulder, so that Gorgias fled vnto Marisa.

36 Now when they that were with mouaer: erstrokehim Gorgias had fought long & were wearie, Iudas called vpon the Lord that he would shew himselfe to be their helper, and leader of the battell.

S7 And with that he beganne in his owne language, & sung Psalmes with a lowd voyce, & rushing vnawares vpon Gorgiss men, he put them to flight. 38 So Iudas gathered his host, and came into the city of Odollam. And when the seuenth day came, they purified themselves (as the custome was) and kept the Sabbath in the same place. 39 And vpon the day following || as the vse had bene, Iudas and his company came to take vp the bodies of them that were slaine, and to bury them with their kinsmen, in their fathers graues. 40 Now under the coats of every one that was slaine, they found things consecrated to the idoles of the lamnites, which is forbidden the lewes by the Law. Then every man saw that this was ý cause wherefore they were slaine.

41 All men therefore praising the Lord the righteous Judge, who had pened the things that were hid,

42 Betooke themselves vnto praier, and besought him that the sinne committed, might wholy bee put out of remembrance. Besides, that noble Iudas exhorted the people to keep themselves from sinne, forsomuch as they saw before their eyes the things that came to passe, for the sinne of those v were slaine. 43 And when he had made a gathering throughout the company, to the uer, hee sent it to Ierusalem to offer a sinne offering, doing therein very well. and honestly, in that he was mindfull of the resurrection.

44 (For if he had not hoped that they that were slaine should have risen againe, it had bin superfluous and vaine, to pray for the dead.)

45 And also in that he perceived that there was great fauour layed vp for those that died godly. (It was an holy, and good thought) wherupon he made a reconciliation for the dead, that they might be deliuered from sinne.

CHAP. XIII.

Eupstor inuadeth Iudes. 16 Iudes by night slayeth many. 18 Eupstors purpose is defea-ted. 23 He maketh peace with Iudas.

N the hundreth forty and ninth yere it was told Iudas that Antiochus Eupator was coming with a great power into Iudea;

2 And with him Lysias his protector, and ruler of his affaires, having either of them a Grecian power of footemen, an hundred and ten thousand, and horsmen fiue thousand, & three hundred, and Elephants two & twenty, and three hundred charets armed w hooks.

3 Menelaus also joyned himself with them, and with great dissimulation encouraged Antiochus, not for the safegard of the countrey, but because hee thought to have bin made governour.

4 But the King of kings mooued Antiochus minde against this wicked wretch, and Lysias enformed the king, that this man was the cause of all mischiefe, so that the king commanded to bring him vnto Berea, and to put him to death, as the maner is in that place.

5 Now there was in that place a towre of fifty cubites high full of ashes, and it had a round instrumet which on euery side hanged down into the ashes.

6 And whosoeuer was condemned of sacriledge, or had committed any other grieuous crime, there did all men thrust him vnto death.

7 Such a death it happened that wicked man to die, not having so much as buriall in the earth, & that most justly.

8 For inasmuch as he had committed many sinnes about the altar whose fire and ashes were holy, hee received his death in ashes.

9 Now v king came with a harbarous! & hautie mind, to do far worse to V Iewes then had beene done in his fathers time.

10 Which things when Iudas percei ued, hee commanded the multitude to call vpon the Lord night & day, that if ever at any other time, he would now also helpe them, being at the point to be put from their Law, from their country, and from the holy Temple :

11 And that hee would not suffer the people, that | had even now been but a little refreshed, to be in subjection to the blasphemous nations.

12 So when they had all done this together, and besought the mercifull Lord with weeping, and fasting, and lying flat vpon the ground three daies long, Iudas having exhorted them, commanded they should be in a readinesse.

IS And Iudas being apart with the Elders, determined before the kings host should enter into Iudea and get the city. to goe foorth and try the matter [in fight] by the helpe of the Lord.

14 So when he had committed [all] to or, Lord the || Creator of the world, & exhorted his souldiers to fight manfully, euen vnto death, for the Lawes, the Temple, the city, the country, and the common-wealth, he camped by Modin.

15 And having given the watchword to them that were about him. Victory is of God: with the most valiant and choice yong men, he went in into the kings tent by night, & slewe in the campe about foure thousand men, and the chiefest of the Elephants, with all that were vpon him.

16 And at last they filled the campe with feare and tumult, and departed with good successe.

17 This was done in the breake of the day, because the protection of the Lord did helpe him.

18 Now when the king had taken a taste of the manlinesse of the Iewes, hee went about to take the holds by policie.

19 And marched towards Bethsura, which was a strog hold of y Iews, hut he was put to flight, failed, & lost of his men.

20 For Iudas had conveyed vnto them y were in it, such things as were necessary.

21 But Rhodocus who was in v Iewes hoste, disclosed the secrets to the enemies, therefore he was sought out, & when they had gotten him, they put him in prison.

22 The king treated with them in Bethsura the second time, gaue his hand, tooke theirs, departed, fought with Iudas, was opercome :

23 Heard that Philip who was left over! the affaires in Antioch || was desperately | 100, 70 bent, confounded, intreated the Iewer. submitted himselfe, and sware to all equal conditions, agreed with them, and offred sacrifice, honoured the Temple, and dealt kindly with the place.

24 And accepted well of Maccabeus, made him principall governor from Ptolemais vnto the Gerrhenians.

25 Came to Ptolemais, the people there were grieued for the couenants; for they stormed because they would make their couenants voide.

26 Lysias went vp to the judgement seat, said as much as could be in defence of the cause, perswaded, pacified, made them well affected, returned to Antioch. Thus it went touching the kings comming and departing.

CHAP. XIIII.

Alcimus accuseth Iudas. 16 Nicanor maketh peace with Iudas. 39 He seeketh to take Rhasis, 46 who to escape his hands, killeth himselfe.

Fter three yeres was Iudas enformed that Demetrius the sonne of Seleucus hauing entred by the hauen of Tripolis with a great power and nauie, 2 Had taken the countrey, and killed Antiochus, and Lysias his protectour.

3 Now one Alcimus who had beene hie Priest, and had defiled himselfe wilfully in the times of their mingling (with the Gentiles) seeing that by no meanes hee could save himselfe, nor have any moreaccesse to the holy Altar,

4 Came to king Demetrius in the hundreth and one and fiftieth yeere, presenting vnto him a crowne of golde, and a palme, and also of the boughes which were || vsed solemnly in the Temple : and | Or.

5 Howbeit hauing gotten opportunity to further his foolish enterprise, [and] being called into counsel by Demetrius, & asked how the Iewes stood affected, and what they inteded, he answered therunto:

6 Those of the Iewes that bee called Asideans (whose captaine is Iudas Maccabeus) nourish warre, and are seditious. and will not let the realme be in peace.

7 Therfore I being deprined of mine ancestors honor (I meane the hie Priesthood) am now come hither.

8 First verily for the vnfained care I haue of things pertaining to the king, and secondly, even for that I intend the good

9 Now

lof mine owne countrey men : for all our! nation is in no small misery, through the vnaduised dealing of them aforesaid.

9 Wherefore, O king, seeing thou knowest all these things, bee carefull for the countrey, and our nation, which is pressed on every side, according to the clemency that thou readily shewest vnto all. 10 For as long as Iudas liueth, it is not possible that the state should be quiet. 11 This was no sooner spoken of him, but others of the kings friends being malitiously set against Iudas, did more incense Demetrius.

12 And foorthwith calling Nicanor, who had bene master of the Elephants, and making him governour over Iudea, he sent him forth, 18 Comanding him to slay Indas, & to scatter them that were w him, & to make Alcimus high priest of the great Temple.

14 Then the heathen that had fied out of Iudea from Iudas, came to Nicanor by flocks, thinking the harme and calamities of the lewes, to be their well-fare.

15 Now when the Iewes heard of Nicanors comming, and that the heathen were vp against them, they cast earth vpon their heads, and made supplication to him that had stablished his people for euer, and who alwayes helpeth his portion with manifestation of his presence.

16 So at the commandement of the captaine, they remooued straightwayes from thence, and came neere vnto them, at the towne of Dessaro.

17 Now Simon, Iudas brother, had ioyned battell with Nicanor, but was somewhat discomfited, through the suddaine silence of his enemies.

18 Neuerthelesse Nicanor hearing of the manlinesse of them that were with ludas, and the courageousnes that they had to fight for their countrey, durst not try the matter by the sword. 19 Wherefore he sent Posidonius, and Theodotus, & Mattathias to make peace. 20 So when they had taken long aduisement thereupon, and the captaine had made y multitude acquainted therewith, and it appeared that they were all of one minde, they consented to the couenants,

21 And appointed a day to meet in together by themselues, & when the day came, and stooles were set for either of them,

22 Iudas placed armed men ready in conuenient places, lest some treachery should bee suddenly practised by the enemies; so they made a peaceable coference.

23 Now Nicapor abode in Icrusalem, and did no hurt, but sent away the people that came flocking vnto him.

24 And hee would not willingly have Indas out of his sight; for hee loved the man from his heart.

25 He praied him also to take a wife, and to beget children: so he maried, was quiet. and ||tooke part of this life.

26 But Alcimus perceiuing the loue ther with that was betwirt them, and considering the couenants that were made, came to Demetrius, and tolde him that Nicanor was not well affected towards the state. for that he had ordained Iudas. a traitor to his realme, to be the kings successour.

27 Then the king being in a rage, and prouoked with the accusations of the most wicked man, wrote to Nicanor, signifying that he was much displeased with the couenants, and commaunding him that hee should send Maccabeus prisoner in all haste vnto Antioch.

28 When this came to Nicanors hearing, he was much cofounded in himselfe, and tooke it grieuously, that hee should make vovd the articles which were a greed vpon, the man being in no fault. 29 But because there was no dealing against the king, hee watched his time to accomplish this thing by pollicie.

30 Notwithstading when Maccabeus saw that Nicanor began to bee churlish vnto him, and that he entreated him more roughly then he was wont, perceiuing y such sowre behaviour came not of good, hee gathered together not a few of his men, and withdrew himselfe fro Nicanor.

31 Bnt the other knowing that he was notably preuented by Iudas policie, came into the great and holy Temple, and commanded the Priestes that were offering their vsual sacrifices, to deliuer him $ man.

32 And whe they sware that they could not tel where y man was, who he sought, 33 Hee stretched out his right hand toward the Temple, & made an oath in this maner : If you wil not deliuer me Iudas as a + prisoner, I will lay this Temple of Greeke, God even with the ground, and I will bound. breake downe the Altar, and erect a notable temple vnto Bacchus.

34 After these words he departed; then the Priests lift vp their handes towards heauen, & besought him 🛊 was euer a defeder of their nation, saying in this maner :

35 Thou, O Lord of all things, who hast neede of nothing, wast pleased that the Temple of thine habitation should be 36 Thereamong vs.

36 Therefore now, O holy Lord of all; holinesse, keepe this house everyndefiled, which lately was cleansed, and stop cuery varighteous mouth.

Apocrypha.

37 Now was there accused vnto Nicanor, one Razis, one of the Elders of Ierusalem, a louer of his countrey men, and a man of very good report, who for his kindnesse was called a father of y lewes. 38 For in the former times, when they mingled not themselves with the Gentiles, he had bin accused of Iudaisme, and did boldly icopard his body and life with al vehemency for the religion of $ lewes.

39 So Nicanor willing to declare the hate that he bare voto the lewes, sent aboue five hudred men of war to take him.

40 For he thought by taking him to do the Iewes | much hurt.

41 Now when the multitude would haue taken the towre, and violently broken into the vtter doore, and bade that fire should be brought to burne it, he being ready to be taken on euery side, fell vpon his sword.

42 Chusing rather to die manfully, then to come into the hands of the wicked to be abused otherwise then beseemed his noble birth.

43 But missing his stroke through haste, the multitude also rushing within the doores, he ran boldly vp to the wall, and cast himselfe downe manfully among the thickest of them.

44 But they quickly giuing backe, and a space being made, he fell downe into the midst of the void place.

45 Neuerthelesse while there was yet breath within him, being inflamed with anger, he rose vp, and though his blood gushed out like spouts of water, and his wounds were grieuous, yet hee ranne through the midst of the throng, and standing vpon a steepe rocke,

46 When as his blood was now quite gone, hee pluckt out his bowels, & taking them in both his hands, hee cast them vp on the throng, and calling vpon the Lord of life and spirit to restore him those againe, he thus died.

CHAP. XV.

Nicanors blasphemie, 8 Iudas incourageth his men by his dreame. 28 Nicanor is slaine.

Vt Nicanor hearing that Iu das and his company were in the strong places about Samaria, resolued without any danger to set vpon them on ysabbath day.

2 Neuertheles, the Iewes that were compelled to go with him, said, O destroy not so cruelly and barbarously, but give honour to that day, which he that seeth all things, hath honoured with holinesse aboue [other dayes.]

3 Then this most vngracious wretch demanded, if there were a mightie one in heaven that had commanded the Sabbath day to be kept.

4 And when they said, There is in liesuen a liuing Lord, and mightie, who commanded the seventh day to be kept,

5 Then said the other, And I also am mightie vpon earth, & I comand to take armes, and to do the kings busines: yet he obteined not to haue his wicked wil done.

6 So Nicanor in exceeding pride and haughtinesse, determined to set vp a publike moument of his victorie ouer Iudas, and them that were with him.

7 But Maccabeus had euer sure confidence that the Lord would helpe him.

8 Wherfore he exhorted his people not to feare the comming of the heathen against them, but to remember the helpe which in former times they had received from heaven, and now to expect the victory, and aid which should come vnto them from the Almightie.

9 And so comforting them out of the law, and the prophets, and withall putting them in mind of the battels that they won afore, he made them more cheerefull.

10 And when he had stirred vp their minds, he gaue them their charge, shewing them therewithall the falshood of the heathen, and the breach of othes.

11 Thus he armed every one of them not so much with defence of shields and speares, as with comfortable and good words: and besides that, he tolde them a dreame worthy to be beleeved, as if it had bin so indeed, which did not a litle reioyce

12 And this was his vision: that Onias, who had hin high Priest, a vertuous. and a good man, reverend in conversation, gentle in condition, well spoken also, and exercised from a child in all points of vertue, holding vp his hands, prayed for the whole bodie of the Iewes.

13 This done, in like maner there appeared a man with gray haires, & exceeding glorious, who was of a wonderfull and excellent maiestie.

14 Then Onias answered, saying, This is a louer of the brethren, who prayeth much for the people, and for the holy citie, (to wit) Ieremias y prophet of God. | and praying vnto God with their hearts. 15 Whereupon Ieremias, holding forth his right hand, gaue to Iudas a sword of gold, and in giuing it spake thua: 16 Take this holy sword a gift from God, with the which thou shalt wound the adnersaries.

17 Thus being well comforted by the words of Iudas, which were very good, and able to stirre them vp to valour, and to encourage the hearts of the yong men, they determined not to pitch campe, but couragiously to set ypon them, and manfully to trie the matter by conflict, because the citie, and the Sanctuarie, and the Temple were in danger.

18 For the care that they tooke for their wives, and their children, their brethren, and kinsfolkes, was in least account with them : but the greatest, and principall feare, was for the holy Temple.

19 Also they that were in the citie, tooke not the least care, being troubled for the conflict abroad.

20 And now when as all looked what should bee $ triall, & the enemies were already come neere, and the armie was set in aray, and the beasts conceniently placed, and the horsemen set in wings:

21 Maccabeus seeing the comming of the multitude, and the divers preparations of armour, and the fiercenesse of the beasts, stretched out his hands towards heaven, and called vpon the Lord, that worketh wonders, knowing that victorie commeth not by armes, but euen as it seemeth good to him, he giveth it to such as are worthy:

22 Therefore in his prayer he said after this maner: O Lord, thou diddest send thine Angel in the time of Ezekiss king of Iudea, and diddest slay in the host of Sennacherib, an hundred, fourescore, and five thousand.

23 Wherfore now also O Lord of heauen, send a good Angel before vs, for a feare, and dread vnto them.

34 And through the might of thine arme, let those bee stricken with terror, that come against thy holy people to blaspheme. And he ended thus.

25 Then Nicanor, and they that were with him came forward with trumpets, and songs.

26 But Iudas, and his company encountred the enemies with inuocation, and praver.

27 So that fighting with their hands, they slew no lesse then thirty and five thousand men : for through the appearance of God, they were greatly cheered.

28 Now when the battell was done. returning againe with ioy, they knew that Nicanor lay dead in his harnesse.

29 Then they made a great shout, and a noise, praising the Almighty in their owne language:

30 And Iudas, who was ever the chiefe defender of the citizens both in body, and minde, and who continued his loue towards his countrymen all his life, commanded to strike off Nicanors head. and his hand, with his shoulder, & bring them to Ierusalem.

31 So when he was there, and had called them of his nation together, and set the priests before the altar, he sent for them that were of the Towre.

32 And shewed them vile Nicanors head, and the hand of that blasphemer. which with proud brags he had stretched out against the holy Temple of the Almìghtie.

33 And when he had cut out the tongue of that vngodly Nicanor, he commanded that they should give it by pieces vnto the foules, and hang vp the reward of his madnesse before the Temple.

34 So enery man praised towards the heaven the glorious Lord, saying Blessed be hee that hath kept his owne place vndefiled.

85 He hanged also Nicanors head vpon the Towre, an euident, and manifest signe vnto all, of the helpe of the Lord.

36 And they ordained all with a common decree, in no case to let that day passe without solemnitie: but to celebrate the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth, which in the Syrian tongue is called Adar, the day before Mardocheus day.

37 Thus went it with Nicanor, and from that time forth, the Hebrewes had the citie in their power : and heere will I make an end.

38 And if I have done well, and as is fitting the story, it is that which I desired: but if slenderly, and meanly, it is that which I could attaine vnto.

39 For as it is hartfull to drinke wine, or water alone; & as wine mingled with water is pleasant, and delighteth the tast: euen so speech finely framed, delighteth the eares of them that read the storie. And heere shall be an end.

18 ¶ Now the *birth of Iesus Christ * Luke 1. was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Ioseph (before they came together) shee was found with childe of the holy Ghost.

19 Then Ioseph her husband being a just man, and not willing to make her a publique example, was minded to put her away prinily.

20 But while hee thought on these things, behold, the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto him in a dreame, saying, Ioseph thou sonne of Dauid, feare not to take vnto thee Mary thy wife; for that which is conceived in her, is of the holy Ghost.

1 Or, facde.

Ow when * Iesus was borne in Bethlehem of Judge in the day Iudes, in the dayes of Herod the king, behold, there came Wise men from the East to Hierusalem.

King of the Iewes? for we have seene his Starre in the East, and are come to worship him.

S When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Hierusalem with him. 4 And when he had gathered all the chiefe Priests and Scribes of the people together, hee demanded of them where Christ should be borne.

5 And they said vnto him, In Bethlehem of Iudea : For thus it is written by the Prophet:

6 And thou Bethlehem in the land of Iuda, art not the least among the Princes of Iuda : for out of thee shall come a Gouernour, that shall ||rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had priuily called the Wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the Starre appeared:

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Goe, and search diligently for the yong child, and when ye have found thim, bring me word againe, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the King, they departed, and loe, the Starre which they saw in the East, went before them, till it came and stood ouer where the young childe was.

10 When they saw the Starre, they reloyced with exceeding great loy.

II I And when they were come into the house, they saw the yong child with Mary his mother, and fell downe, and worshipped him : and when they had opened their treasures, they || presented | Or. Wered vnto him gifts, gold, and frankincense, and myrrhe.

12 And being warned of God in a dreame, that they should not returne to Herode, they departed into their owne countrey another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, the Angel of the Lord appeareth to Ioseph in a dreame, saying, A. rise and take the young childe, and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and bee thou there vntill I bring thee word: for Herode will seeke the young childe. to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he tooke the yong childe and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt :

15 And was there vntill the death of Herode, that it might be fulfilled which 2 Saying, Where is he that is borne was spoken of the Lord by the Prophet, saying, *Out of Egypt haue I Oc. 11-1. called my sonne.

16 Then Herode, when hee saw that hee was mocked of the Wise men. was exceeding wroth, and sent foorth, and slewe all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two yeeres olde and vnder, according to the time, which he had diligently enquired of the Wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by * Ieremie the Prophet, * Iez 31. 15.

18 In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 ¶ But when Herode was dead, behold, an Angel of the Lord appeareth in a dreame to Ioseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the yong childe and his mother, and goe into the land of Israel : for they are dead which sought the yong childes life.

The parable of the Sower, and the seed: 18 the exposition of it. 24 The parable of the tares, 31 of the mustard seed, 33 of the leven, 44 of the hidden treasure, 45 of the pearle, 47 of the drawnet cast into the Sea, 53 And how Christ is contemned of his own countrymen.

Chap. 25.

He same day went Iesus out of the house, *and sate by the sea side.

2 And great multitudes were gathered together vnto him, so that hee went into a ship, and sate, and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

S And bee spake many things vnto · Luke a. s. them in parables, saying, * Behold, a sower went foorth to sow.

4 And when he sowed, some seedes fell by the waves side, and the foules came, and denoured them vp.

5 Some fell vpon stony places, where they had not much earth: and foorthwith they sprung vp, because they had no deepenesse of earth.

6 And when the Sunne was vp. they were scorched : and because they had not root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns : and the thornes sprung vp, & choked them.

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought foorth fruit, some an hundred folde, some sixtie folde, some thirty folde.

9 Who hath eares to heare, let him beare.

10 And the disciples came, and sayd ento him. Why speakest thou ento them in parables?

11 He answered, and said vnto them, Because it is given vnto you to know the mysteries of the kingdome of heauen, but to them it is not given.

12 *For whosocuer hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance : but whosoeuer bath not, from him shall be taken away, euen that hee hath.

13 Therefore speake I to them in parables: because they seeing, see not: and hearing, they heare not, neither doe they vnderstand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecie of Esaias, which saith, * By hearing ye shall heare, and shall not vnderstand: and seeing yee shall see, and shall not perceiue.

15 For this peoples heart is waxed prosse, and their cares are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed, lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and heare with their eares. and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heale them.

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see : and your eares, for they heare.

17 For verely I say vnto you, * that, * Lake to. many Prophets, and righteous men haue desired to see those things which yee see, and haue not scene them; and to heare those things which ye heare, and haue not heard them.

18 ¶ Heare ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdome, and vnderstandeth it not, then commeth the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sowen in his heart; this is hee which received seede by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, & anon with joy receiveth it :

21 Yet hath hee not root in himselfe. but dureth for a while : for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

22 He also that received seed among the thorns, is he that heareth the word and the care of this world, and the de ceitfulnesse of riches choke the word and he becommeth vnfruitfull.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground, is hee that heareth the word, and vnderstandeth it, which also beareth fruit, and bringeth foorth, some an hundred fold, some sixtie, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth vnto them, saying; The kingdome of heauen is likened vnto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came & sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung vp, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the seruants of the housholder came, and said vnto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seede in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said vnto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said vnto him, Wilt thou then that we goe and gather them vp?

29 But he said, Nay : lest while yee

32 Which indeed is the least of alseeds: but when it is growen, it is the greatest among herbes, and becommeth a tree : so that the birds of the aire come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ * Another parable spake he vnto them. The kingdome of heaven is like vnto leauen, which a woman tooke, and hid in three + measures of meale, till the whole was leauened.

S4 * All these things spake Iesus vnto the multitude in parables, and without a parable spake hee not vnto them:

35 That it might bee fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet, saying, *I will open my mouth in parables, I wil vtter things which haue bin kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Iesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house : and his disciples came vnto him, saying, Declare vnto vs the parable of the tares of the 45 ¶ Againe, the kingdome of heauen is like vnto a marchant man, seeking goodly pearles:

46 Who when hee had found one pearle of great price, he went and solde all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Againe, the kingdome of heauen is like vnto a net that was cast into the sea, and gathered of enery kind, 48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sate downe, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the had away.

49 So shall it be at the ende of the world: the Angels shal come forth, and seuer the wicked from among the just, 50 And shal cast them into the furnace of fire : there shall be wailing, and gnashing of teeth.

51 Iesus saith vnto them, Haue ye vnderstood all these things? They say vnto him, Yes, Lord.

52 Then said he vnto them, Therefore euery Scribe which is instructed vnto the kingdome of heauen, is like vnto a man that is an housholder, which bringeth foorth out of his treasure things new and old.

53 ¶ And it came to passe, that when Iesus had finished these parables, hee departed thence.

54 And when hee was come into his owne country, he taught them in their Synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisedome, and these mighty works?

Christ reproducts the Scribes, and Phariaces, for transgressing Gods Commaundements through their owne traditions: 11 teacheth how that which goeth into the mouth, doeth not defile a man. 21 He healeth the daughter of the woman of Canaan, 30 and other great multitudes: 32 and with seven loaner and a few little fishes feedeth foure thousand men, beside women and children.

3 But hee answered, and said vnto them, Why doe you also transgresse the Commandement of God by your tradition?

4 For God commaunded, saying, Honour thy father and mother : And hee that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But yee say, Whosoeuer shall say to his father or his mother, * It is a gift by whatsoeuer thou mightest bee profited by me,

6 And honour not his father or his mother, hee shall be free. Thus have yee made the Commaundement of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Yee hypocrites, well did Esaias prophecie of you, saying,

8 *This people draweth nigh vnto mee with their mouth, and honoureth mee with their lips : but their heart is farre from me.

9 But in vaine they do worship me, teaching for doctrines, the commande-17 Doe not yee yet vuderstand, that whatsoever entreth in at the mouth, goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

33 ¶ Heare another parable. There was a certaine house-holder, which mark. 12, 1. planted a Vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine-presse in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a farre countrey.

34 And when the time of the fruite drew neere, he sent his seruants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the husbandmen tooke his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Againe hee sent other seruants, moe then the first, and they did vnto them likewise.

37 But last of all, he sent vnto them his sonne, saying, They will reuerence my sonne.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the sonne, they said among themselues, * This is the heire, come, let vs kill him, and let ve sease on his inheritance.

39 And they caught him, and cast him out of the Vineyard, and slew him. 40 When the Lord therefore of the Vineyard commeth, what will he doe vnto those husbandmen?

41 They say vnto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his Vineyard vnto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Iesus saith vnto them. *Did ve neuer reade in the Scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner? This is the Lords doing, and it is mar-ueilous in our eyes. 43 Therefore say I vnto you, the kingdome of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

5 But they made light of it, and went their waves, one to his farme, an other to his merchandize:

6 And the remnant tooke his seruants, and intreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth, and hee sent foorth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burnt vp their citie.

8 Then saith hee to his seruants, The wedding is ready, but they which were hidden, were not worthy.

9 Goe yee therefore into the high wayes, and as many as yee shall finde, bid to the marriage.

The parable of the sower, 14 and the meaning thereof. 21 We must communicate the light of our knowledge to others. 26 The parable of the seede growing secretly, 30 and of the Mustard seede. 35 Christ stilleth the tempest on the Sea.

Matth. 13.

The parable

Nd he beganne againe to teach by the Sea side : and there was gathered vnto him a great multitude, so that he entred into a ship, and sate in the Sea : and the whole multitude was by the Sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said vnto them in his doctrine.

3 Hearken, Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to passe as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the foules of the aire came, & deuoured it vp.

5 And some fell on stonie ground, where it had not much earth : and immediately it sprang vp, because it had no depth of earth.

6 But when the Sunne was vp, it was scorched, and because it had no roote, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thornes, and the thornes grew vp, and choked it, and it yeelded no fruite.

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yeeld fruite that sprang vp, and increased, and brought foorth some thirtie, & somesixtie, & some an hundred. 9 And he said vnto them. He that hath eares to heare, let him heare. 10 And when hee was alone, they that were about him, with the twelve, asked of him the parable.

11 And he said vnto them. Vnto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdome of God : but vnto them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

Matth 13,

12 * That seeing they may see, and not perceiue, and hearing they may heare, and not vnderstand, lest at any time they should be converted, and their sinnes should be forgiven them.

13 And he said vnto them. Know ve you know all parables?

14 The Sower soweth the word. 15 And these are they by the way side. where the word is sowen, but when they have heard, Satan commeth immediately, and taketh away the word that was sowen in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sowen on stonie ground, who when they have heard the word, immediately receiue it with gladnesse:

17 And have no roote in themselves. and so endure but for a time : afterward when affliction or persecution ariseth for the words sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sowen among thorns : such as heare the word, 37 And there arose a great storme of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship saleepe on a pillow : and they awake him, and say vnto him, Master, carest thou not, that we perish?

59 And hee arose, and rebuked the winde, and said vnto the sea, Peace, be still : and the winde ceased, and there was a great calme.

40 And he said vnto them, Why are ye so fearefull? How is it that you have no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and saide one to another, What maner of man is this, that even the winde and the sea obey him?

5 But Iesus yet answered nothing, so that Pilate marueiled.

6 Now at that Feast he released vnto them one prisoner, whomsoeuer they desired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying alowd, began to desire him to doe as he had ever done vnto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, say ing, Will ye that I release vnto you the King of the Iewes?

10 (For hee knew that the chiefe Priests had deliuered him for enuie.)

11 But the chiefe Priests mooued the people, that hee should rather release Barabbas vnto them.

12 And Pilate answered, and said againe vnto them, What will yee then that I shall do vnto him whom ye call the King of the Iewes?

13 And they cried out againe, Crucifie him.

14 Then Pilate saide vnto them,

Why, what euill hath hee done? And! they cried out the more exceedingly. Crucifie him.

15 ¶ And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas vnto them, and deliuered Iesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 And the souldiers led him away into the hall, called Pretorium, and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crowne of thornes. and put it about his head.

18 And beganne to salute him, Haile King of the lewes.

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit vpon him, and bowing their knees, worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him. they tooke off the purple from him, and put his owne clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.

21 ° And they compell one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, comming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to beare his Crosse.

Of John Baptist.

3 And when he heard of Iesus, he sent vnto him the Elders of the Iewes, beseeching him that he would come and heale his seruant.

4 And when they came to Iesus, they be sought him instantly, saying, that hee was worthy for whome hee should doe this.

5 For he loucth our nation, and hee hath built vs a Synagogue.

6 Then Iesus went with them. And when he was now not farre from the house, the Centurion sent friends to him, saying vnto him, Lord, trouble not thy selfe: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter vader my roofe.

7 Wherefore neither thought I my selfe worthy to come vnto thec : but say in a worde, and my seruant shall bee healed.

8 For I also am a man set vnder authoritie, having vnder mee souldiers and I say vnto one, Goe, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and hee commeth : and to my seruant, Doe this, and he doeth it.

9 When Iesus heard these things, hee marueiled at him, and turned him about, and saide vnto the people that followed him, I say vnto you, I haue not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the seruant whole that had bene sicke.

11 ¶ And it came to passe the day after, that he went into a citie called Naim : and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

2 And hee called him, and said vnto him, How is it that I heare this of thee? Give an accompt of thy stewardship : for thou mayest bee no longer Steward.

S Then the Steward said within himselfe. What shall I doe, for my lord taketh away from mee the Stewardship? I cannot digge, to begge I am ashamed.

4 I am resolued what to doe, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So hee called every one of his lords detters vnto him, and said vnto the first. How much owest thou voto my lord?

Matth. 13 43 T Now after two dayes he de parted thence, and went into Galilee:

44 For Iesus himselfe testified, that a Prophet hath no honour in his owne countrey.

45 Then when hee was come into Galilce, the Galileans received him, hauing seene all the things that hee did at Hierusalem at the Feast for they also went vnto the Feast.

46 So Iesus came againe into Cana of Galilce, * where hee made the water wine. And there was a certaine the Courte | | noble man, whose some was sicke at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Iesus was come out of Iudea into Galilee, hee went vnto him, and besought him that he would come downe, and heale his sonne : for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Iesus vnto him, Except ye see signes and wonders, yee will not beleeue.

49 The noble man saith vnto him. Syr, come downe ere my child die.

50 Icsus saith vnto him, Go thy way, thy sonne liueth. And the man beloened the word that Iesus had spoken vnto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his seruants met him, and told him, saying, Thy sonne liucth.

52 Then inquired hee of them the houre when he began to amend: and they said vnto him, Y'esterday at the seuenth houre the feuer left him.

53 So the father knewe that it was at the same houre, in the which lesus said vnto him, Thy sonne liueth, and himselfe beloeued, and his whole house.

54 This is againe the second miracle that Iesus did, when hee was come out of Indea into Galilee.

this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the workes of God should be made manifest in him.

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Iesus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said vnto me, Goe to the poole of Siloam, and wash : and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they vnto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

14 And it was the Sabbath day when Iesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said vnto them, Hee put clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and doe see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because hee keepeth not the Sabbath day. O. thers said, How can a man that is a sinner, doe such miracles? and there was a division among them.

17 They say vnto the blind man againe, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, Hee is a Prophet.

18 But the Iewes did not beleeue concerning him, that hee had bin blind, and received his sight, vntill they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, who ye say was horne blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them, and said. We know that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blind :

21 But by what meanes he now seeth, we know not, or who hath opened his eyes we know not : hee is of age, aske him, he shall speake for himselfe.

22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Iewes : for the lewes had agreed already, that if any man did confesse that he was Christ, he should be put out of the Synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age, aske him.

24 Then againe called they the man that was blind, and said vnto him, Giue God the praise, we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered, and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not : One thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then saide they to him againe, What did he to thee? How opened hee thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not heare: wherfore would you heare it againe? Will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reuiled him, and said, Thou art his disciple, but we are Moses disciples.

29 Wee know that God spake vnto Moses : as for this fellow, we knowe not from whence he is.

30 The man answered, and said vnto them, Why herein is a marueilous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners : but if any man bee a worshipper of God, and doth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was borne blinde:

33 If this man were not of God, he could doe nothing.

34 They answered, and saide vnto him, Thou wast altogether borne in sinnes, and doest thou teach vs? And they ||cast him out.

35 Iesus heard that they had cast min. him out; and when hee had found him. he said vnto him, Doest thou beleeue on the Sonne of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he. Lord, that I might beleeve on him?

37 And Iesus said vnto him, Thou hast both seene him, and it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I beleeue : and he worshipped him.

39 ¶ And Iesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not, might see, and that they which see, might be made blind.

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him, heard these words, and saide voto him, Are wee blinde also?

41 Iesus saide vnto them, If yee were blind, ye should have no sinne : but now ye say, We see, therfore your sinne remaineth.

Christ raiseth Lazarus, foure dayes buried.

Many Iewes beleeue. 47 The high Priests and Pharisees gather a counsel against Christ. 49 Caisphaa prophecieth. 54 lesus hid himselfe. 53 At the Passeouer they enquire after him, and lay wait for him.

Ow a certaine man was sicke, named Lazarus of Bethanie, the towne of Mary, and her sister Martha.

2 (*It was that Mary which anownted the Lord with oyntment, and wiped his feete with her haire, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)

3 Therefore his sister sent voto him, saying, Lord, behold, hee whom thou louest, is sicke.

4 When Iesus heard that, hee said, This sicknesse is not vnto death, but for the glory of God, that the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Iesus loued Marths, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sicke, he abode two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, saith hee to his disciples, Let vs go into Indea againe. 8 His disciples say vnto him, Master, the Iewes of late sought to stone thee, and goest thou thither againe?

9 Issus answered, Are there not twelue houres in the day? If any man walke in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

IO But if a man walke in the night, hee stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

II These things said hee, and after that, hee saith vnto them. Our friend Lazarus sleepeth, but I goe, that I may awake him out of sleepe.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleepe, he shall doe well.

13 Howbeit Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that hee had spoken of taking of rest in sleepe.

14 Then saide Iesus vnto them plainly, Lazarus is dead:

16 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there (to the intent yee may believe: ) Neuerthelesse, let we goe vnto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, vnto his fellow disciples, Let vs also goe, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Iesus came, hee found that hee had lien in the graue foure dayes already.

18 (Now Bethanic was nigh vnto Hierusalem, || about fifteene furlongs off:)

19 And many of the Iewes came to Martha, and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soone as shee heard that Iesus was comming, went and met him: but Mary sate still in the house.

21 Then saide Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou hadst bene here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that cuen now, whatsoener thou wilt aske of God, God will give it thee.

23 Iesus saith vnto her, Thy brother shall rise againc.

27 She saith vnto him, Yea Lord, I beleeue that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

32 Then when Mary was come where Iesus was, and saw him, shee fell downe at his feete, saying vnto him, Lord, if thou hadst beene here, my brother had not dyed.

33 When Iesus therefore sawe her weeping, and the Iewes also weeping which came with her, hee groned in the Spirit, and t was troubled, 34 And said, Where have yelaid him? They say vnto him, Lord, come, & see.

35 Iesus wept.
36 Then said the Iewes, Behold, how he loued him.

*Chap. 9. 1.

S7 And some of them said, Could not this man, *which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Iesus therefore againe groning in himselfe, commeth to the graue. It was a caue, and a stone lay vpon it.

39 Iesus said, Take yee away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, sayth wnto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath beene dead foure dayes.

40 Iesus saith vnto her, Said I not vnto thee, that if thou wouldst beleeue, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

41 Then they tooke away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And I esus lift vp his eyes, and said, Father, I thanke thee, that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knewe that thou hearest me alwayes: but because of the people which stand by, I said it, that they may beleeue that thou hast sent me.

48 And when hee thus had spoken, he cryed with a loude voice, Lazarus, come foorth.

44 And he that was dead, came forth, bound hand & foot with grave-clothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Iesus saith vnto them, Loose him, and let him goe.

45 Then many of the lewes which came to Mary, and had seene the things which I esus did, beleeved on him.

46 But some of them went their wayes to the Pharises, and tolde them what things Iesus had done.

47 ¶ Then gathered f chiefe Priests and the Pharises a councell, and said, What doe wee? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will beleeue on him, and the Romanes shall come, and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them named Caiaphas, being the high Priest that same yeere, said vnto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 * Nor consider that it is expedient Chap is for vs, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himselfe: but being high Priest that yeere, he prophecied that Iesus should die for that nation:

52 And not for that nation only, but that also hee should gather together in one, the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day foorth, they tooke counsell together for to put him to death.

54 Iesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes: but went thence vnto a countrey neere to the wildernesse, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Iewes Passeouer was nigh at hand, and many went out of the countrey vp to Hierusalem before the Passeouer to purifie themselues.

56 Then sought they for Iesus, and spake among themselues, as they stood in the Temple, What thinke ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chiefe Priests and the Pharises had giuen a commandement, that if any man knew where hee were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

Then

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha serued : but Lasarus was one of them y sate at the table with him.

3 Then tooke Mary a pound of ointment, of Spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Iesus, & wiped his feet with her haire : and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

8 Then Peter filled with the holy Ghost, said vnto them. Ye rulers of the said vnto them. people, and Elders of Israel.

9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what meanes he is made whole.

10 Be it knowen vnto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that hy the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ve crucified, whome God raised from the dead, even by him, doeth this man stand here before you, whole.

11 This is the stone which was set at nought of you huilders, which is become the head of the corner.

* Psal. 118.

13 ¶ Now when they sawe the boldnesse of Peter and John, and per ceiued that they were valearned and ignorant men, they marueiled, and they tooke knowledge of them, that they had bene with Icsus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed, standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the Council, they conferred among themselues, 16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath bene done by them, is manifest to all them that dwell in Hierusalem, and we cannot denie it.

17 But that it spread no farther among the people, let vs straitly threaten them, that they speake henceforth to no man in this Name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them, not to speake at all, nor teach in the Name of Iesus.

19 But Peter and John answered, and said vnto them. Whether it be right in the sight of God, to hearken vnto you more then vnto God, judge ye.

20 For wee cannot but speake the things which we have seene and heard.

21 So when they had further threatned them, they let them goe, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people : for all men glorified God for that which was done.

22 For the man was aboue fourtie yeeres olde, on whome this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ And being let goe, they went to their owne company, and reported all that the chiefe Priests and Elders had

After that Anamas and Sapphira his wife for their hypocrisic at Peters rebuke had fallen downe dead, 12 and that the rest of the Apostles had wrought many miracles, 14 to the increase of the faith: 17 The Apostles are againe imprisoned, 19 But deliuered by an Angel hidding them to preach openly to all: 21 When, after their teaching accordingly in the temple, 29 and before the Councill, 33 they are in danger to be killed, through the aduise of Gamaliel, a great councellour among the Iewes, they be kept aliue, 40 and are but beaten: for which they glorifie God, and cease no day from preaching.

Vt a certaine man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, solde a possession,

2 And kept backe part of the price, his wife also being priuy to it, and brought a certaine part, and layd it at the Apostles feete. 3 But Peter said, Ananias, Why hath Satan filled thine heart Ito lie to 10r, to dethe holy Ghast, and to keepe backe part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine owne? and after it was sold, was it not in thine owne power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied vnto men, but vnto God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words, fell downe, and gaue vp the ghost : and great feare came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the yong men arose, wound him vp, and caried him out, and buried

7 And it was about the space of three houres after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered vnto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much. And she saide, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter saide vnto her, How is it that ye have agreed together, to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feete of them which have buried thy husband, are at the doore, and shall carv thee out.

10 Then fell she downe straightway at his feete, and yeelded vp the ghost: And the yong men came in, and found her dead, and carying her forth, huried her by her husband.

11 And great feare came vpon all the Church, and vpon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And by the hands of the Apostles, were many signes and wonders wrought among the people. (And they were all with one accord in Solomons porch.

19 But the Angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doores, and brought them foorth, and said, 20 Goe, stand and speake in the Temple to the people all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entred into the Temple early in the morning, & taught : but the high Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Councill together, and all the Senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

24 Now when the high Priest, and the captaine of the Temple, and the chiefe Priests heard these things, they doubted of them wherunto this would grow.

25 Then came one, and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and brought them without violence : (For they feared the people, lest they should have bene stoned.)

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the Councill. and the high Priest asked them, 28 Saying, Did not wee straitly command you, that you should not teach in this Name? And behold, yee haue filled Hierusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this mans blood vpon vs.

35 And said vnto them, Yee men of Israel, take heed to your selues, what ve intend to doe as touching these men.

37 After this man rose vp Iudas of Galilee, in the dayes of the taxing, and drew away much people after him : hee also perished, and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say vnto you, refraine from these men, and let them alone : for if this counsell or this worke be of men, it will come to nought.

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot ouerthrow it, lest haply yee be found even to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed : and when they had called the Apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speake in the Name of lesus, and let them goc.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the Councill, reloycing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his Name.

42 And dayly in the Temple, and in euery house, they ceased not to teach and preach lesus Christ.

CHAP. VIII.

By occasion of the persecution in Hierusalem, the Church being planted in Samaria, & By Philip the Descon who preached, did miraracles, and baptized many, among the rest Simon the sorcerer a great seducer of the people: 14 Peter and John come to confirme, and inlarge the Church : where by prayer, and imposition of handa gining the holy Ghost, 18 When Simon would have bought the like power of them, 20 Peter sharpely reprouing his hypocrisie, and coustousnesse, and exhorting him to repentance: together with lohn preaching the word of the Lord, returne to Hieratalem. 26 But the Angel sendeth Philip to teach, & haptise the Ethiopian Eunuch.

Nd Saul was consenting vnto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Hierusalem, and they were all scattered ahroad through out the regions of Iudea, and Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 And deuout men carried Steuen to his buriall, and made great lamentation ouer him.

3 As for Saul, he made hauocke of the Church, entring into every house, and hailing men and women, committed them to prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went euery where preaching the word.

5 Then Philip went downe to the citie of Samaria, and preached Christ vato them.

6 And the people with one accord gaue heed vnto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For vncleane spirits, crying with lowd voyce, came out of many that were possessed with them; and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great loy in that citie.

9 But there was a certaine man called Simon, which before time in the same citie vsed sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himselfe was some great one.

10 To whom they all gaue heed from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitch-ed them with sorceries.

12 But when they beleeved Philip presching the things concerning the kingdome of God, and the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himselfe beleeved also : and when hee was baptized, hee continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signes which were done.

14 Now when the Apostles which were at Hierusalem, heard that Samaris had received the word of God, they sent vnto them Peter and John.

15 Who when they were come downe, praied for them that they might receive the holy Ghoat.

16 (For as yet hee was fallen vpon none of them : onely they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus.)

17 Then layde they their hands on them, and they received the holy Ghoat.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the Apostles hands, the holy Ghost was given, hee offered them money.

19 Saying, Giue me also this power, that on whomsoeuer I lay handes, bee may receive the holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said vnto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter, for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickednesse, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forginen

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitternesse, and in the bond

24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for mee, that none of these things which ye have spoken, come vpon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Hierusalem, and preached the Gospel in many villages of the Sama-

26 And the Angel of the Lord spake vnto Philip, saying, Arise, and goe toward the South, voto the way that goeth downe from Hierusalem vnto Gaza, which is desert.

27 And hee arose, and went : and behold, a man of Ethiopia, an Ennuch of great authority vnder Candace queene of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Hierusslem for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his charet, read Essias the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit saide vnto Philip, Goe neere, and joyne thy selfe to this

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him reade the Prophet Esains, and said. Vnderstandest thou what thou readest?

S1 And hee said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip, that hee would come vp, and sit with him.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water : and the Eunuch said, See, here is water, what doeth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, If thou beleeuest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered, and said, I beleeue that Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 And he commanded the charet to stand still : and they went downe both into the water, both Philip, and the Eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the Eunuch saw him no more : and hee went on his way reloycing.

40 But Philip was found at Asotus: and passing thorow he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

Saul going towards Damascus, 4 is striken downe to the earth, 10 is called to the Apo-stleship, 18 and is baptized by Ananiss. 20 He preacheth Christ boldly. 23 The Iewes lay wait to kil him: 29 So doe the Grecians but hee escapeth both. 31 The Church ha-uing rest, Peter healeth Æness of the palsie, 36 and restoreth Tabitha to life.

Nd Saul yet breathing out threatnings & slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went vnto the high Priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus, to the Synagogues, that if hee found any of this way, whether they were men or women, hee might bring them bound vnto Hierusalem.

S And as he iourneyed he came neere Damascus, and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven.

4 And he fel to the earth, and heard a voice saying vnto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou Lord? And the Lord said, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest : It is hard for thee to kicke against the prickes.

9 T On the morrow as they went on their iourney, and drew nigh vnto the citie, Peter went vp vpon the house to pray, about the sixth houre.

10 And he became very hungry, and would haue eaten : But while they made ready, he fell into a traunce, 11 And saw heauen opened, and a certaine vessell descending vnto him, as it had beene a great sheete, knit at the foure corners, and let downe to the earth:

12 Wherein were all maner of foure footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and foules of the ayre.

18 And there came a voyce to him, Rise. Peter : kill, and eate.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or vncleane.

15 And the voice spake vnto him a-gaine the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrise : & the vessel was received vp againe into heaven.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himselfe what this vision which he had seene, should meane: behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had made inquirie for Simons house, and stood before the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was sirnamed Peter, Attalia. 26 And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God, for the worke which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the doore of faith vnto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

Great dissention ariseth touching Circumcision. 6 The Apostles consult about it, 22 and send their determination by letters to the Churches. 36 Paul and Barnabas thinking to visit the brethren together, fall at strife, and depart asunder.

Nd certaine men which came downe from Iudea, taught the brethren, and said, Except ye becircumcised after the manner of Moses, ve cannot be saued. 2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissention and dispu(tation with them, they determined that) Paul and Barnabas, and certeine other of them, should goe vp to Hierusalem vnto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 And being brought on their way by the Church, they passed thorow Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conuersion of the Gentiles: and they caused great toy vnto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Hicrusalem, they were received of the Church, and of the Apostles, and Elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there rose vp certaine of the sect of the Pharisees which beleeued, saying, that it was needfull to circumcise them, and to comand them to keepe the Law of Moses.

6 ¶ And the Apostles & Elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had bene much disputing, Peter rose vp, and said vnto them, Men and brethren, ye know how Chap. 10.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and gaue audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had helde their peace, Iames answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken vnto me.

14 Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visite the Gentiles to take out of them a people for his Name.

15 And to this agree the words of the Prophets, as it is written,

18 Knowen vnto God are all his workes fro the beginning of the world. 19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God:

20 But that wee write vnto them, that they abstaine from pollutions of Idoles, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood, 21 For Moses of olde time hath in euery citie them that preach him, being read in the Synagogues every Sabbath day.

22 Then pleased it the Apostles and Elders with the whole Church, to send chosen men of their owne company to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas: namely, Indas surnamed Barsabas, & Silas, chiefe men among the brethren,

23 And wrote letters by them after this maner, The Apostles and Elders, and brethren, send greeting vnto the brethren, which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia.

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certaine which went out from va. haue troubled you with words, subuerting your soules, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keepe the Law, to whom we gaue no such commandement:

25 It seemed good voto vs, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul.

26 Men that have hazarded their liues for the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ.

27 Wee haue sent therefore Iudas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to vs, to lay vpon you no greater hurden then these necessarie things;

29 That ye abstaine from meates offered to idoles, and from blood, & from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keepe your selues, yee shall doe well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the Epistle.

35 Paul also and Barnahas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 T And some dayes after, Paul said vnto Barnabas, Let vs go againe and visit our brethren, in euery city where we have preached the word of the Lord. and see how they doe.

S7 And Barnabas determined to take with them Iohn, whose surname was Marke.

S8 But Paul thought not good to take him with them; who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the worke.

39 And the contention was so sharpe betweene them, that they departed asunder one from the other : & so Barnabas tooke Marke, & sailed vnto Cyprus.

8 And they passing by Mysia, came downe to Troas.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saving, Come ouer into Macedonia, and helpe va.

10 And after he had seene the vision, immediatly we endequoured to goe into Macedonia, assuredly gathering, that the Lord had called vs for to preach the Gospel vnto them.

13 And on the Sabboth we went out of the citie by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made, & we sate downe, and spake vnto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certaine woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the citie of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard vs : whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended vnto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her houshold, she besought vs, saying, If ye haue judged me to bee faithfull to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained vs.

11 These were more noble then those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readinesse of minde, and searched the Scriptures dayly, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleeued: also of honourable women which were Greekes, and of men not a few.

9 But when divers were hardened, and beleeued not, but spake evill of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the schoole of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of two yeeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Iesus, both Iewes and Greeks. 11 And God wrought speciall miracles by the hands of Paul

12 So that from his body were brought vnto the sicke handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the euill spirits went out of them.

18 Then certains of the vagabond Iewes, exorcistes, tooke vpon them to call ouer them which had euill spirits, the Name of the Lord lesus, saying, We adjure you hy Iesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seuen sonnes of one Sceus a Iewe, and chiefe of the Priests, which did so. 15 And the cuill spirit answered, and said, Iesus I knowe, and Paul I know, but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the cuil! spirit was, leapt on them, and onercame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was knowen to all the Iewes and Greekes also dwelling at Ephesus, and feare fell on them all, and the Name of the Lord Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleeved came, and confessed, and shewed their deedes.

19 Many also of them which vsed curious arts, brought their bookes together and burned them before all men and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So mightily grew the word of God, and prevailed.

21 ¶ After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when hee had passed thorow Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Hierusalem, saying, After I haue bin there, I must also see Rome.

22 So hee sent into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto him, Ti motheus and Erastus, but he himselfe stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small stirre about that way.

24 For a certaine man named Demetrius, a siluer smith, which made siluer shrines for Diana, brought no small gaine vnto the craftsmen:

25 Whom he called together, with the workemen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover, ye see & heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath perswaded and turned away much people, saying, that they bee no gods, which are made with bands.

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nonght : but also that the Temple of the great goddesse Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asis, and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were ful of wrath, & cried out, saying, Great is Diana of y Ephesians.

29 And the whole citie was filled with confusiou, and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus men of Macedonia Pauls companions in transile, they rushed with one accord into the Theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entred in vato the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certaine of the chiefe of Asia, which were his friends, sent vnto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himselfe into the Theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another : for the assembly was confused, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Iewes putting him forward. And Alexander beckened with the hand, and would have made his defence vnto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Iewe, all with one voyce about the space of two houres cried out, Great

5 And when we had accomplished those dayes, we departed, and went our way, and they all brought vs on our way, with wines and children, till wee were out of the citie : and wee kneeled downe on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leaue one of another, we tooke ship, and they returned home againe.

7 And when wee had finished our course from Tyre, wee came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

14 And when he would not bee perswaded, we ceased, saving, The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those dayes we tooke vp our cariages, & went vp to Hierusalem. 16 There went with vs also certaine of the disciples of Cesares, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with who we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Hierusalem, the brethren received vs gladly 18 And the day following Paul went in with vs vnto lames, and all the Elders were present.

19 And when hee had saluted them, hee declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministerie.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, & said vnto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Iewes there are which beleeue, and they are all sealous of the Law.

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Iewes which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, saying, that they ought not to circumciee their children, neither to walke after the customes.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together : for they will heare that thou art come.

23 Doe therefore this that we say to thee : Wee have foure men which have a vow on them.

24 Them take, and purific thy selfe with them, & bee at charges with them, that they may *shaue their heads: and all may know that those things wherof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy selfe also walkest orderly, and keepest the Law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which beleeue, * wee haue written and concluded, that they observe no such thing, saue onely that they keepe themselues from things offered to idoles, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

6 And it came to passe, that as 1 made my iourney, & was come nigh vn. to Damascus about noone, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And 1 fell vnto the ground, and heard a voice saying vnto mee, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said vnto me, I am Iesus of Nazareth who thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me saw indeede the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I saide, What shall I doe, Lord? And the Lord said vnto me, Arise, and goe into Damascus, and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to doe.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of al the Iewes which dwelt there.

I was come againe to Hierosalem, euen while I prayed in the temple, I

18 And saw him saying vnto mee, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Hierusalem : for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned, and beat in every synagogue them that beleeved on thee.

20 * And when y blood of thy martyr * Chap. 7. Steuen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting vnto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

28 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, & threw dust into the sire, 24 The chiese captaine commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that hee should be examined by scourging: that he might know wherfore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said vnto the Centurion that stood by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge a man that is a Romane, and vncondemned?

26 When the Centurion heard that, hee went and told the chiefe captaine, saying, Take heede what thou doest, for this man is a Romane.

16 And when Pauls sisters sonne heard of their laying in wait, hee went and entred into the castle, & told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, and said, Bring this yong man vnto the chiefe captaine : for he hath a certaine thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chiefe captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and praied mee to bring this yong man vnto thee, who hath something to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chiefe captaine tooke him by the hand, and went with him aside prinately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

2 Paul, in the presence of Agrippa, declareth his lifefrom his childhood, 12 and howmira-culously he was converted, and called to his culously ne was concerned, and came to this Apostleship. 24 Festus charged him to be mad, whereunto he answereth modestly. 28 Agrippa is almost perswaded to be a christian. 31 The whole company pronounce Hen Agrippa said vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe.

Then Paul stretched foorth the hand, and answered for himselfe, 2 I thinke my selfe happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answere for my selfe this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Tewes:

3 Especially, because I know thee to be expert in all customes and questions which are among the Iewes : wherefore I beseech thee to heare mee pati-

7 Vato which promise our twelue tribes instantly seruing God day and night, hope to come : For which hopes sake, King Agrippa, I am accused of the lewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I verily thought with my selfe, that I ought to doe many things con-trary to the name of Iesus of Nazareth:

10 Which thing I also did in Hierusalem, and many of the Saints did I shut vp in prison, having received authoritie from the chiefe Priests, and when they were put to death, I gaue my voyce against them.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heavenly vision:

20 But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Hierusalem, and thorowout all the coasts of Iudea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turne to God, and do works meete for repentance.

21 For these causes the lewes caught mee in the Temple, and went a-23' That Christ should suffer, and that hee should be the first that should rise from the dead, & should shew light vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as hee thus spake for himselfe, Festus saide with a lowd vovce. Paul, thou art beside thy selfe, much learning doeth make thee mad-

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speake foorth the words of trueth and sobernesse.

26 For the King knoweth of these things, before whom also I speake freely : for I am perswaded, that none of these things are hidden from him, for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, beleeuest thou the Prophets? I know that thou be-leeuest.

28 Then Agrippa saide vnto Paul, Almost thou perswadest mee to bee a Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God. that not onely thou, but also all that heare mee this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when hee had thus spoken, the king rose vp, and the governour, and Bernice, & they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked betweene themselues, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa vnto Festus, This man might have bene set at libertie, if he had not appealed vnto Cesar.

Paul shipping toward Rome, 10 foretelleth of the danger of the voyage, 11 but is not beleeued. 14 They are tossed to and fro with tempest, 41 and suffer shipwracke, 22 34. 44 yet all come safe to land.

Nd when it was determined, that wee should saile into Italy, they deliuered Paul, & certaine other prisoners, vnto one named Iulius, a centurion of Augustus band. 2 And entring into a ship of Adramyttium, wee lanched, meaning to saile by the coasts of Asia, one Aristarchus a Macedonian, of Thessalonica, beeing with vs.

3 And the next day wee touched at Sidon : And Iulius courteously entreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friends to refresh himselfe.

4 And when we had lanched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

10 And said vnto them, Sirs, I perceine that this voyage will be with | hurt and much damage, not onely of the lading & ship, but also of our lives.

11 Neuerthelesse, the Centurion beleeued the master and the owner of the shippe, more then those things which were spoken by l'aul.

12 And because the hauen was not commodious to winter in, the more part aduised to depart thence also, if by any meanes they might attaine to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an hauen of Creete, and lieth toward the 25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheere: for I beleeue God, that it shall be euen as it was tolde me.

26 Howbeit, we must be cast vpon a certaine Iland.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as wee were driven vp and downe in Adria about midnight, the shipmen deemed that they drew neere to some countrey :

28 And sounded, and found it twentie fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded againe, and found it fifteene fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should haue fallen vpon rockes, they cast foure ancres out of the sterne, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let downe the boat into the sea, vnder colour as though they would have cast ancres out of the fore-ship, 31 Paul said to the Centurion, and to the souldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saued.

32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was comming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have taried, and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore, I pray you to take some meat, for this is for your health : for there shall not an haire fall from the head of any of you.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land : but they discouered a certaine creek, with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had || taken vp the ankers, they committed themselves rato the sea, & loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the maine saile to the winde, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ranne the shippe a ground, and the forepart stucke fast, and remained vnmoueable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waues.

42 And the souldiers counsel was to kil the prisoners, lest any of them should swimme out, and escape.

43 But the Centurion, willing to saue Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that they which could swimme, should cast themselues first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boords, and some on broken pieces of the ship : and so it came to passe that they escaped all safe to land.

Paul, after his ship wracke is kindly entertained of the Barbarians. 5 The viper on his hand hurteth him not. 8 He healeth many diseases in the Iland. 11 They depart towards Rome. 17 Hee declareth to the Iewes the cause of his comming. 14 After his preaching some were perswaded, and some beleeued not. 30 Yet he prescheth there two yeeres.

> Nd when they were escaped, then they knew that the Iland was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous people shewed vs no little kindnesse : for they kindled a fire, and received vs euery one because of the present raine, and because of the cold.

S And when Paul had gathered a

4 And when the Barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they saide among themselves, No doubt this man is a murtherer, whom though bee hath escaped the Sea, yet Vengeance suffereth not to liue.

5 And hee shooke off the beast into the fire, and felt no harme.

6 Howbeit, they looked when hee should have swollen, or fallen downe dead suddenly : but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harme come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a God.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chiefe man of the Hand, whose name was Publins, who recei ued vs. and lodged vs three dayes courteously.

8 And it came to passe that the father of Publius lay sicke of a feuer, and of a bloody-flixe, to whom Paul entred in, and prayed, and layed his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also which had diseases in the Iland, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured vs with many honours, and when wee departed, they laded vs with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three moneths wee departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the Ile, whose signe was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse wee taried there three dayes.

13 And from thence wee fet a compasse, and came to Rhegium, and after one day the South winde blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where wee found brethren, and were desired to tary with them seuen dayes: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meet vs as farre as Appli forum, and the three Tauernes: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and tooke courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the Centurion delivered the prisoners to the Captaine of the guard : but Paul was suffered to dwell by himselfe, with a souldier that kept him.

17 And it came to passe, that after three dayes, Paul called the chiefe of the bundle of stickes, and layde them on the Lewes together. And when they were Ifraels hope.

19 But when the Iewes spake against it, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you, to see you, and to speake with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chaine.

21 And they saide vnto him, Wee neither received letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came, shewed or spake any harme of thee.

22 But we desire to heare of thee what thou thinkest : for as concerning this sect, we know that enery where it 28 Be it knowen therfore vnto you, that the saluation of God is sent vnto the Gentiles, and that they wil heare it.

29 And when hee had saide these words, the lewes departed, and had great reasoning among themselues.

30 And Paul dwelt two whole yeeres in his owne hired house, and receiued all that came in vnto him, 31 Preaching the kingdome of God, and teaching those things which con-cerne the Lord Iesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what Law? Of works? Nay : but by the Law of faith.

28 Therefore wee conclude, that a man is justified by faith, without the deeds of the Law.

29 Is he the God of the Iewes only? Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing it is one God which shall iustifie the circumcision by faith, and vncircumcision through faith.

31 Doe we then make void the lawe through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the Law.

CHAP. IIII.

Abrahams faith was imputed to him for righ-Abrahams turn was imputed to him for righteousnesse, 10 before hee was circumcised.

13 By faith only he and his seed received the promise. 16 Abraham is the father of all that beleeue. 24 Our faith also shall be imputed to va for righteousnes.

Hat shall we say then, that Abraham our father, as perteining to the flesh, hatb found?

2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, hee hath whereof to glory, but not before God.

S For what saith the Scripture? Abraham beleeued God, and it was counted vnto him for righteousnes.

4 Now to him that worketh, is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but beleeveth on him that iustifieth the vngodly; his faith is counted for righteousnesse.

6 Euen as Dauid also describeth the blessednesse of the man, vnto whom God imputeth righteousnesse without 7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiuen, and whose sinnes are couered.

8 Blessed is the man to whome the Lord will not impute sinne.

9 Commeth this blessednes then vpon the circumcision onely, or vpon the vacircumcision also? for wee say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousnesse.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in vncircumcision? not in circumcision, but in vncircumcision.

11 And hee received the signe of circumcision, a seale of the righteousnesse of the faith, which hee had yet being vncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that beleeue, though they be not circumcised; that righteousnesse might be imputed vnto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision, to them who are not of the circumcision onely, but also walke in the steppes of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet vncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should be the beire of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed through the Lawe, but through the righteousnesse of faith. 14 For if they which are of the law be beires, faith is made voide, and the promise made of none effect.

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no Lawe is, there is no transgression. 16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might bee by grace; to the ende the promise might be sure to all the seeds, not to that onely which is of the Law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all,

17 (As it is written, *I have made Gen. 17. 5 thee a father of many nations) || before 107, like on him whom he beleeved, even God who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which bee not, as though they

20 Hee staggered not at the promise of God through vnbeliefe : but was strong in faith, gining glory to God:

21 And being fully perswaded, that what he had promised, he was able also to performe.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousnesse.

28 Now it was not written for his cake alone, that it was imputed to him :

24 But for vs also, to whome it shall bee imputed, if wee beleeue on him that raised vp Iesus our Lord from the dead.

25 Who was deliuered for our offences, and was raised againe for our iustification.

Being instified by faith, was home peace with God, 9 and loy in our hope, 8 that sith we ware reconciled by his blood, when we were evenies, 10 was shall much nore be smed being reconciled. 19 As sinne and death came by Adam, 17 so much more righte-ouncess and life by Lessa Christ. 90 Where sinne abounded, grace did superabound.

Herefore being justified by faith, wee haue peace with God, through our Lord Lesus Christ.

2 By whom also wee haue accesse by faith, into this grace wherein wee stand, and reloyce in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not onely so, but we glory in tribulations also, knowing that tribulation worketh patience:

4 And patience, experience : and experience, hope:

5 And hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts, by the holy Ghost, which is given vnto vs.

9 Much more then being now justified by his blood, we shalbe saued from wrath through him.

10 For if when wee were enemies, we were reconciled to God, by the death of his some : much more being reconciled, we shalbe saued by his life.

11 And not onely so, but wee also ioy in God, through our Lorde Iesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne entred into the world, and death by ain: and so death passed vpon all men, || for |10r,ine that all have sinned.

13 For vntill the Law sinne was in the world : but sin is not imputed when there is no Law.

14 Neuertheles, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adams transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come:

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift : for if through the offence of one, many bee dead : much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man I esus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift : for the judgement was by one to condemnation ; but the free gift is of many offences vnto justification.

17 For if | by one mans offence, death | Or. by one raigued by one, much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousnes, shall reigne in life by one, Iesus Christ.

18 Therfore as || by the offence of one, | Or, by one sudgment came vpon all men to condemnation: euen so by the || rightcourses of 10r. by one one, the free gift came vpon all men vnto justification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, shall many bee made righteous.

20 Moreouer, the Lawe entred, that the offence might abound: but where sinne abounded, grace did much more abound.

21 That as sinne hath reigned vnto death; euen so might grace reigne thorow righteousnes vnto eternall life, by Iesus Christ onr Lord.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but int the spirit, if so be that the spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man haue not the spirit of Christ, he is none of his. 10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sinne : but the spirit is life, because of righteousnesse.

11 But if the spirit of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you: he that raised vp Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortali bodies, of his spirit. To The Control of his spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therfore brethren, we are detters not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. 13 Forif ye liue after the flesh, ye shall die : but if ye through the spirit doe mortifie the deeds of the body, ye shall liue. 14 For as many as are led by the spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God. 15 For we have not received the spirit of bondage againe to feare : but ye haue received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, father.

16 The spirit it selfe beareth witnes with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 And if children, then heires, heires of God, and ioynt heires with Christ : if so be that we suffer with him, that wee may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon, that the sufferings of this present time, are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be reuealed in vs.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creature, waiteth for the manifestation of the sonnes of God.

20 For the creature was made subiect to vanitie, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope:

21 Because the creature it selfe also shall bee delivered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious libertie of the children of God.

24 For wee are saued by hope : but hope that is seene, is not hope : for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? 25 But if wee hope for that wee see not, then doe wee with patience waite for it.

30 Moreouer, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he iustified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall wee then say to these things? If God be for vs, who can bee against vs?

32 He that spared not his owne son, but deliuered him vp for vs all : how shall hee not with him also freely give vs all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods elect? It is God that iustifieth :

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather that is risen againe, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of Christ? shall tribulation, or distresse, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or perill, or sword?

36 (As it is written, * for thy sake we * real. 41. are killed all the day long, wee are ac-22 counted as sheepe for the slaughter.)

37 Nay in all these things wee are more then conquerours, through him that loued vs.

38 For I am perswaded, that nei-ther death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor beight, nor depth, nor any other creature, shalbe able to separate vs from the love of God, which is in Christ lesus our Lord.

16 And if the eare shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body : is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members, every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say vnto the hand, I have no need of thee : nor againe, the head to the feete, I have no strange tongues,

8 Charitie neuer faileth : but whether there be prophesies, they shall faile; whether there bee tongues, they shall cease; whether there bee knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesie in part.

IO But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part, shalbe done away.

11 When I was a childe, I spake as a childe, I vnderstood as a childe, I Ithought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glasse, t darkely : but then face to face : now I know in part, but then shall I know euen as also I am knowen.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charitie, these three, but the greatest of these is charitie.

CHAP. XIIII.

Prophecie is commended, 2. 3. 4 and preferred before speaking with tongues, 6 by a comparison drawen from musicall instruments. 12 Both must bee referred to edification, 32 as to their true and proper end. 26 The true was of each is taught, 27 and the abuse taxed. 34 Women are forbidden to speake in the Church.

Ollow after charitie, and desire spirituati gittes, and rather that yee may prophesie. desire spirituall giftes, but

2 For he that speaketh in an unknowen tongue, speaketh not vn-Gr heareth to men, but vnto God : for no man tvnderstandeth him : howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

S But he that prophesieth, speaketh vnto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknowen tongue, edifieth himselfe : but hee that prophesieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I would that yee all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is hee that prophesieth, then hee that speaketh with tongues, except hee interprete, that the Church may receine edifying.

6 Now brethren, if I come vnto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speake to you either by reuelation, or by know-

10 There are, it may bee, so many kindes of voices in the world, and none of them are without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voyce, I shall bee vnto him that speaketh, a Barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a Barbarian vnto mee.

12 Euen so ye, for smuch as yee are sealous tof spiritual gifls, seeke that yee if Gr. of spimay excell to the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh n an unknowen tongue, pray that he may 14 For if I pray in an unknowen tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my vnderstanding is vnfruitfull.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and wil pray with understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the vnderstanding also.

16 Else, when thou shalt blesse with the spirit, how shall hee that occupieth the roome of the vulcarned, say Amen at thy giuing of thankes, seeing he vnderstandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thankes well: but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake with tongues more then you all.

19 Yet in the Church I had rather speake fiue words with my understanding, that by my voyce I might teach others also, then ten thousand words in an vnknowen tongue.

23 If therefore the whole Church be come together into some place, and all speake with tongues, & there come in those that are valearned, or vabeleeuers, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleeueth not, or one vnlearned: he is conuinced of all, he is 28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, and let him speake to himselfe, and to God.

29 Let the Prophets speake two or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be reueiled to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace. 31 For yee may all prophesie one by one, that all may learne, and all may be comforted.

32 And the spirits of the Prophets are subject to the Prophets.

38 For God is not the authour of + confusion, but of peace, as in all Churches of the Saints.

34 Let your women keepe silence in the Churches, for it is not permitted vnto them to speake; but they are commanded to bee vnder obedience : as also

Gen. 3. 16. saith the Law. 35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church. 36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it vnto you onely?

37 If any man thinke himselfe to be a Prophet, or spiritual, let him acknow. ledge, that the things that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

CHAP. XV.

3 By Christes resurrection, 12 he proueth the necessitie of our resurrection, against all such as deny the resurrection of the body. 31 The as deny she resurrection or the 1003; at a 15e fruit, 35 and maner thereof, 51 And of the changing of them, that shall bee found aline at the last day.

Oreoner brethren, I de-clare vnto you the Gospel which I preached vnto you, which also you have received, and wherein yes stand.

2 By which also yee are saued, it yee || keepe in memorie + what I pres- 1 Or, held ched vnto you, vnlesse yee haue belee- for by who ued in vaine.

S For I delivered vato you first of all, that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sinnes according to the Scriptures:

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose againe the third day according to the Scriptures.

5 And that he was seene of Cephas, then of the twelue.

5 And that hee was seene of aboue five hundred brethren at once : of whom the greater part remaine vnto this present, but some are fallen asleepe.

7 After that, he was seen of Iames, then of all the Apostles.

8 And last of all he was seene of me also, as of tone borne out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the Apostles, that am not meet to be called an Apostle because I persecuted & Church of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am what I am : and his grace which was bestowed vpo me, was not in vaine : But I laboured more abundantly then they all, yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me:

11 Therefore, whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye beleeved.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is also vaine:

15 Yea.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God, because we have testified of God, that he raised vp Christ : whom hee raised not up, if so bee that the dead

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vaine, we are yet in your sinnes. 18 Then they also which are fallen asleepe in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, wee are of all men most mise-

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the 22 For as in Adam all die, euen so in Christ shall all be made aliue.

23 But euery man in his owne order. Christ the first fruits, afterward they that are Christs, at his comming.

24 Then commeth the end, when he shall have delivered vp the kingdome to God even the Father, when he shall have put downe all rule, and all authority and power.

25 For he must reigne, till hee hath put all enemies vnder his feete.

26 The last enemie that shall be destroved, is death.

27 For he hath put all things vnder his feete; but when hee saith all things are put vuder him, it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things vnder him.

28 And when all things shall bee subdued vnto him, then shal the Sonne also himselfe bee subject vnto him that put all things vnder him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shal they do, which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And why stand we in icopardy euery houre?

31 I protest by || your reloyeing which I have in Christ Icsus our Lord, I die dayly. 32 If fafter the maner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what aduantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let vs eate and drinke, for to morrowe wee die.

33 Bee not deceiued : euill communications corrupt good manners.

34 Awake to righteousnesse, and sinne not : for some haue not the knowledge of God, I speake this to your 35 But some man will say, How are the dead raysed up? and with what body doc they come?

36 Thou foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened except it die.

S7 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare graine, it may chance of wheate, or of some other graine.

38 But God giueth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his owne body.

59 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestiall bodies, and bodies terrestriall : But the glorie of the celestiall is one, and the glorie of the terrestriall is another.

41 There is one glory of the sunne, another of the moone, and another glorie of the starres; for one starre differeth from another starre in glorie.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead, it is sowen in corruption, it is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sowen in dishonour, it is raysed in glorie : it is sowen in weakenesse, it is raysed in power:

44 It is sowen a naturall body, it is raised a spirituall bodie. There is a naturall bodie, and there is a spirituall

45 And so it is written: The first man Adam was made a liuing soule, the last Adam was made a quickening

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spirituall : but that which is naturall, and afterward that which is spirituall.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: The second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they that are earthy, and as is the heauenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, wee shall also beare the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh & blood cannot inherite the kingdome of God : neither doth corruption inherite incorruption.

we shall not all sleepe, but wee shall all be changed, 53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortall must put on immortalitie.

54 So when this corruptible shall haue put on incorruption, & this mortall shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to passe the saying that is written, * Death is swallowed vp in 55 O death, where is thy sting? O graue, where is thy victorie?

56 The sting of death is sinne, and the strength of sinne is the law.

57 But thankes bee to God, which giueth vs the victorie, through our Lord Iesus Christ.

58 Therefore my beloued brethren be yee stedfast, vnmoueable, alwayes a bounding in the worke of the Lord forasmuch as you know that your la bour is not in vaine in the Lord.

CHAP. XVI.

Hee exhorteth them to relieue the want of the brethren at Ierusalem. 10 Commendeth Timothy, 13 And after friendly ad-monitions, 16 Shutteth vp his Epistle with divers salutations.

Ow concerning the collec-tion for the Saints, as I haue giuen order to the Churches of Galatis, euen so doe ye.

2 Vpon the first day of the weeke, let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever you shall approve by your letters, them wil I send to bring your + liberality vnto Ierusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I goe also, they shall goe with me.

5 Now I wil come vnto you, when I shall passe through Macedonia: for doe passe through Maccdonia.

6 And it may bee that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that yee may bring me on my iourny, whithersoever

7 For I will not see you now by 51 Behold, I shew you a mysterie : the way, but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus vn. till Pentecost.

9 For a great doore and effectuall is opened vnto mee, and there are many aduersaries.

10 Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without feare for hee worketh the worke of the Lord, as I also doe.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that hee may come vnto me : for I looke for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come vnto you with y bretbren, but his wil was not at all to come at this time : but he wil come when hee shall haue convenient time.

13 Watch yee, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men : be strong.

14 Let all your things be done with charitie.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministery of the Saints,)

16 That ye submit your selues vnto such, and to every one that helpeth with vs and laboureth.

17 I am glad of the comming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part, they have supplied.

18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge yee them that are such.

19 The Churches of Asia salute you: Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the Church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you : greet we one another with an holy kisse.

21 The salutation of me Paul, with mine owne hand.

22 If any man loue not the Lord lesus Christ, let him bee Anathema Maranatha.

23 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you.

24 My loue he with you all in Christ lesus, Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE

of Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians.

CHAP. I.

The Apostle incourageth them against troubles, by the comforts and deliuerances which God had given him, as in all his afflictions, 8 so particularly in his late danger in Asia 12 And calling both his owne conscience, and theirs to witnesse, of his sincere maner of preaching the immutable trueth of the Gospel, 15 Hee excuseth his not comming to them, as proceeding not of lightnesse, but of his lenitie towards them.

Aul an Apostle of Iesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothie our brother, vnto the Church of God, which is at Corinth, with all the Saints, which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace bee to you and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Ie-

3 Blessed be God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort.

4 Who comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort, wherewith we our selves are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in ve, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and saluation, which is ||effectuall in the enduring of the same sufferings, which wee also suffer : or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation, and saluation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so shall yee be also of the consolatiou.

8 For we would not, brethren, haue you ignorant of our trouble which came to vs in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, aboue strength, in so much that we dispaired even of life.

9 But we had the || sentence of death vor, anin our selues, that we should not trust swere. in our selues, but in God which raiseth the dead.

10 Who deliuered vs from so great a death, and doeth deliuer : in whom we trust that he will yet deliuer vs :

11 You also helping together by prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs by the meanes of many per-sons, thankes may bee given by many on our behalfe.

12 For our rejoycing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicitie and godly sinceritie, not with fleshly wisedome, but by the grace of God, wee have had our conversation in the world, and more aboundantly to you-

13 For we write none other things vnto you, then what you reade or acknowledge, and I trust you shall acknowledge euen to the end.

14 As also you have acknowledged vs in part, that we are your rejoycing, euen as ye also are ours, in the day of the Lord Iesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come vnto you before, that you might haue a second || benefit : Or. grace

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedo-nia vnto you, and of you to bee brought on my way toward Iudea.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightnesse? or the things that I purpose, doe I purpose according to the flesh, that with mee there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

18 But as God is true, our || word to for, preaward you, was not yea and nav.

Not yea and nay.

Chap.ii.iij.

A fweet fauour

19 For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ, who was preached among you by vs, euen hy me, and Syluanus and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay, but in him, was yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are Yea, and in him Amen, vnto the glory of God by vs.

21 Now hee which stablisheth vs with you, in Christ, and hath anounted vs. is God.

22 Who hath also sealed vs, and giuen the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreouer, I call God for a record vpo my soule, that to spare you I came not as yet vnto Corinth.

21 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your ioy : for by faith ye stand.

CHAP. II.

1 Hauing shewed the reason why he came not to them, 6 Hee requireth them to forgine and to comfort that excommunicated person, 10 Euen as himselfe also vpon his true repentance had forgiven him, 12 declaring withall why hee departed from Troas to Macedonia, 14 and the happy successe which God gaue to his preaching in all places.

¥ Vt I determined this with my selfe, that I would not come againe to you in heauinesse. 2 For if I make you sorie, who is hee then that maketh mee glad, but the same which is made sorie

3 And I wrote this same vnto you, least when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whome I ought to reioyce, having confidence in you all, that my toy is the toy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart, I wrote vnto you with many teares, not that you should bee grieued, but that yee might knowe the loue which I have more abundantly

5 But if any haue caused griefe, hee hath not gricued mee, but in part : that I may not ouercharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this || punishment, which was inflicted of many.

7 So that contrarywise, yee ought rather to forgine him, and comfort him, lest perhaps, such a one should be swallowed vp with ouermuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you, that you would confirme your love towards 9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proofe of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom yee forgine any thing,
I forgine also: for if I forgane any thing, to whom I forgane it, for your sakes
forgane I it, in || the person of Christ, 11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of vs : for wee are not ignorant of his deuices. 12 Furthermore when I came to Troas, to preach Christs Gospel, and a doore was opened vnto mee of the 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but taking my leaue of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thankes bee vnto God, which alwayes causeth vs to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the sayour of his knowledge by vs in euery

15 For wee are vnto God, a sweet samour of Christ, in them that are saucd, and in them that perish.

16 To the one wee are the sauour of death vnto death; and to the other, the sauour of life vnto life : and who is sufficient for these things?

17 For wee are not as many which corrupt the word of God : but as of 10r, deals sinceritie, but as of God, in the sight of with. God speake we in Christ.

CHAP. III.

Lest their false teachers should charge him with vaineglory, hee sheweth the faith and graces of the Corinthians, to bee a sufficient commendation of his ministerie. 6 Whereupon entring a comparison betweene the ministers of the Law & of the Gospel, 12 he proueth that his ministerie is so far the more excellent, as the Gospel of life and libertie is more glorious then the law of condemnation.

Oe wee begin againe to commend our selues? or need wee. Epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 Ye are our Epistle written in our hearts, knowen and read of all men.

3 Forasmuch as yet are manifestly declared to be the Epistle of Christ ministred by vs, written not with inke, but with the spirit of the living God, not int tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

Letter and fpirit.

4 And such trust haue wee through Christ to Godward:

5 Not that wee are sufficient of our selues to thinke any thing as of our selves : but our sufficiencie is of God :

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the New Testament, not of the letter, but of the spirit : for the letter killeth, but the spirit || giueth life.

7 But if the ministration of death written, and ingrauen in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly beholde the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance, which gloric was to be done a-WAY:

8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit, be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation bee glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousnesse exceed in 10 For even that which was made glorious, had no glorie in this respect by reason of the glorie that excelleth.

II For if that which is done away, was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that wee haue such 10r, believes hope, we vse great | plainnesse of speech.

13 And not as Moses, which put a vaile ouer his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly looke to the end of that which is abolished:

14 But their mindes were blinded: for votill this day remaineth the same vaile vntaken away, in the reading of the old testament : which vaile is done away in Christ.

15 But even vnto this day, when Moses is read, the vaile is vpon their

16 Neuerthelesse, when it shall turne to the Lord, the vaile shall be taken a-

17 Now the Lord is that spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is libertie.

18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glasse the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image, from glorie to glorie, euen as || by the spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He declareth how hee hath vsed all synceritie and faithfull diligence in preaching the Go-spel, 7 and how the troubles and persecu-tions which be dayly indured for the same, did redound to the praise of Gods power, 12 to the benefit of the Church, 16 and to the Apostles owne eternall glory.

Herefore, seeing we haue this ministery, as we have this ministery, as we have received mercie wee faint not:

2 But have renounced

the hidden things of + dishonesty, not | Gr. shower walking in craftines, nor handling the word of God deceitfully, but by manifestation of the trueth, commending our selues to enery mans conscience, in the sight of God. 3 But if our Gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom the God of this world bath blinded the minds of them which beleeue not, lest the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine vnto them.

5 For we preach not our selues, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.

6 For God who commaunded the light to shine out of darkenes, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God, in the face of Iesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of the power may be of God, and not of vs.

8 Wee are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but ínot in despaire, 9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; without help cast downe, but not destroyed.

10 Alwayes bearing about in the body, the dying of the Lord lesus, that the life also of Iesus might bee made manifest in our body.

11 For we which line, are alway deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might bee made manifest in our mortall flesh.

12 So then death worketh in vs. but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, * I beleeved, * Ps. 116. 10 and therefore haue I spoken : wee also beleeue, and therefore speake.

14 Knowing that hee which raised vp the Lord Iesus, shall raise vp vs also by Iesus, and shall present vs with

That in his assured hope of immortall glo-rie, 9 and in expectance of it, and of the generall judgement, hee laboureth to keepe a good conscience, 12 not that he may here-in boast of himselfe, 14 but as one that hauing received life from Christ, indenoureth to liue as a new creature to Christ onely, 18 and by his ministery of reconciliation to reconcile others also in Christ to God.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort, yes and exceedingly the more loyed wee for the loy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

Oreouer, brethren, wee do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the Churches of Macedonia, 2 How that in a great 7 Therefore (as ye abound in enery thing, in faith, and vtterance, & knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue to vs) see that yee abound in this grace also.

8 I speake not by commandement, but by occasion of the forwardnesse of others, and to proone the sinceritie of vour loue.

16 But thankes bee to God which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation, but being more forward, of his owne accord he went vnto you.

18 And wee haue sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the Gospel, throughout all the Churches.

Fire yeeldeth the reason why, though bee knewe their forwardnesse, yet bee sent Titus and his brethren before hand. 6 And hee proceedeth in stirring them up to a bountifull almes, as being but a kind of sowing of seed, 10 which shall returne a great increase to them, 13 and occasion a great sacrifice of thanksgivings vuto God.

3 Yet haue I sent the brethren, least our boasting of you should bee in vaine in this behalfe, that as I saide, yee may be readie.

4 Lest happily if they of Macedonia come with mee, & find you enprepared, wee (that wee say not, you) should bee ashamed in this same confident boasting.

Paul to the Galatians.

CHAP. L.

6 He wondereth that they have so soone left him, and the Gospel, 8 And accurach those that preach any other Gospel then hee did. 11 He learned the Gospel not of men, but of God: 14 And sheweth what he was before his calling, 17 and what he did presently after it.

Aul an Apostle, not of men, neither by man, but by Iesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him fro the dead. 2 And all the brethren which are with mee, vnto the Churches of Galatia: 3 Grace bee to you and peace, from God the Father, and from our Lord Iesus Christ,

4 Who gave himselfe for our sinnes, that he might deliuer vs from this present euill world, according to the will of God, and our Father,

5 To whom bee glorie for euer and euer. Amen.

6 I marueile, that you are so soone! removed from him, that called you into the grace of Christ, vnto an other Gospel:

7 Which is not another; but there bee some that trouble you, and would peruert the Gospel of Christ.

8 But though we, or an Angel from heauen, preach anyother Gospel vnto you, then that which wee haue preached vnto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now againe, If any man preach any other Gospel vnto you, then that yee have receiued, let him be accursed.

10 For doe I now perswade men, or God? or doe I seeke to please men? For if I vet pleased men. I should not bee the seruant of Christ.

11 But I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, is not after man.

12 For I neither received it of man. neither was I taught it, but by the reuelation of Iesus Christ.

15 For yee haue heard of my conuersation in time past, in the lewes Religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the Church of God, and wasted it:

14 And profited in the Iewes Religion, aboue many my fequals in mine | Gr. equals owne nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace,

16 To reueale his sonne in mee, that I might preach him among the heathen, immediatly I conferred not with flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I vp to Ierusalem, to them which were Apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, and returned againe vnto Damascus.

18 Then after three yeeres, I | went | 07, returvp to Ierusalem to see Peter, and a-ne bode with him fifteene dayes.

19 But other of the Apostles saw I none, saue Iames the Lords brother.

20 Now the things which I write vnto you, behold, before God I lye not. 21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia, 22 And was vnknowen by face vnto the Churches of Iudea, which were in Christ.

23 But they had heard onely, that he which persecuted vs in times past, now preacheth the faith, which once hee destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth when he went vp agains to Hierusalem, and for what purpose: 3 And that Titus was not circumcised: 11 And that he resisted Peter, and told him the reason, 14 why hee and other being Iewes, doe beleeue in Christ to bee lustified by faith, and not by workes: 20 And that they live not in sinne, who are so justified.

1 Or. Mue.

Hen fourteene yeeres after, I went vp againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and tooke Titus with me also.

2 And I went vp by reuelation, and communicated vnto them that Gospel, which I preach among the Gentiles, but || privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any meanes I should runne, or had runne in vaine.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greeke, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of false brethren vnawares brought in, who came in priuily to spie out our libertie, which wee haue in Christ Iesus, that they might bring vs into bondage.

5 To whom wee gaue place by subiection, no not for an houre, that the trueth of the Gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these, who seemed to bee somewhat, (whatsoeuer they were, it maketh no matter to mee, God accepteth no mans person,) for they who seemed to be somewhat, in conference added nothing to me.

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the Gospel of the vncircumcision was committed vnto me, as the Gospel of the circumcision was vnto Peter:

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the Apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mightie in mel towards the Gentiles.) 9 And when Iames, Cephas and John, who seemed to bee pillars, perceiued the grace that was given vnto me, they gaue to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that wee should goe vnto the heathen, and they vnto the circumcision. 10 Onely they would that wee should remember the poore, the same which I also was forward to doe.

11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certaine came from Iames, he did eate with the Gentiles : but when they were come, hee withdrew, and separated himselfe, fearing them which were of the Circumcisio.

13 And the other lewes dissembled likewise with him, insomuch that Barnabas also was caried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not vprightly according to the truth of the Gospel, I said vnto Peter before them al, If thou, being a Iew, liuest after the maner of Gentiles, and not as doe the Iewes, why compellest thou the Gentiles to liue as do the Iewes?

15 We who are Iewes by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, 16 Knowing that a man is not iustified by the works of the Law, but by the faith of Iesus Christ, even we have beleeved in Iesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Law : for by the workes of the Law shall no flesh be iustified.

17 But if while we seeke to be justified by Christ, wee our selues also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sinne? God forbid.

18 For if I build agains the things which I destroyed, I make my selfe a transgressour.

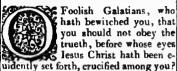

19 For I through y Law, am dead to the Law, that I might line vnto God.

20 I am crucified with Christ. Neuertheles, I liue, yet not I, but Christ liueth in me, and the life which I now liue in the flesh, I liue by the faith of the sonne of God, who loued mee, and gaue himselfe for me.

21 I doe not frustrate the grace of God : for if righteousnes come by the Lawe, then Christ is dead in vaine.

and it was ||accounted to him for righteousnesse.

7 Knowe yee therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And the Scripture foreseeing that God would justifie the heathen through faith, preached before the Gospel vnto Cen. 12. 1 Abraham, saying, "In thee shall all nations be blessed.

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles, through Iesus Christ: that wee might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Breihren, I speake after the maor. testa. ner of men : though it be but a mans ||couenant, yet if it bee confirmed, no man disanulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his seede were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many, but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the Couenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the Lawe which was foure hundred and thirtie yeres after, cannot disanul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance bee of the Law, it is no more of promise : but God gaue it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then seructh the Law? it was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come, to whome the promise was made, and it was orderned by Angels in the hand of a Media-

20 Now a mediatour is not a Mediatour of one, but God is one.

21 Is the Lawe then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had beene a Lawe giuen which could have given life, verily righteousnesse should have bene by the Law.

22 But the Scripture hath concluded all vader sinne, that the promise by faith of Iesus Christ might be given to them that beleeue.

23 But before faith came, wee were kept under the Law, shut up unto the faith, which should afterwards bee reuealed.

24 Wherefore the Law was our Schoolemaster to bring vs vnto Christ, that we might be justified by Faith.

25 But after that Faith is come, we are no longer vnder a Schoolemaster.

26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Iesus.

27 For as many of you as haue bene baptized into Christ, have put on Christ.

28 There is neither Iewe, nor Greeke, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female : for ye are all one in Christ Iesus.

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a free woman.

23 But he who was of the bondwoman, was borne after the flesh : but hee of the freewoman, was by promise.

24 Which things are an Allegorie; for these are the two || Couenants; the ments. dereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and ||answereth to Ierusalem, 10r, win the which now is, and is in bondage with with her children.

26 But lerusalem which is about is free, which is the mother of vs all.

27 For it is written, *Reioyce thou * Esa, 54. barren that bearest not, breake foorth and cry thou that traueilest not; for the desolate hath many moe children then she which hath an husband.

28 Now wee, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

29 But as then hee that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the Spirit, euen so it is now.

30 Neuerthelesse, what saith the Scripture? *Cast out the bondwoman Gen. 21 and her sonne : for the son of the bond-10. woman shall not bee heire with the son of the freewoman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

CHAP. I.

3 He testifieth his thankefulnesse to God, and his love toward them, for the fruits of their faith and fellowship, in his sufferings, 9 dayly praying to him for their increase in grace: 12 Hee sheweth what good the faith of Christ had received by his troubles at Rome, 2t and how ready he is to glorifie Christ either by his life or death, 27 exhorting them to vnitie, 28 and to fortitude in persecution.

14 And many of the brethren in the others. Lord, waxing confident, by my bonds, are much more bold to speake the word without feare.

15 Some in deed preach Christ, euen of enuie and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not syncerely, supposing to adde affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of loue, knowing that I am set for the defence of the Gospel.

18 What then? Notwithstanding euery way, whether in pretence, or in trueth : Christ is preached, and I therein doe reioyce, yea, and will reioyce.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour : yet what I shall chuse, I wote not.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all, for your furtherance and ioy of faith, 26 That your reloyeing may bee more abundant in Iesus Christ for me, by my comming to you againe.

27 Onely let your conversation bee as it becommeth the Gospel of Christ, that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may heare of your affaires, that yee stand fast in one spirit, with one minde, striuing together for the faith of the Gospel,

28 And in nothing terrified by your aduersaries, which is to them an euident token of perdition : but to you of 23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soone as I shall see how it wil goe with me.

24 But I trust in the Lord, that I also my selfe shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary, to send to you Epaphroditus my brother tion, and tooke vpon him the forme of and companion in labour, and fellow souldiour.

The Circumcifion. that ministred to my wants.

26 For hee longed after you all, and was full of heavinesse, because that yee had heard that he had bene sicke.

27 For indeed he was sieke nigh vnto death, but God had mercy on him: and not on him onely, but on mee also, lest I should haue sorow vpon sorow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that when ye see him againe, ye may reloyce, and that I may bee the lesse sorrowfull.

29 Receive him therfore in the Lord with all gladnesse, and || hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the worke of Christ he was nigh vnto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lacke of seruice toward me.

CHAP. III.

Hee warneth them to beware of the false teachers of the Circumcision, 4 shewing that himself bath greater cause then they, to trust names name greater cause then they, to trust in the righteousnesse of the Law: 7 which notwithstanding hee counteth as doung and losse, to gaine Christ and his righteousnesse, 12 therein acknowledging his owne imperfection. 15 Hee exhorteth them to be thus minded, 17 and to imitate him, 18 and to decline the waies of carnall Christians.

Inally, my brethren, reioyce in the Lorde. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grieuous : but for you it is 2 Beware of dogs, beware of euill workers : beware of the concision.

3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and reioyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that hee hath whereof hee might trust in the flesh. I more:

5 Circumcised the eight day, of the stocke of Israel, of the tribe of Beniamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrewes, as touching the Law, a Pharise:

6 Concerning seale, persecuting the Church : touching the righteousnesse which is in the Law, blamelesse.

7 But what things were gaine to me, those I counted losse for Christ,

8 Yea doubtlesse, and I count all things but losse, for the excellencie of the souldiour, but your messenger, and heel |knowledge of Christ Iesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the losse of all things, and doe count them but doung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having mine owne righteousnesse, which is of the Law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousnesse which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable vnto his death.

11 If hy any meanes I might attaine vnto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect : but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Iesus.

13 Brethren, I count not my selfe to haue apprehended : but this one thing I doe, forgetting those things which are behinde, and reaching forth vnto those things which are before.

14 I presse toward the marke, for the price of the high calling of God in Christ Iesus.

Chap.iii.

15 Let vs therefore, as many as bee perfect, bee thus minded : and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reueale euen this vnto you.

16 Neuerthelesse, whereto wee haue alreadie attained, let vs walke by the same rule, let vs minde the same thing.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and marke them which walke so, as ye haue vs for an ensample.

18 (For many walke, of whome I haue told you often, and now tell you euen weeping, that they are the enemies of the crosse of Christ:

19 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glorie is in their shame, who minde earthly things.)

20 For our conversation is in heauen, from whence also we looke for the Saujour, the Lord Iesus Christ:

21 Who shall change our vile bodie, that it may bee fashioned like vnto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things vnto himselfe.

CHAP. IIII.

From particular admonitions 4 hee proceedeth to generall exhortations, 10 shewing how hee reloyced at their liberalitie towards him lying in prison, not so much for the supply of his owne wants, as for the grace of God in them. 19 And so he concludeth with prayer and mlutations.

Herefore, my brethren, dearely beloued and long-ed for, my ioy and crowne, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearely beloued.

2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntiche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I entreat thee also, true yokefellow, helpe those women which laboured with me in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow labourers, whose names are in the booke of life.

4 Reioyce in the Lord alway; and againe I say, Reioyce.

5 Let your moderation be knowen vnto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Bee carefull for nothing: but in euery thing by prayer and supplication with thankesgiuing, let your request be made knowen vnto God.

7 And the peace of God which passeth all vnderstanding, shall keepe your hearts & minds through Christ Iesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoeuer things are true, whatsoeuer things are 10r, venera honest, whatsoever things are just whatsoeuer things are pure, whatsoeuer things are louely, whatsoeuer things are of good report; if there bee any vertue, and if there bee any praise, thinke on these things:

9 Those things which ye have both learned and received, and heard, and seene in mee, doe : and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoyced in the Lorde greatly, that now at the last your care 1 Or, is read of me || hath flourished againe, wherein vee were also carefull, but ye lacked opportunitie.

11 Not that I speake in respect of want: for I have learned in whatsoeuer state I am, therewith to bee con-

12 I know both how to bee abased. and I knowe how to abound: euerie where, and in all things I am instructed, both to bee full, and to bee hungrie. both to abound, and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ, which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding, yee haue well done, that we did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the Gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no Church communicated with mee, as concerning giving and receiving, but ye 16 For even in Thessalonica, ye sent once, and againe vnto my necessitie.

Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians.

CHAP. 1.

The Thessalonians are given to understand both how mindfull of them S. Paul was at all times in thanks-giving, & prayer : 5 and also how well he was perswaded of the truth, and sinceritie of their faith, & conversion to God.

4 Knowing, brethren || beloued, or, beloyour election of God.

5 For our Gospel came not vntol you in word onely : but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as yee know what maner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And yee became followers of vs. and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with iov of the holy Ghost:

idols, to serue the living, and true God, 10 And to waite for his sonne from heauen, whom he raised from the dead, cucn Iesus which deliuered vs from the wrath to come.

Or your selues, brethren, knowe our entrance in vnto you that it was not in vaine.

2 But euen after that wee had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, wee were bold in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospel of God with much contention.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceite, nor of vncleannesse, nor in guile:

4 But as we were allowed of God to bee put in trust with the Gospel, euen so wee speake, not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time vsed wee flattering wordes, as yee knowe, nor a cloke of couetousnesse, God is witnesse:

6 Nor of men sought we glorie, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might haue beene || hurdensome, as the Apostles of Christ.

7 But wee were gentle among you, euen as a nurse cherisheth her chil-

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to haue imparted vnto you, not the Gospel of God only, but also our owne soules, because ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For yee remember, brethren, our labour and trausile: for labouring night and day, because wee would not bee chargeable vnto any of you, wee preached vnto you the Gospel of God.

10 Yee are witnesses, and God also, how holily, and justly, and vnblameably wee behaued our selues among you that beleeue.

11 As you know, how wee exhorted and comforted, and charged every one of you. (as a father doeth his children,)

12 That ye would walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glory.

13 For this cause also thanke wee God without ceasing, because when yee received the word of God, which yee heard of vs, yee received it not as the word of men, but (as it is in trueth) the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that beleeue.

14 For yee, hrethren, became followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudea are in Christ Iesus : for ye also have suffered like things of your owne countreymen, euen as they have of the 15 Who both killed the Lord Iesus, and their owne Prophets, and haue persecuted vs: and they please not God, 1 or, chased and are contrary to all men:

16 Forbidding vs to speake to the Gentiles, that they might bee saued, to fill vp their sinnes alway : for the wrath is come vpon them to the vttermost.

17 But wee, brethren, beeing taken from you for a short time, in presence, not in heart, endeuored the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come vnto you (euen I Paul) once & againe: but Satan hindered vs.

19 For what is our hope, or ioy, or crowne of ||reloycing? Are not even ye |Or, glorying in the presence of our Lord Iesus Christ at his comming?

20 For, ye are our glory and ioy.

CHAP. III.

S. Paul testifieth his great loue to the Thessa. lonians, partly by sending Timothic vnto them to strengthen and comfort them : partly by reioycing in their weldoing: 10 and partly by praying for them, and desiring a safe comming vnto them.

5 For this cause when I could no longer forbeare, I sent to know your faith, lest by some meanes the tempter haue tempted you, and our labor be in vaine.

6 But now when Timotheus came from you vato vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith and charitie, and that ye have good remembrance of vs alwayes, desiring greatly to see vs, as we also to see you:

7 Therefore brethren, wee were comforted ouer you in all our affliction and distresse, by your faith:
8 For now we *liue, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thankes can we render to God againe for you, for all the ioy wherewith wee toy for your sakes before our God,

10 Night & day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himselfe and our Father, and our Lord lesus Christ ||direct our way vnto you.

12 And the Lorde make you to increase, & abound in loue one towards another, and towards all men, euen as we doe towards you:

13 To the end hee may stablish your hearts vnhlameable in holinesse before God euen our Father, at the comming of our Lord Iesus Christ with all his Saints.

CILAP. IIII.

Hee exhorteth them to goe on forward in all manner of godlinesse, 6 to liue holily and iustly, 9 to louc one another, 11 and quietly to followe their owne businesse: 13 and last of all to sorrow moderately for the dead. 17 And vnto this last exhortation is annexed a briefe description of the resurrection, and second comming of Christ to judgement.

Vrthermore then we || be-seechyou, brethren, and || ex-hort you by the Lord lesus, that as yee haue receiued of vs, how ye ought to 12 That ye may walke honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lacke of || nothing.

18 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleepe, that ye sorrow not, euen as others which haue no hope. 14 For if we beleeue that Iesus died, 15 For this we say vnto you by the word of the Lord, That we which are aliue and remaine vnto the comming of the Lord, shall not preuent them which are asleepe.

16 For the Lord himselfc shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voyce of the Archangel, and with the trumpe of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first.

1 Hee proceedeth in the former description of Christs comming to indgement, 16 and giveth diners precepts, 23 and so concludeth the Epistle.

Vt of the times and the sca-sons, brethren, yee haue no nced that I write vnto you. 2 For your selues knowe perfectly that the day of the Lord so commeth as a thiefe in the night.

3 For when they shal say, Peace and safety: then sudden destructio commeth vpon them, as trausile vpon a woman with childe, and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkenesse, that that day should ouertake you as a thiefe.

5 Yee are all the children of light, and the children of the day : we are not of the night, nor of darkenesse.

6 Therefore let vs not sleepe, as doe others: but let vs watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that bee drunken, arc drunken in the night.

8 But let vs who are of the day, bee sober, putting on the brestplate of faith and loue, and for an helmet, the hope of saluation.

9 For God hath not appointed vs to wrath : but to obtaine saluation by our Lord lesus Christ, 10 Who died for vs, that whether we wake or sleepe, we should live together with him.

CHAP. I.

S. Paul certifieth them of the good opinion which hee had of their faith, loue, and patience: 11 And therewithall vaeth divers reasons for the comforting of them in persecu-tion, whereof the chiefest is taken from the righteous judgement of God

Aul and Siluanus, and Timotheus vnto the Church of the Thessalonias, in God our Father. and the Lord Iesus Christ:

CHAP. II.

Hee willeth them to continue stedfast in the trueth received, 3 Sheweth that there shall bee a departure from the faith, 9 and a discovery of Antichrist, before the day of the Lord come. 15 And thereupon repeateth his former exhortation, & prayeth for them.

Ow wee beseech you, bre-thren, by the comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, thren, by the Lord Iesus Christ, and by our gathering together vnto him, wee bee not soone shaken it weither by spirit of Paul the Apostle to Timothie.

CHAP. I.

Timothie is put in mind of the charge which was given voto him by Paul at his going to Macedonia. S Of the right vse and end of the Law. 11 of Saint Pauls calling to be an Apostle, 20 and of Hymeneus & Alexander.

Aul an Apostle of Iesus Christ by the commaundement of God our Sauiour, & Lord Iesus Christ which is our hope.

Vnto Timothie my own sonne in the Faith : Grace, mercie, and peace from God our Father, and lesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine, 4 Neither give heed to fables, and endlesse genealogies, which minister questions, rather then edifying which is in faith : so doe.

5 Now the end of the commandement is charity, out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vn fained.

6 From which some || hauing swarned, have turned aside vnto vaine lang-

7 Desiring to bee teachers of the Law, vnderståding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirme.

8 But we know that the Law is good, if a man vse it lawfully.

9 Knowing this, that the Law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawlesse and disobedient, for the vngodly, and for sinners, for vnholy, and profane, for murderers of fathers, and murderers of mothers, for man-

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankinde, for men-stealers, for liars, for periured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine,

11 According to the glorious Gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thanke Christ Iesus our Lord, who hath enabled mee : for that he counted me faithfull, putting me into the Ministerie, 13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecuter, and injurious. But I obtained mercie, because I did it ignorantly, in vnbeliefe.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant, with faith, & loue, which is in Christ Iesus.

15 This is a faithfull saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Iesus came into the world to sauc sinners, of whom I am chiefe.

16 Howbeit, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first, Iesus Christ might shew foorth all long suffering. for a paterne to them which should hereafter beleeve on him to life everla-

17 Now vnto y king eternal, immortall, inuisible, the onely wise God, be honour and glory for euer & euer. Amen.

5 And ouer it the Cherubims of glory shadowing the Mercyseat; of which we cannot now speake particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the Priestes went alwaves into the first Tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high Priest alone once euery yeere, not with out blood, which he offered for himselfe, and for the errors of the people.

8 The holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the Holiest of all, was not yet made manifest, while as the first Tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offred both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the seruice perfect, as pertayning to the conscience,

10 Which stood onely in meates and drinkes, and divers washings, and || car- 1 Or. rites, or nall ordinances imposed on them vntill the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high Priest of good things to come, hy a greater and more perfect Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this huilding:

12 Neither by the blood of Goats and Calues: but by his owne blood hee entred in once into the Holy place, ha-juing obtained eternall redemption hath he appeared to put away sinne by for vs.

13 For if the blood of Bulls, and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the vncleane, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit, offered himselfe without ||spot to God, purge your conscience from dead workes, to serue the liuing God?

15 And for this cause hee is the Mediatour of the New Testament, that by meanes of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first Testament, they which are called, might receive the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For where a Testament is, there must also of necessitie || bee the death of the Testatour.

17 For a Testament is of force after men are dead : otherwise it is of no strength at all whilest the Testatour liueth.

18 Whereupon, neither the first Testament was || dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken euery precept to all the people according to the Law, he tooke the blood of Calues or, purple, and of Goates, with water and || scarlet wooll, and hysope, and sprinckled both the booke and all the people,

20 Saying, This is the blood of the Testament which God hath enjoyned

21 Moreouer, hee sprinkled with blood both the Tabernacle, and all the vessels of the Ministery.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood : and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heauens should bee purified with these, but the heauenly things themselves with better sacrifices then these.

24 For Christ is not entred into the Holy places made with handes, which are the figures of the true, but into hea-uen it selfe, now to appeare in the presence of God for vs.

What faith is. 6 Without faith we cannot please God. 7 The worthy fruits thereof in the Fathers of old time.

Ow faith is the substance of things hoped for, the euidence of things not seen.

6 But

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him : for hee that commeth to God, must beleeve that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seeke him.

7 By faith Noah being warned of God of things not seene as yet, | moued with feare, prepared an Arke to the sauing of his house, by the which he condemned the world, and became heire of the righteousnesse which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham when he was called to goe out into a place which hee should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed, and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith hee soiourned in the land of promise, as in a strange countrey, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Iacob, the heires with him of the same promise.

10 For hee looked for a citie which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also Sara her selfe received strength to conceive seede, and was deliuered of a child when she was pastage, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

23 By faith, Moses when hee was borne was hid three moneths of his parents, because they saw he was a proper childe, and they not afraid of the Kings commandement.

24 By faith Moses when hee was come to yeeres, refused to bee called the sonne of Pharaohs daughter,

25 Chusing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, then to enjoy the pleasures of sinne for a season:

26 Esteeming the reproch || of Christ | Christ greater riches then the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect vnto the recompense of the reward.

generall of Peter.

CHAP. I.

Hee blesseth God for his manifold spirituall graces: 10 shewing that the saluation in Christ is no newes, but a thing prophesied of olde: 13 And exhorteth them accordingly to a godly conucrsation, forasmuch as they are now borne anew by the word of God.

Eter an Apostle of Iesus Christ. to the strangers scattred therewout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithypia.

2 Elect, according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit vnto obedience, and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ : Grace vnto you and peace be multiplied.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his +abundant mercy, hath begotten vs againe vnto a liuely hope, by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead.

9 Receiving the ende of your faith, cuen the saluation of your soules:

10 Of which saluation the Prophets haue inquired, and searched diligently, who propliesied of the grace that should come vnto vou.

Il Searching what, or what maner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signifie, when it testified beforehand the suffrings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Vnto whome it was reuealed, that not voto themselves, but voto vs, they did minister the things which are now reported voto you, by them that haue preached the Gospel voto you, with the holy Ghost sent downe from heaven, which things the Angels desire to looke into.

13 Wherefore gird vp the loynes of your minde, bee sober, and hope tto the Gr. perfect end, for the grace that is to bee brought vnto you at the reuelation of Iesus Christ:

14 As obedient children, not fashioming your selues according to the former lusts, in your ignorance:

He dehorteth them from the breach of charitie: 4 shewing that Christ is the foudation wherupon they are built. t1 He beseecheth them also to abstaine from fleshly lustes, 13 To bee obedient to magistrates, 18 and teach-eth seruants how to obey their masters, 20 patiently suffering for well doing after the example of Christ.

CHAP. HI.

Hee teacheth the duetie of wines and husbands to each other; 8 exhorting all men to vnitie, and loue, 14 and to suffer persecution.

19 Hee declareth also the benefits of Christ toward the old world.

Ikewise, ye wiues, be in subjection to your owne husbands, that if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be wonne by the conuersation of the wives: 2 While they beholde your chaste conversation coupled with feare: 3 Whose adorning, let it not bee that outward adorning, of plaiting the haire, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparell.

4 But let it bee the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meeke and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the olde time, the holy women also who trusted in God adorned themselves, beeing in subjection vnto their owne husbands.

6 Euen as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him Lord, whose + daughters ye are as long as ye doe well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise ve husbands, dwel with them according to knowledge, giving honour vnto the wife as vnto the weaker vessel, and as being heires together of the grace of life, that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally be ye all of one minde, hauing compassion one of another, lloue as brethren, be pitifull, be courteous, 9 Not rendring euill for euill, or railing for railing: but contrarywise blesting, knowing that yee are thereunto called, that ye should inherite a blessing.

10 For hee that will love life, and see good dayes, let him refraine his tongue rom euil, and his * lips that they speake no guile:

the righteous, and his eares are open vnto their prayers : but the face of the Lord is tagainst them that doe euill. 1 Or. opon.

13 And who is hee that will harme you, if ye bee followers of that which is good?

14 But and if we suffer for righteousnes sake, happy are ue, andbe not afraid Em. s. 12, of their terrour, neither be troubled :

15 But sanctifie the Lord God in your hearts, & be ready alwayes to give an answere to euery man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekenesse and || feare :

16 Hauing a good conscience, that rence. whereas they speake euill of you, as of euill doers, they may bee ashamed that falsly accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that yee suffer for well doing, then for euill doing.

18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sinnes, the just for the vniust, that he might bring vs to God, being put to death in the flesh, hut quickened by the Spirit.

19 By which also he went and preached vnto the spirits in prison,

20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the long-suffering of God waited in the dayes of Noah, while the Arke was a preparing : wherein few, that is, eight soules were saued by water.

21 The like figure whereunto, euen Baptisme, doth also now saue vs, (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answere of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Iesus Christ.

22 Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God, Angels, and authorities, and powers being made subject vnto him.

CHAP. IIII.

Hee exhorteth them to cease from sinne by the example of Christ, and the consideration of the generall end, that now approcheth: 12 and comforteth them against persecution.

Orasmuch then as Christ flesh, arme your selucs likewise with the same minde : for hee that hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sinne :

2 That

* Esa. 8, 14.

S For the time past of our life may suffice vs to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciuiousnes. lusts, excesse of wine, reuellings, banquetings, and ahhominable idolatries.

4 Wherein they thinke it strange, that you runne not with them to the same excesse of riot, speaking enilof you: 5 Who shal give accompt to him that is ready to judge the quicke & the dead.

6 For, for this cause was the Gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might bee judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But the ende of all things is at hand: be we therefore sober and watch vnic praver.

8 And above all things have feruent charitie among your selues: for charity shall couer the multitude of sinnes.

9 Vse hospitalitie one to another without grudging.

IO As every man hath received the gift, euen so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speake, let him speake as the oracles of God : if any man minister, let him doe it as of the ability which God giveth, that God in all things may bee glorified through Iesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for euer and cuer. Amen.

12 Beloued, thinke it not strange concerning the fiery triall, which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened vnto vou.

18 But rejoyce in as much as yee are partakers of Christes sufferings; that when his glory shalbe reueiled, ve may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 If ye be reproched for the Name of Christ, happie are ue, for the spirit of glory, and of God resteth vpon you: on their part hee is euill spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murtherer, or as a theefe, or as an euill doer, or as a busibody in other mens

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, hut let him glorifie God on this behalfe.

17 For the time is come that judge-and if it first begin at vs, what shall the ende bee of them that obey not the Gospel of God?

18 And if the righteous scarcely be saued, where shall the vigodly and the sinner appeare?

19 Wherfore, let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit the keeping of their soules to him in well doing, as vnto a faithfull Creator.

CHAP. V.

He exhorteth the Elders to feede their flocks. & the yonger to obey, 8 and all to bee sober, watchfull, and constant in the faith : 9 to resist the cruell adversarie the deuill.

He Elders which are a-mong you I exhort, who am also an Elder, and a witnesse of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be reucaled.

2 Feede the flocke of God || which is among you, taking the ouersight thereof, not hy constraint, but willingly: not for as in you is. filthy lucre, but of a ready minde:

S Neither as | being lords over Gods heritage : but being ensamples to the tor. ouerflocke.

4 And when the chiefe shepheard shall appeare, ye shall receiue a crowne of glory that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise ye yonger, submit your selues vnto the elder: yea, all of you bee subject one to another, and bee clothed with humilitie : for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 Humhle your selues therefore vnder the mighty hand of God, that hee may exalt you in due time.

7 Casting all your care voon him, for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant : because your adversary the deuill, as a roaring Lion. walketh about, seeking whom he may deugure.

generall of John.

CHAP. I.

He describeth the person of Christ, in whome we have eternal life, by a comunion with God: & to which we must adjoine holinesse of life, to testifie the trueth of that our communion and profession of faith, as also to assure vs of the forginenesse of our sinnes by Christs death.

Hat which was from y beginning, which wee haue heard, which wee haue seene with our eyes, which wee haue looked ypon, and our hands have handled of the word of life.

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seene it, and beare witnes, and shew vnto you that eternall life which was with the Father, and was manifested vnto vs.)

8 That which wee have seene and heard, declare we vnto you, that we also may have felowship with vs; and truely our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Sonne Iesus Christ.

4 And these things write we vnto you, that your loy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare vnto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkenesse at all.

6 If we say that we have felowship with him, and walke in darkenesse, we lie, and doe not the trueth.

7 But if wee walke in the light, as he is in the light, wee haue fellowship one with another, and the hlood of Iesus Christ his Sonne clenseth vs from all sinne.

8 If we say that we have no sinne, we deceive our selves, and the trueth is

He comforteth them against the sinnes of infirmitie. 3 Rightly to know God, is to keepe his commaundements, 9 to love our bre-thren, 15 and not to love the world. 18 We must beware of seducers: 20 from whose deceits the godly are safe preserved by perse-uerance in faith, and holinesse of life.

4 He that saith, I knowe him, and keepeth not his commandements, is a lyer, and the trueth is not in him.

5 But who so keepeth his word, in him verely is the loue of God perfected: herehy know we that we are in him.

6 He that saveth he abideth in him, ought himselfe also so to walke, euen as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new commandement vnto you, but an olde commandement which ye had from the beginning: the old commandement is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Againe, a new commandement I write vnto you, which thing is true in him and in you : because the darkenesse is past, and the true light now shineth.

10 Hee that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of tstumbling in him.

12 I write vnto you, little children, because vour sinnes are forgiuen vou for his Names sake.

13 I write vnto you, fathers, because yee haue knowen him that is from the beginning. I write vnto you, young men, because you have overcome the wicked one. I write vnto you, little children, because yee haue knowen the Father.

14 I have written vnto vou, fathers, because ye haue knowen him that is from the beginning. I have written vnto you, young men, because yee are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and yee have overcome the wicked one.

15 Loue not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man loue the world, the loue of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, hut is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof, but hee that doeth the will of God, abideth for euer.

18 Little children, it is the last time: and as yee haue heard that Antichrist shall come, euen now are there many Antichrists, whereby wee know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from vs, but they were not of vs : for if they had beene of vs, they would no doubt have continued with vs: but they went out that they might be made manifest, that they were not all of vs.

20 But ye have an vnction from the holy One, and ye know all things.

21 I haue not written vnto you, because yee know not the trueth : but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the trueth.

22 Who is a lier, but hee that denieth that Iesus is the Christ? hee is Antichrist, that denyeth the Father, and the Sonne.

23 Whosoeuer denieth the Sonne. the same hath not the Father: but he that acknowledgeth the Sonne, hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore ahide in you which yee haue heard from the beginning : if that which ye haue heard from the beginning shall remaine in you, yee also shall continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that hee hath promised vs, euch eternall life.

26 These things have I written vnto you, concerning them that seduce

27 But the anointing which ye haue receiued of him, abideth in you : and yee need not that any man teach you: But, as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is trueth, and is no lye: and euen as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in || him.

28 And now, little children, shide in him, that when hee shall appeare, wee may have confidence, and not bee ashamed before him at his comming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, we know that enery one which doeth 10r, know ye righteousnesse, is borne of him.

CHAP. III.

Hee declareth the singular love of God towards vs, in making vs his sonnes: 3 Who there-fore ought obediently to keepe his commaundements, 11 As also brotherly to loue one another.

Eholde, what manner of loue the Father hath bea stowed vpon vs, that wee should be called the sonnes of God: therfore the world knoweth vs not, because it knewe him

2 Beloued, now are we the sonnes of God, and it doeth not yet appeare, what wee shall be : but wee know, that when he shall appeare, we shall bee like him : for we shall see him as he is.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purifieth himselfe, euen as he is pure.

4 Whosoeuer committeth sinne, transgresseth also the lawe : for sinne is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know that hee was manifested to take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoeuer ahideth in him, sinneth not : whosoeuer sinneth, hath not seene lum, neither knowen him.

7 Lit.

7 Little children, let no man deceiue you : he that doth righteousnes, is righ teous, euen as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sinne, is of the deuill, for the deuill sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose the Sonne of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the deuill.

9 Whosoeuer is borne of God, doth not commit sinne : for his seede remaineth in him, and he cannot sinne, because he is borne of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the deuill: whosoeuer doeth not righteousnesse, is not of God, neither hee that loueth not his brother.

11 For this is the || message that yee heard from the beginning, that wee should loue one another.

12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slewe his hrother : and wherefore slewe hee him? because his owne workes were enill, and his hrothers righteous.

13 Marueile not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 Wee know that wee haue passed from death vnto life, because wee loue the brethren: he that loueth not his hrother, shideth in death.

15 Whosoeuer hateth his brother, is a murtherer, and yee knowe that no murtherer hath eternall life abiding in lhim:

16 Hereby perceive wee the love of God, because he layd downe his life for vs, and wee ought to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 But who so hath this worlds good, and seeth his brother hath need. and shutteth vp his bowels of compassion from him; how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My little children, let va not loue in word, neither in tongue, hut indeede and in trueth.

19 And herehy wee know that wee are of the trueth, and shall tassure our hearts before him.

20 For if our heart condemne vs. God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then have wee confidence towards God.

22 And whatsoeuer we aske, wee receiue of him, because we keepe his commandement, and doe those things that are pleasing in his eight.

23 And this is his commandement. that we should beleeve on the Name of his Sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as hee gaue vs commande-

24 And hee that keepeth his commandements dwelleth in him, and hee in him : and hereby wee know that hee ahideth in vs. by the spirit which hee hath given vs.

CHAP. IIII.

He warneth them not to beleeve all teachers who boast of the spirit, but to try them by the rules of the Catholike faith: 7 and hy many reasons exhorteth to brotherly loue.

Eloued, beleeue not euery spirit, hut trie the spirits, whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the spirit of God: euery spirit that confesseth that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And eucry Spirit that confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: and this is that spirit of Antichrist, whereof you have heard, that it should come, and even now already is it in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and haue ouercome them : because greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the 5 They are of the world . therefore speake they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: hee that knoweth God, heareth vs : he that is not of God heareth not vs, hereby know wee the spirit of trueth, and the spirit of errour.

7 Beloned, let vs loue one another; for loue is of God; and every one that loueth, is borne of God and knoweth God.

8 Hee that loueth not, knoweth not God : for God is loue.

9 In this was manifested the loue of God towards vs. because that God sent his only begotten Sonne into the world, that we might liue through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that wee loued God, but that he loued vs. and sent his Sonne to be y propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, wee ought also to loue one another.

time. If wee love one another, God world, but he that beleeueth that Iesus dwelleth in vs. and his loue is perfected 13 Hereby know wee that we dwell in him and he in vs, because hee hath giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And we have seene, and doe testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne to be the Saujour of the world.

15 Whosoeuer shall confesse that Iesus is the Sonne of God. God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have knowen and beleeued the love that God hath to vs. God is loue, and hee that dwelleth in loue. dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is tour loue made perfect, that wee may have boldnesse in the day of Iudgement, because as hee is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare : because feare liath torment; hee that feareth, is not made perfect in loue.

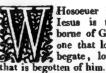

19 We loue him : because hee first loued vs.

20 If a man say, I loue God, and hateth his brother, he is a lyar. For hee that loueth not his hrother whom hee hath seene, how can he loue God whom he hath not seene?

21 And this commandement have we from him, that he who loueth God, loue his hrother also.

CHAP. V.

Hee that loueth God, loueth his children, and keepeth his Commandements: 3 which to the faithful are light, and not grieuous. 9 lesus is the Sonne of God, able to sane vs. 14 and to heare our prayers, which we make for our selues, and for others.

Hosoever beleeueth that Iesus is the Christ, is borne of God : and euery one that loueth him that begate, loueth him also 2 By this wee know that wee loue the children of God, when we love God and keepe his commandements.

3 For this is the loue of God, that we keepe his commandements, and his commandements are not gricuous.

4 For whatsoeuer is borne of God, ouercommeth the world, and this is the victorie that ouercommeth the world, euen our faith.

6 This is hee that came hy water and hlood, euen Iesus Christ, not hy water onely, but hy water and blood: and it is the Spirit that beareth witnesse, because the Spirit is trueth.

7 For there are three that beare record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost : and these three 8 And there are three that beare witnesse in earth, the Spirit, and the Water, and the Blood, and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive the witnesse of men, the witnesse of God is greater : for this is the witnesse of God, which hee hath testified of his Sonne. 10 Hee that beleeueth on the Sonne of God, bath the witnesse in himselfe: he that beleeueth not God, hath made him a liar, because he beleeueth not the record that God gaue of his Sonne.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to vs eternall life, and this life is in his Sonne.

12 Hee that hath the Sonne, hath life: and hee that hath not the Sonne. hath not life.

13 These things have I written vnto you that believe on the Name of the Sonne of God, that ye may know, that ye haue eternall life, and that yee may beleeue on the Name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have || in him, that if wee aske any or. conthing according to his will, hee heareth vs. 15 And if we know that he heare vs, whatsoeuer wee aske, wee know that we have the petitions that wee desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne which is not vnto death, hee shall aske, and he shall give him life for them that sinne not vnto death. There is a sinne vnto death : I doe not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All varighteousnes is sinne, and there is a sinne not vnto death.

18. We know that whosocuer is borne of God, sinneth not : hut hee that is begotten of God, keepeth himselfe, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

Hee exhorteth them to bee constant in the profession of the faith. 14 False teachers are crept in to seduce them; for whose damnable doctrine and manners horrible punishnent is prepared: 20 Whereas the godly, by the assistance of the holy Spirit, and prayers to God, may perseuere, and growin grace, and keepe themselves, and recour others out of the snares of those deceivers.
